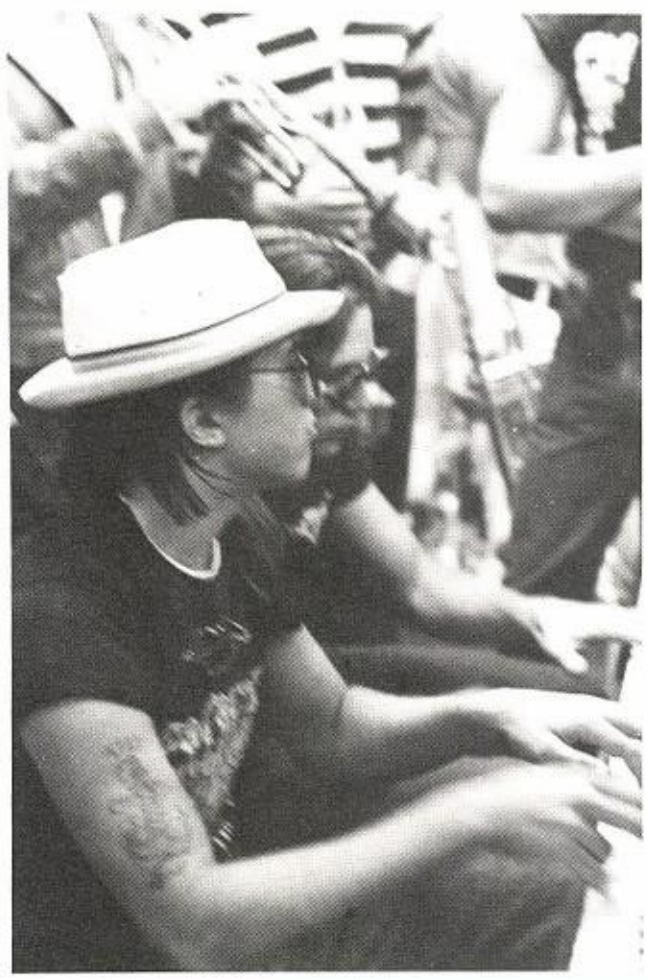
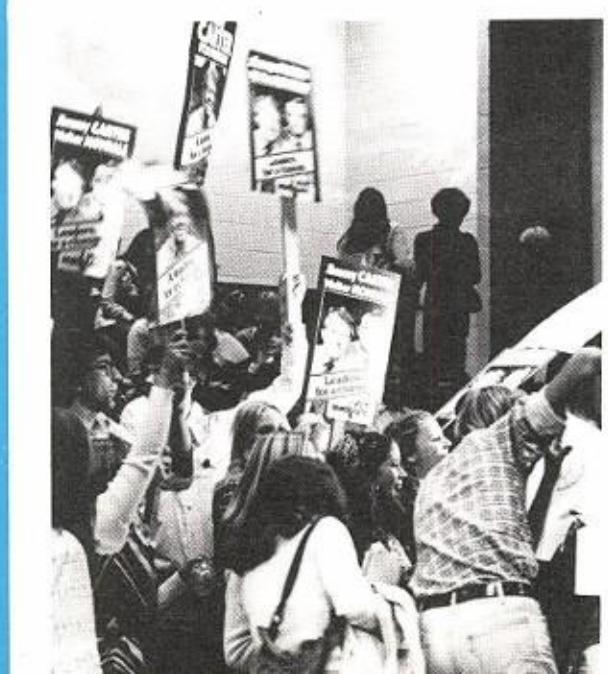
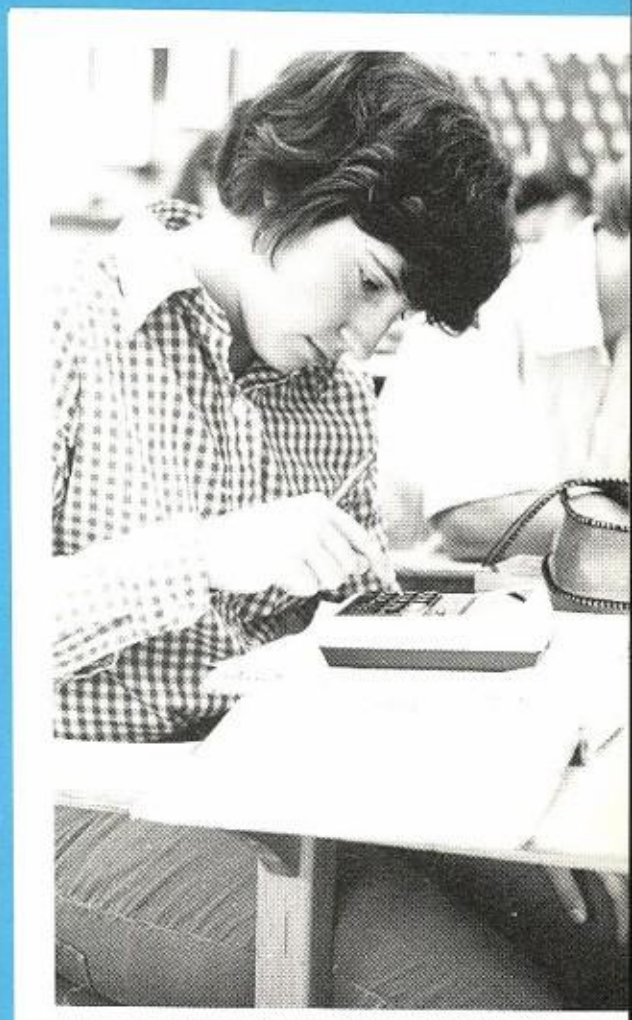
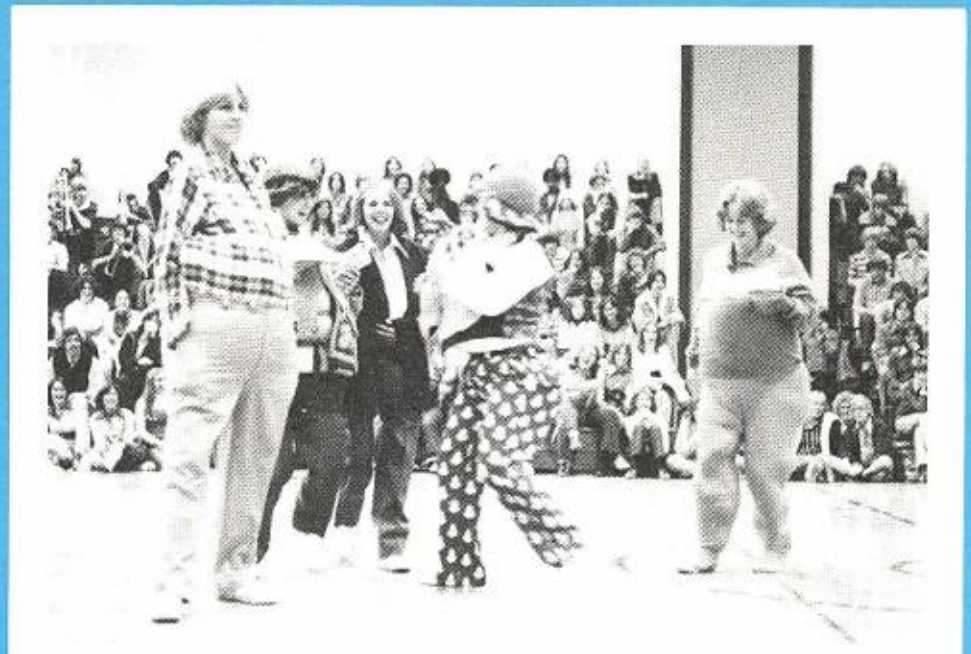
Games People Play

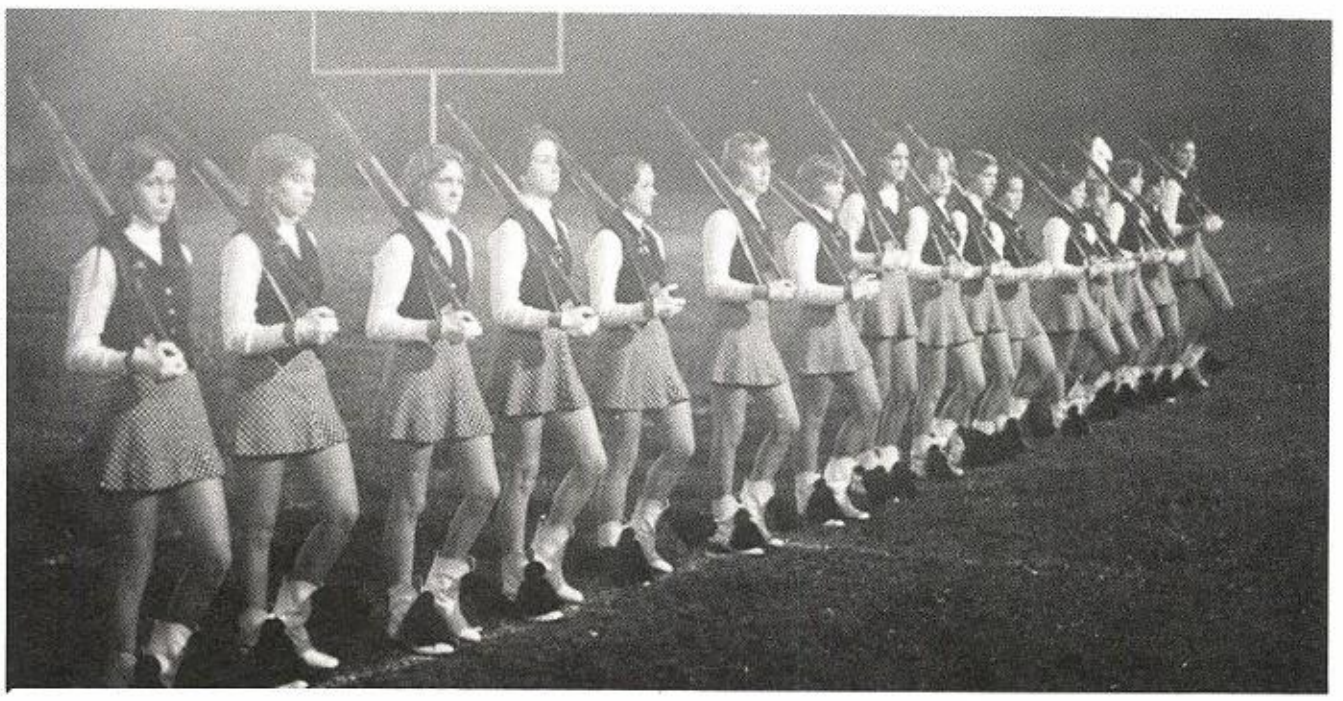


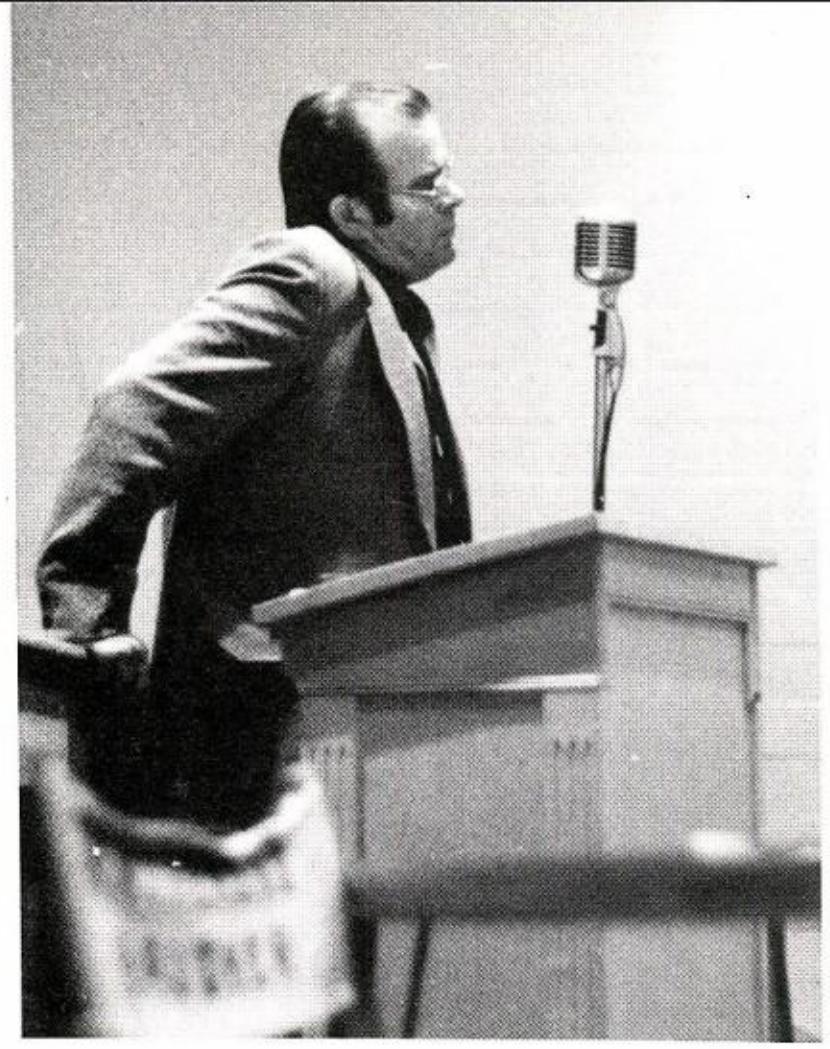


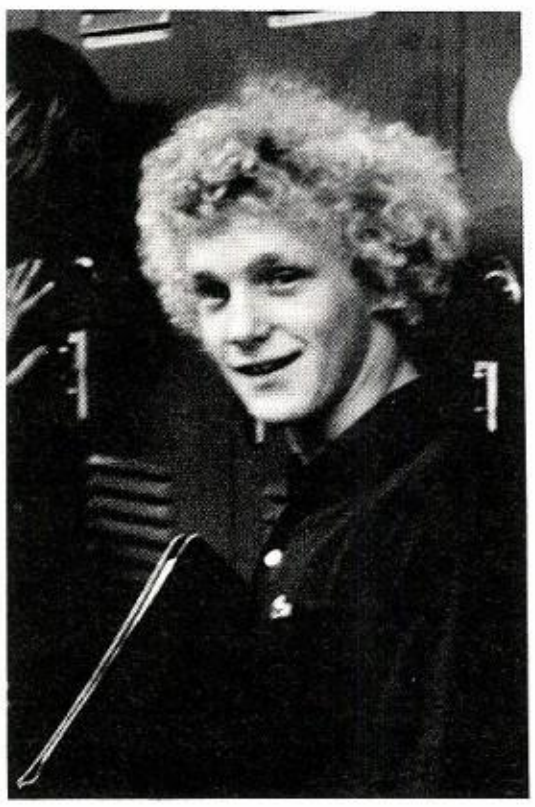


Every person has his own idea of the games he will play. Some decide to participate in sports, others are involved in clubs. Some are interested in other things. The activities a person has reflect his personality and each is what he makes himself to be.

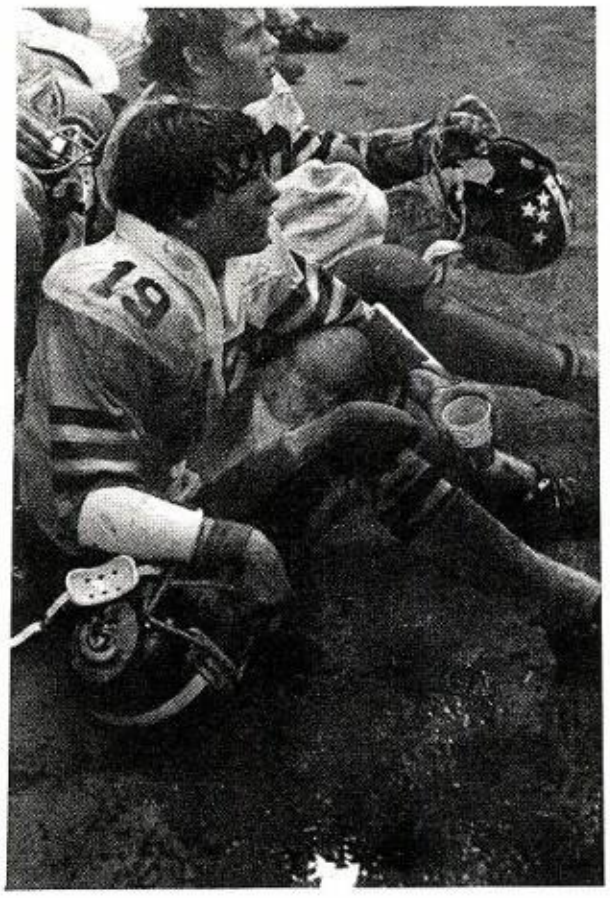


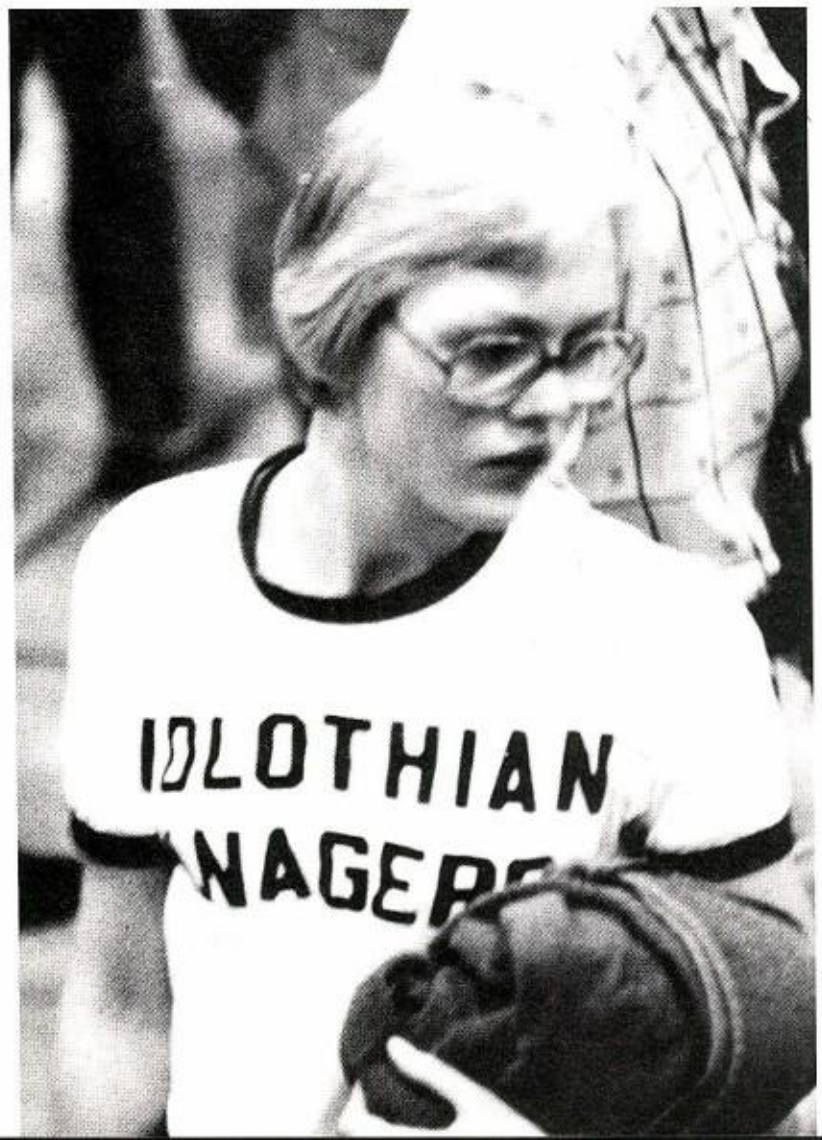


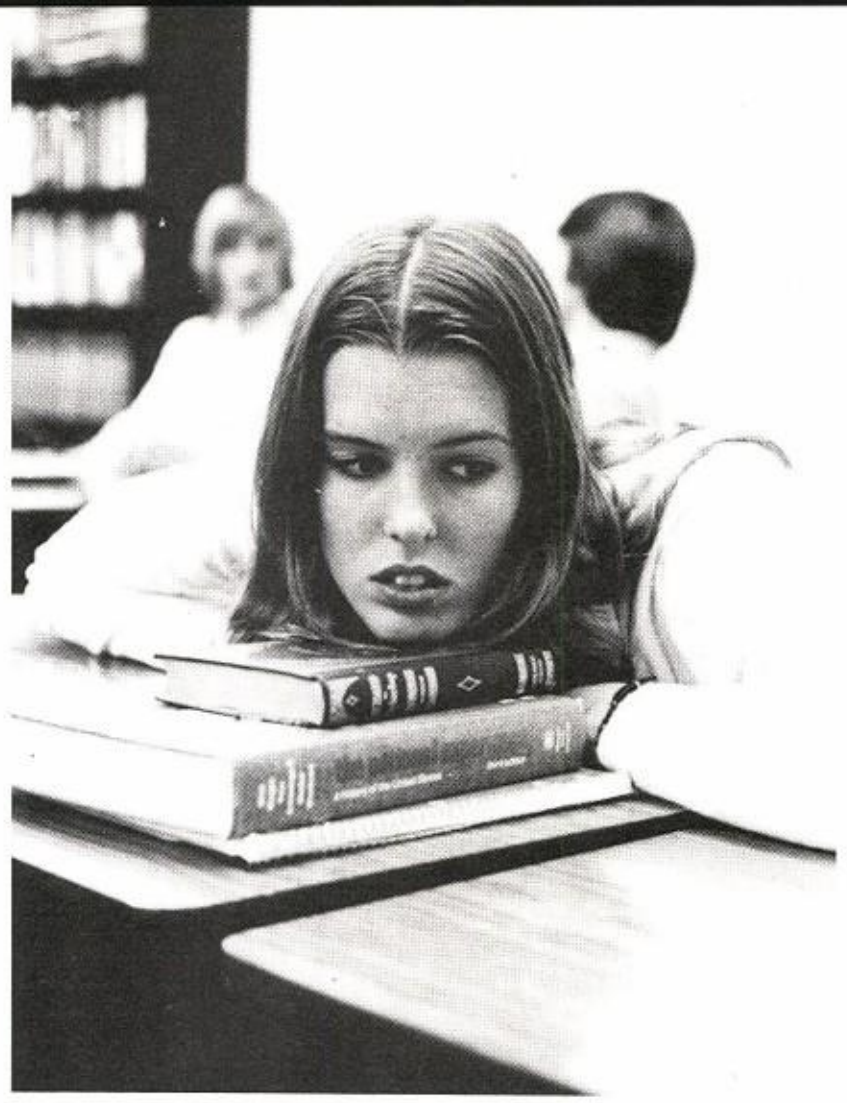




Everyday People







At the start of each school year, everyone is an individual with his own ideas. It takes a person some time to adapt to a new situation, but once that happens, a whole new door is opened to him.

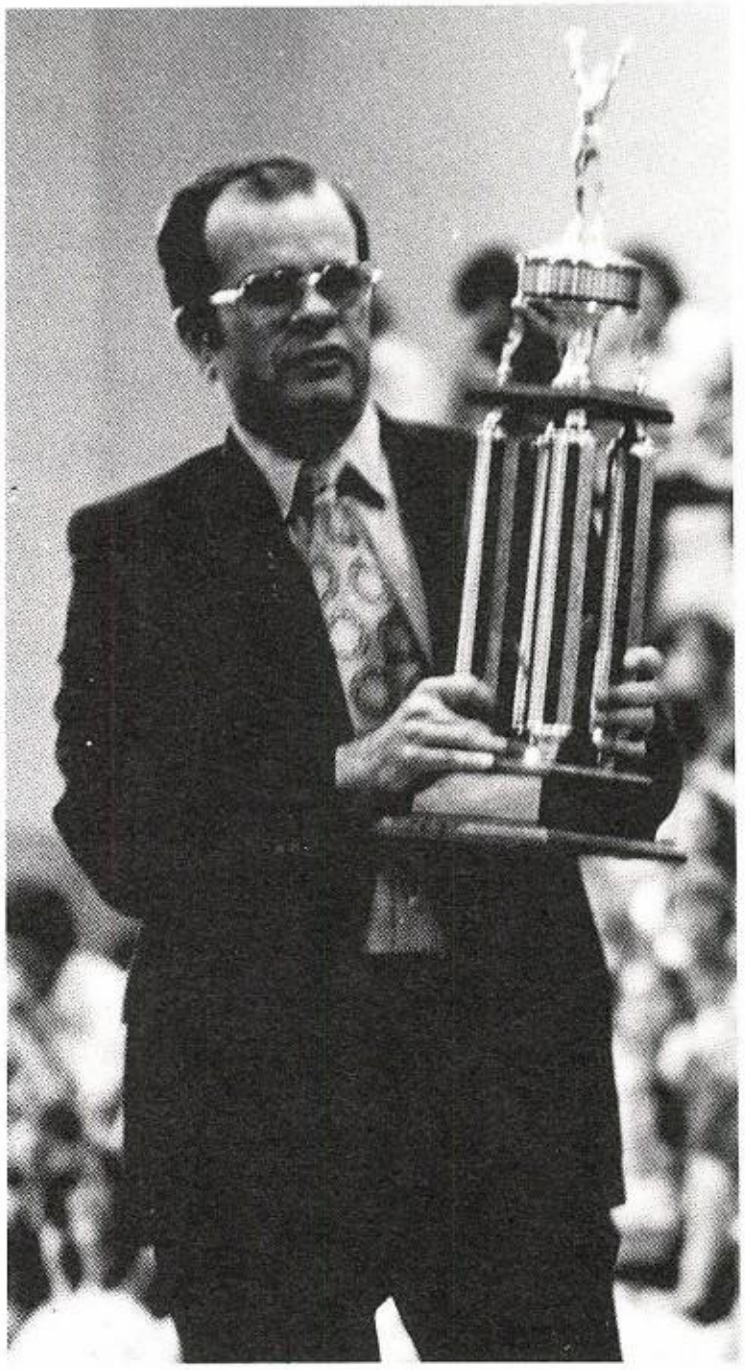
Faculty Games

Administration

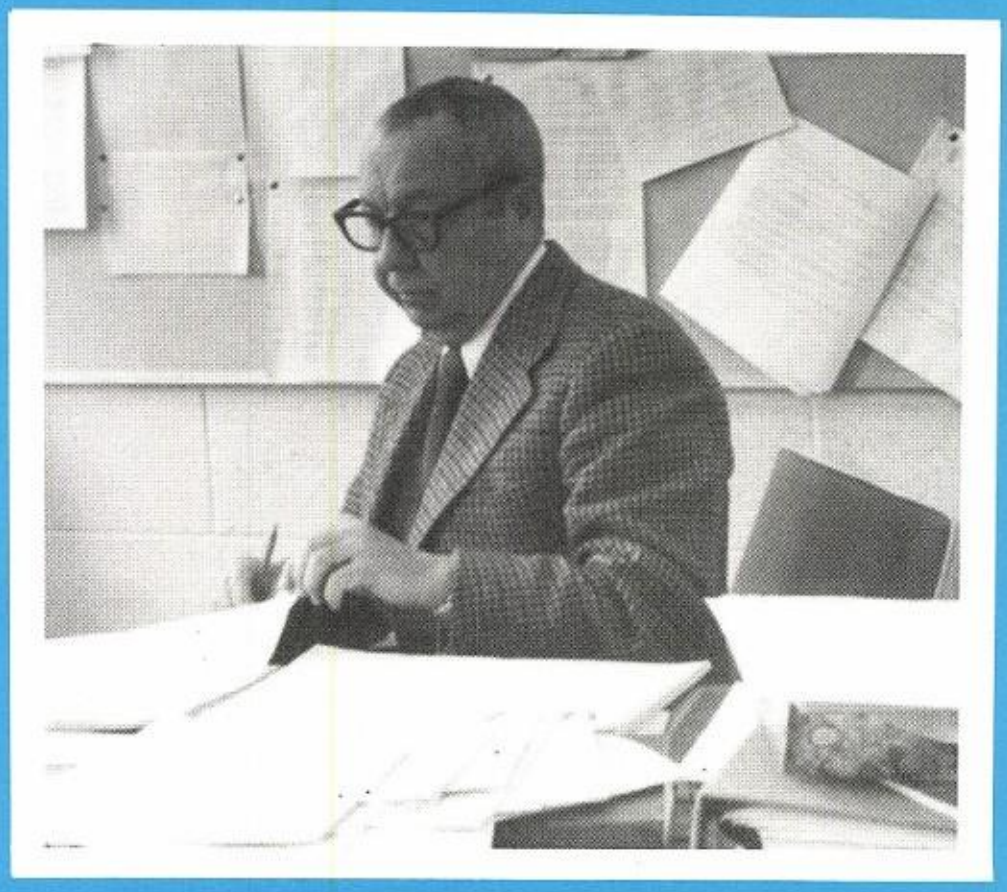
Helping . . .

Understanding . . .

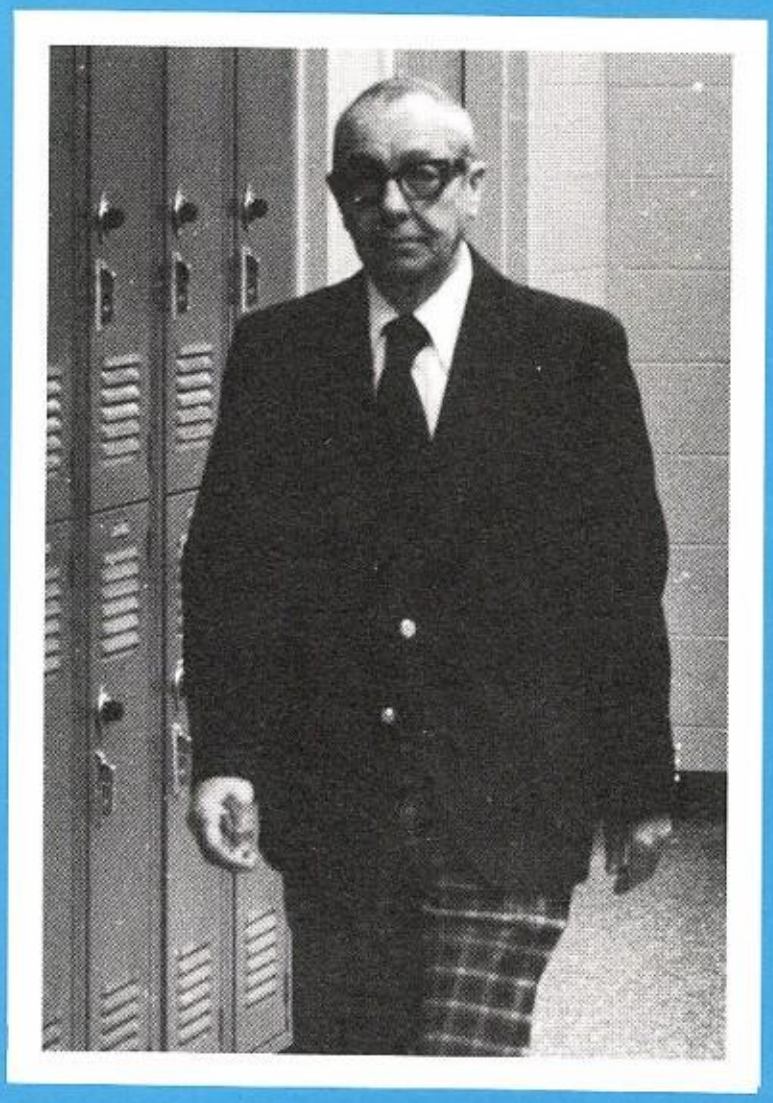


Mr. Poates presents the All-Sports Award trophy to the school.

Even with their many jobs, which include managing the school and guiding the faculty, our administrators still find time to talk with the students and listen to them. They care for us, and this is what helps keep the school running smoothly.

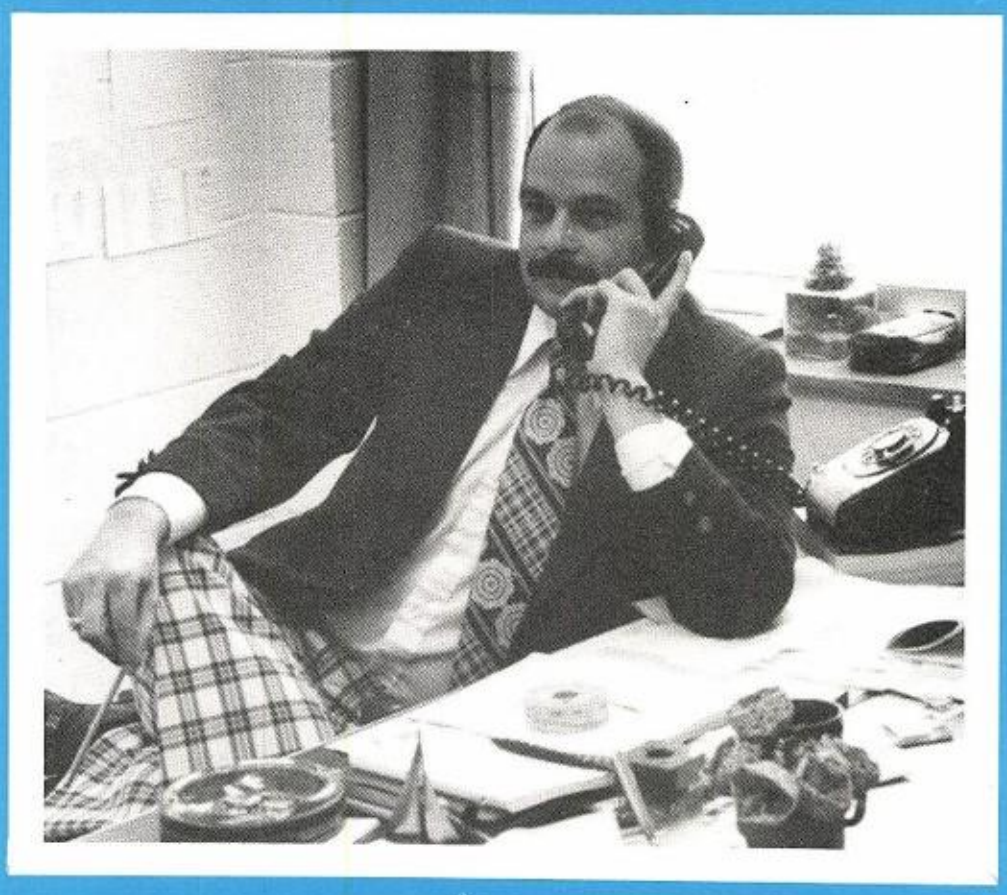


Mr. Rowlett checks over the day's work.



Caring . . .

Guiding . . .



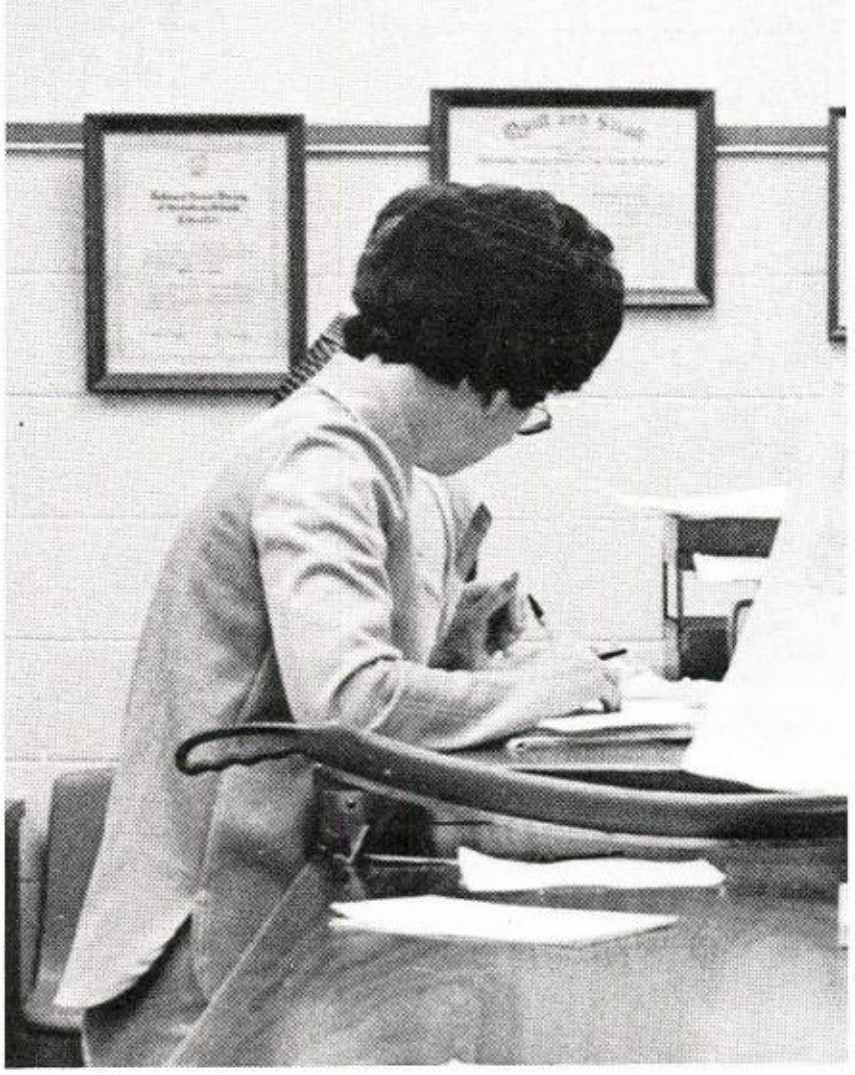
Mr. Cheatham enjoys a break.

Office

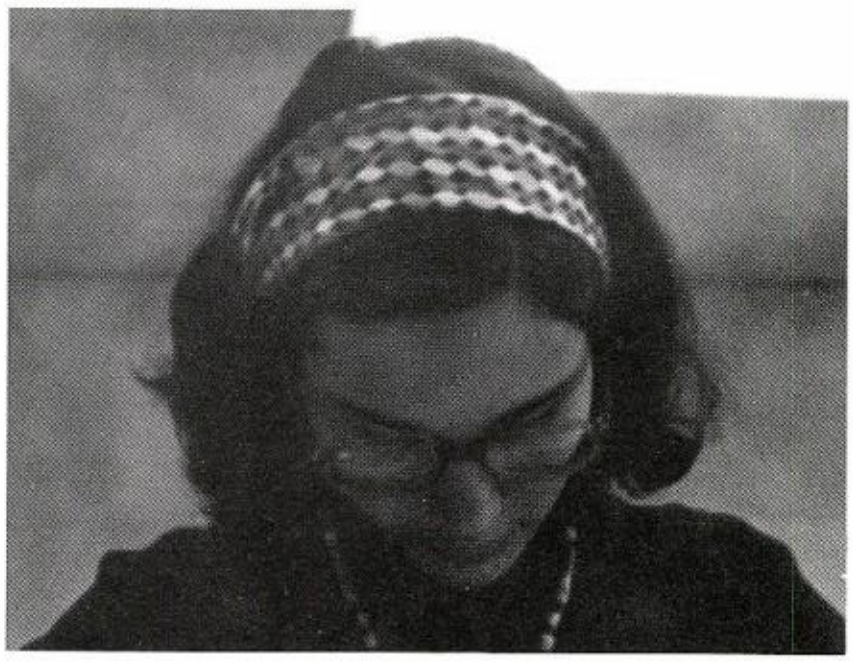
Mrs. Frady checks the club's account.

Mrs. Carlson, teacher aide.

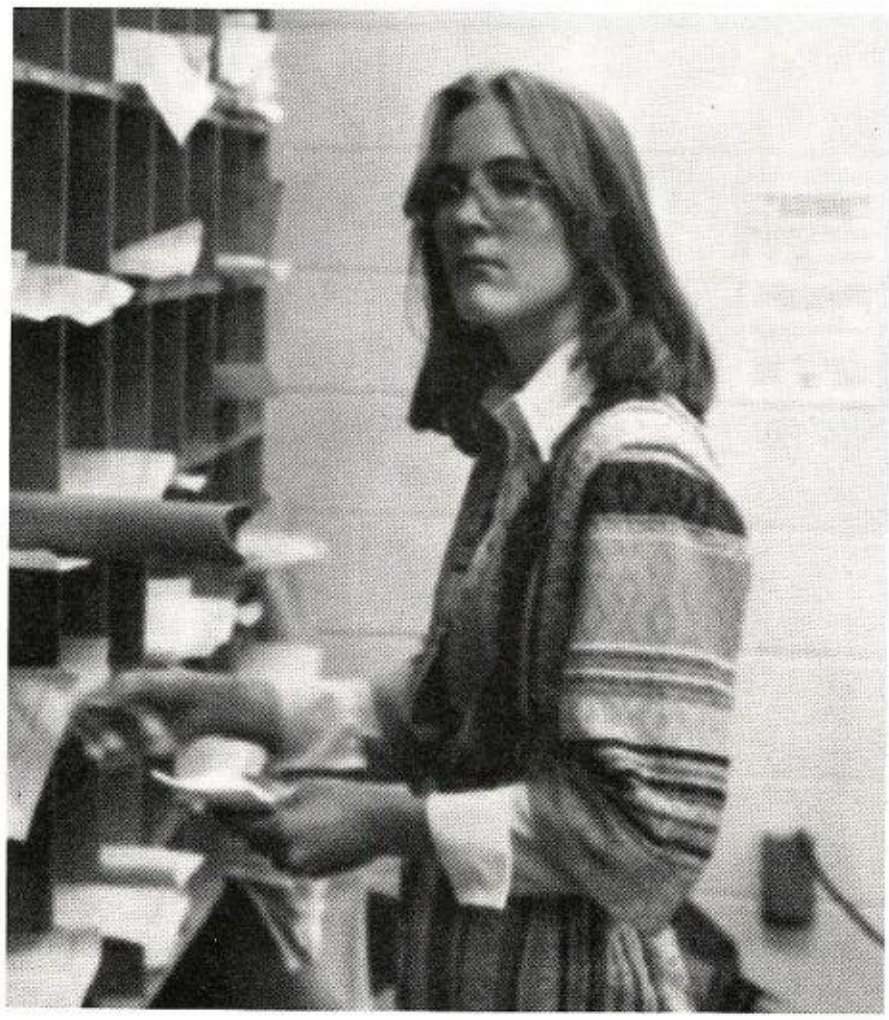
Gloria O'Brien reads announcements.



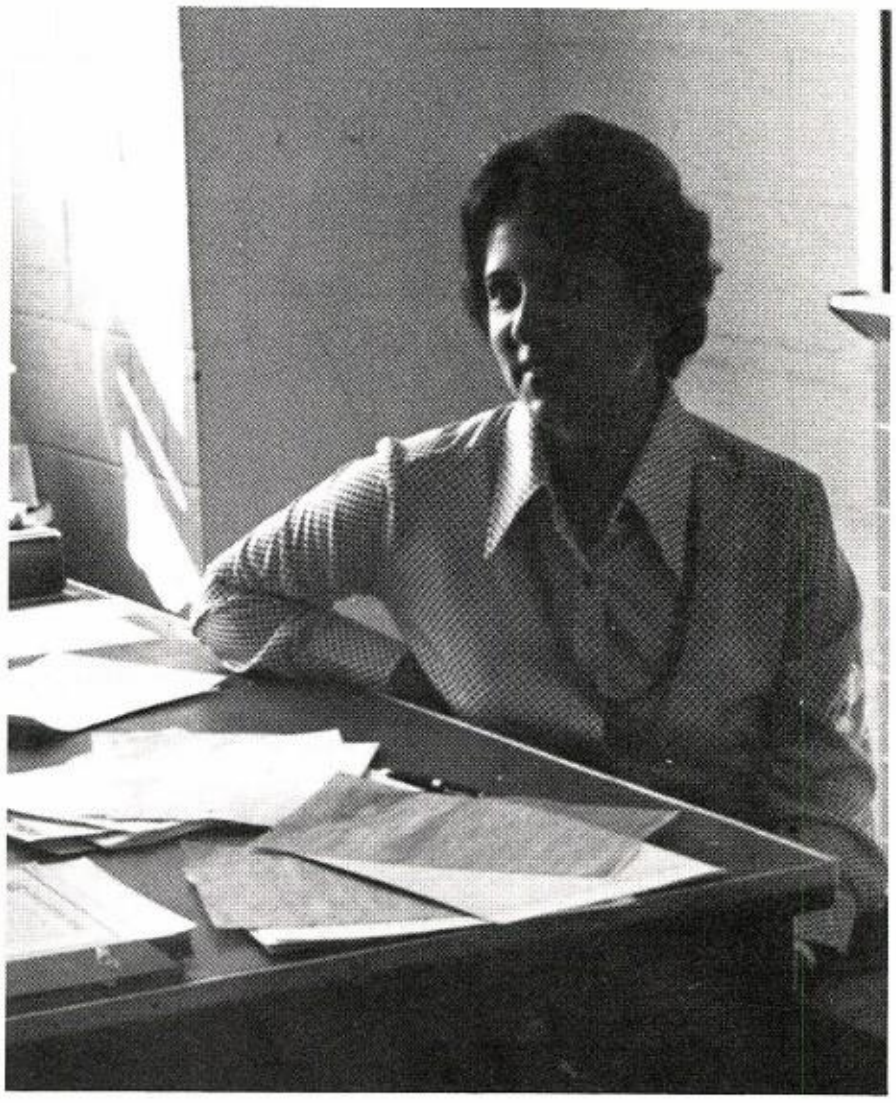
Mrs. Lavender writes another note.



Susan McConnell, office aide



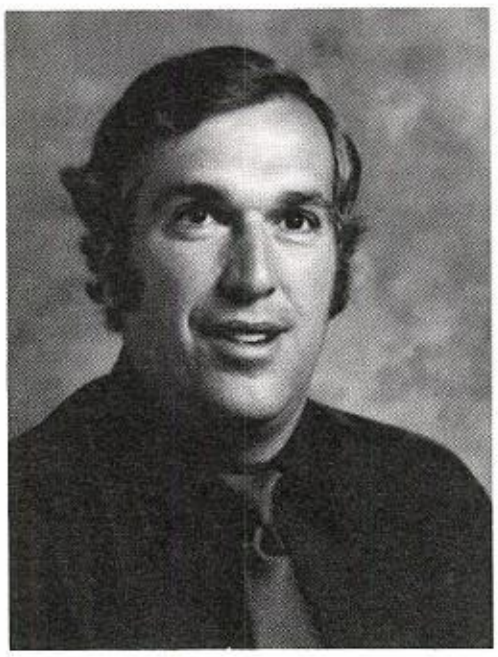
Office aide stashes it away.



Mrs. Wauters, teacher aide

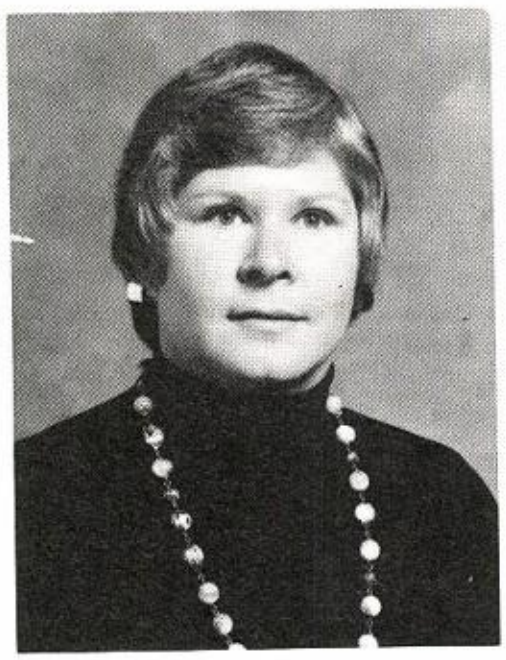
Mrs. Worsham, teacher aide

Guidance



Mr. Gazzola, former DE counselor.

Mrs. Hughes, the new DE counselor, counsels any student who plans to work after graduation.



Mrs. Wilson, former guidance secretary.

Mrs. Doerfler, new guidance secretary.

Guiding Counseling

Junior counselor Mrs. Voight instructs a student.

The Guidance Department is a vital part of the school. The guidance counselors not only help students select the subjects they will take the next year, but they also help students solve problems by talking and listening to them. They give each student a feeling of worth and identity.

Another important area of the Guidance Department is to fill out transcripts for college applications, write recommendations, and collect scholarship information.

Senior counselor Mrs. Jones helps another student.

Cafeteria Staff

Earldine Rudd and Jean Smith prepare for the serving line.

Maryann Steed, Armelia Martin, and Vashti Jefferson prepare dessert for the hungry students.

Lunch, a welcomed break in the school day. It is spent in many different ways; such as, studying for fifth period's test or finishing last night's homework. Many students, however, desire to spend it eating; so the cafeteria prepares hot lunches daily—items like spaghetti, tacos, pizza, fried chicken, and fish. This year the cafeteria staff added a quick service line and a new milkshake machine.

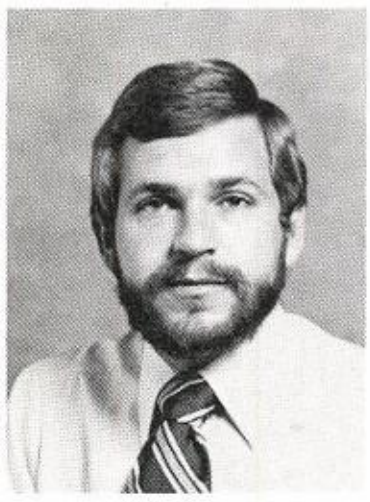
English Department

Yvonne G. Bailey—English 11, 12; Delta State Univ.; B.S.E., M.Ed.; Dance Club Sponsor.

James D. Beckner—English 12; V.P.I.; B.A., M.A.; Advanced Studies.

Lilly J. Bilmond—English 10, Adv. English 10; Mary Washington College; B.S.; Sophomore Class Co-Sponsor.



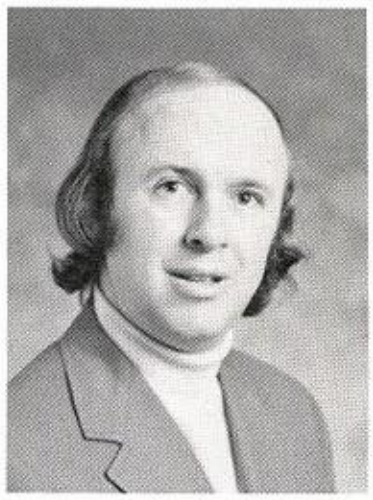
Anna M. Bowman—English 11, Adv. English 11, English 12 Early Bird; Madison College; B.A.; Graduate Work—V.C.U., U.V.A.

Mary I. Cortopassi—English 12; Longwood College, Univ. of Richmond, Univ. of London, V.C.U.; B.A., M.A. in 1977.

Ruth D. Curlee—English 10, French I, Drama I; Longwood College; B.A.

The English Department tries to expand the student's knowledge of the language and its different types of literature—from Puritanism to Classicism to Romanticism to British literature—plus in-depth study of certain novels such as The Mayor of Casterbridge and The Scarlet Letter. Besides literature, grammar and writing skills are important, too, because each student needs to be able to express his thoughts and ideas to others. Term papers and thesis papers are a major part of English. Thus the English Department prepares each student in the skills of communication.

Frances M. Graham—English 10, Spanish I; Radford College; B.S.



Camille A. Flick—English 11; College of St. Rose, Utica College of Syracuse Univ.; B.A.

William G. Gray—English 10; Randolph-Macon College; B.A.

Jane S. McCalla—English 10, 11; Univ. of Nevada; B.A.

Nancy P. Price—English 11; Emory and Henry College, U.V.A., V.C.U.; B.A.; Varsity Cheerleaders Sponsor.

Marjory C. Willis—English 11, Journalism, Basic Communications; Queens College; B.A.; Quill and Scroll Sponsor.

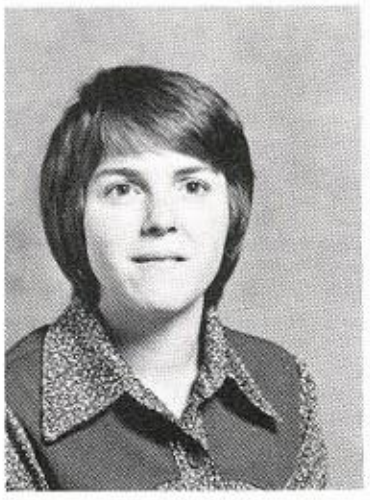
Jeanne M. Hildebrand—English 12, Adv. and A.P. English 12, Creative Writing; Winthrop College, Univ. of South Carolina, Univ. of Florida; B.A., M.Ed.; Literary Magazine, VHSL Creative Writing Contest.

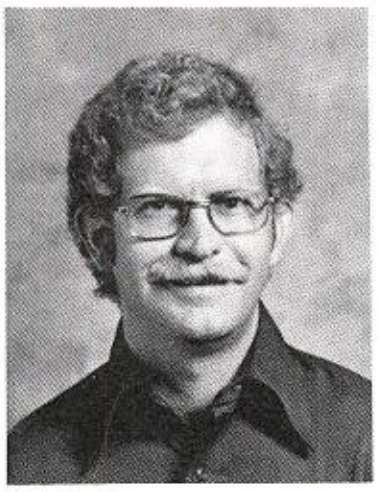
Math Department

Betty E. Ballard—Adv. Algebra II—Trig., Geometry; Longwood College, B.S.; Va. State College, M.Ed.; Sophomore Class Co-Sponsor.

Mary N. Blanton—Math 9, Algebra II—Trig.; Westhampton College, Univ. of Richmond; B.A.

Theresa T. Ellis—Algebra I, Algebra I, part 2; Longwood College, V.C.U., V.P.I.; B.S.



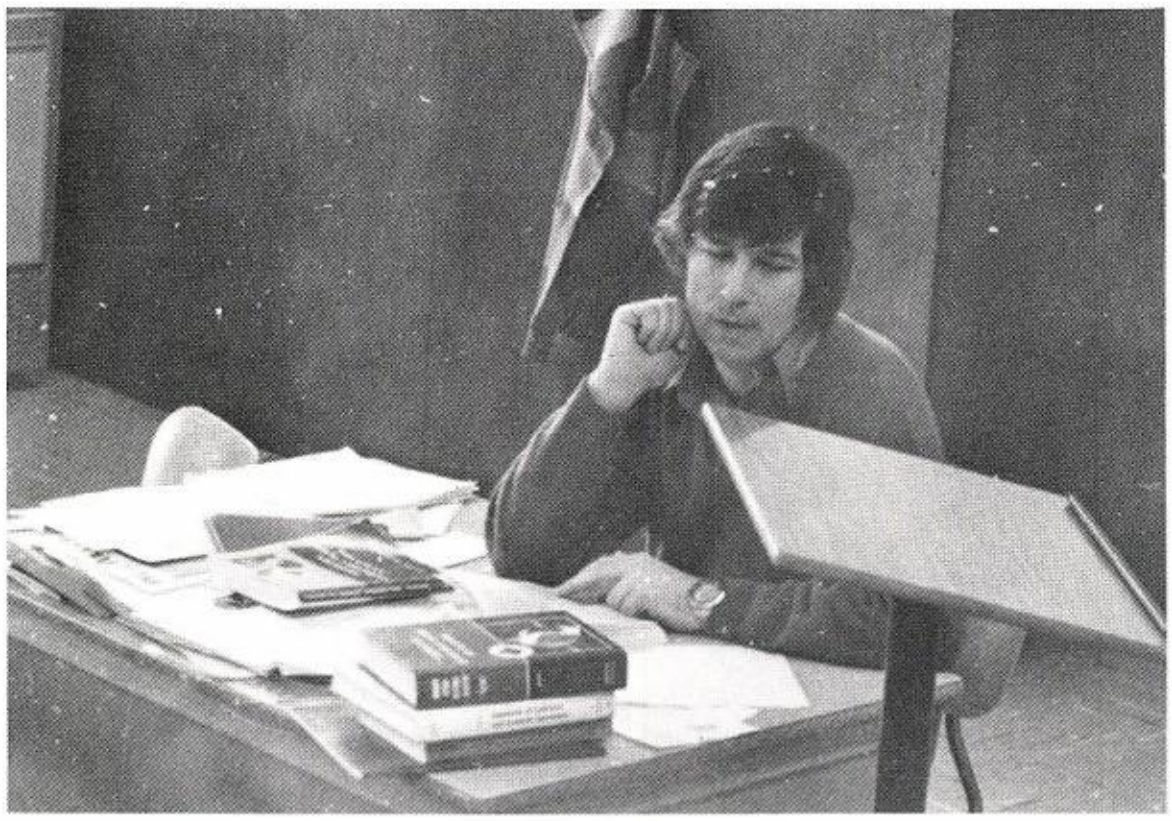


Peter A. Fearnley—Algebra I, part 2; Algebra II; Randolph-Macon College; B.A.; Ecology Club Sponsor.

Ann P. Graham—Geometry, Algebra II, Consumer Math; University of Richmond; B.S.; Junior Class Co-Sponsor.

Murphy M. Richardson—Geometry, Algebra II—Trig.; St. Andrews, Univ. of Richmond, U.V.A.; B.A.

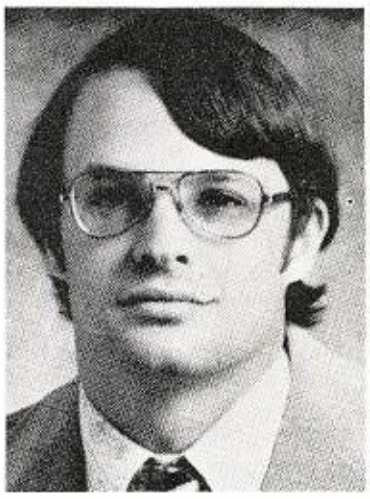
Donna H. Rosser—Geometry, Math Analysis; Westhampton College, B.A.; Madison College, M.M.Ed.; Junior Class Co-Sponsor.

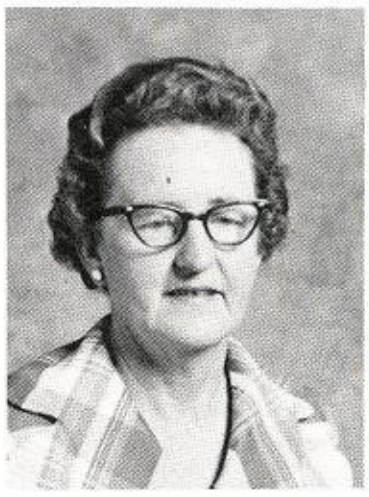


The Math Department seeks to provide a mathematics program to meet the individual needs of each student: for the college-oriented student, a program which allows him to advance through the Calculus level is provided; for the non-college bound student, a program is designed for business and everyday living.

Richard H. Crane—Math Analysis, Calculus; Hampden Sydney College, Case Western Reserve, U.V.A.; B.S., M.Ed.; Tennis Team Sponsor.

Science Department





Donald H. Currie—General Chemistry, Chem Study, Driver Education; Western Carolina Univ., V.C.U., U.V.A., Univ. of Richmond, V.P.I.; B.A.

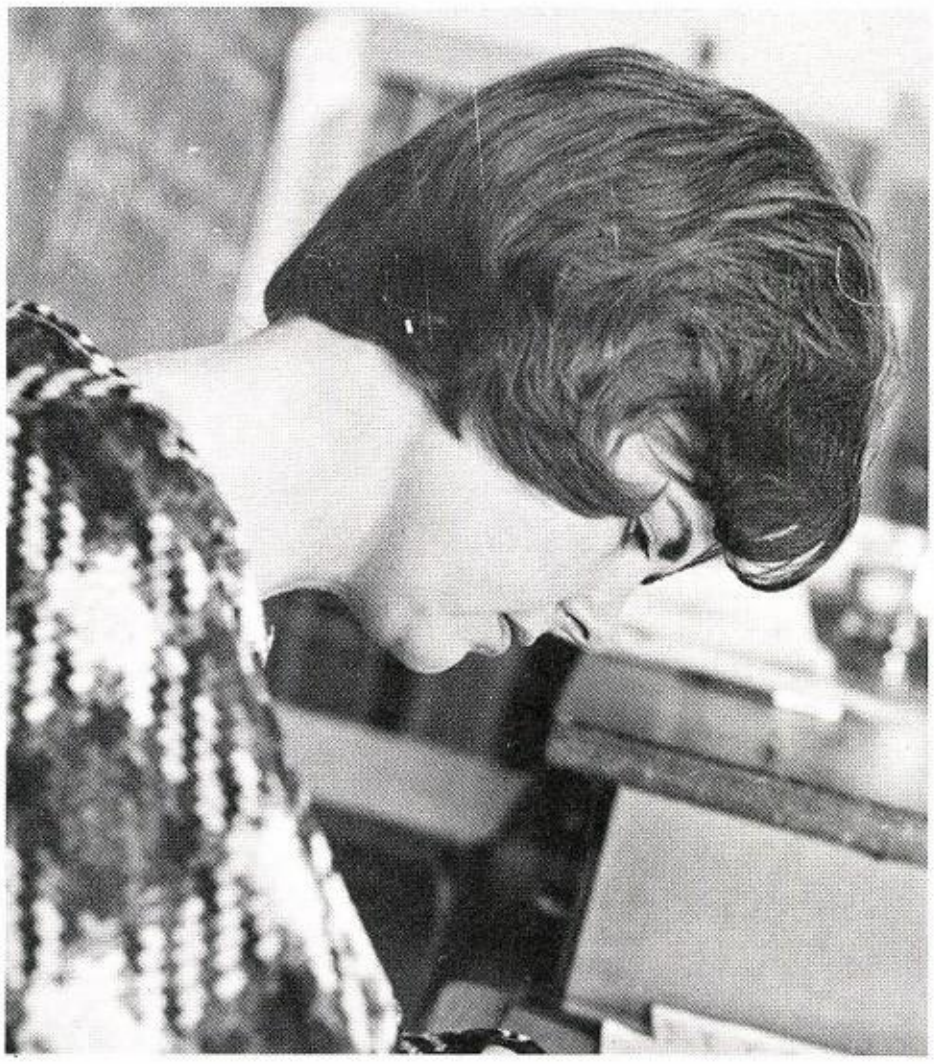
Gregory P. Hulcher—Chem Study; V.P.I., B.S.; Va. State College; Varsity Basketball Coach.

Virginia A. Justis—Biology; Longwood College, B.S.; Madison College, U.V.A., Univ. of Richmond, V.C.U.; National Honor Society Sponsor.

Mary A. Martin—Physics; Longwood College, B.S.; Radford College, U.V.A., U.N.C., V.P.I.

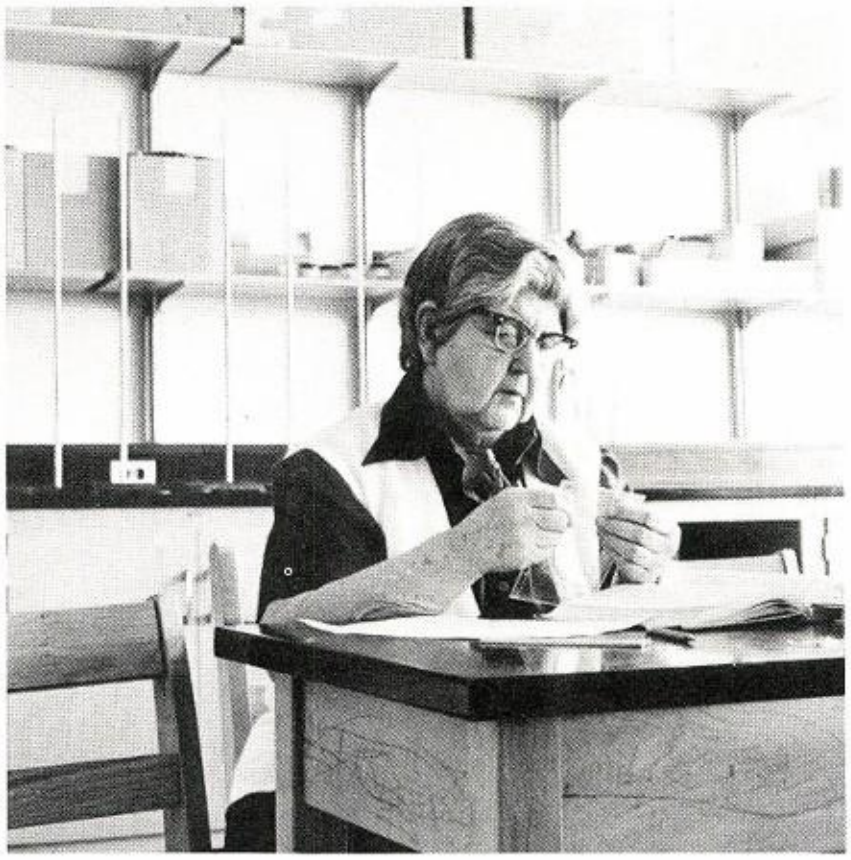
Joyce L. Smith—Biology; Mary Washington College, B.S.; William and Mary, M.Ed.; Graduate Work—M.C.V., U.V.A., Univ. of London; Science Department Chairman.

Olethia M. Wingfield—Biology; Va. Union Univ., B.S.; Va. State College, M.S.; Science Club Sponsor.



Martha W. Parker—Biology; Longwood College, B.S.; Madison College, M.S.Ed.; Pep Club Sponsor.

The Science Department offers courses in biology, chemistry, and physics. Experiments are an important part of each course. In biology, experiments mainly involve using the microscope to study such specimens as amebas and elodeas. In chemistry, experiments show how chemicals react or combine with other chemicals. In physics, experiments answer how and why questions. Thus each course is designed to help the student appreciate the scientific world.



Social Studies Department

Charlotte E. Banks—World History, U.S. History; Va. Union Univ., Hampton Institute; B.A., M.A.; History Club Sponsor.

Barbara I. Burtchett—U.S. History; Westhampton College, B.A.; Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, M.R.E.; History Club Co-Sponsor.

Joan C. Cousins—U.S. History, U.S. Government; Longwood College; B.S.; V.C.U.; Pom-Pom Squad Sponsor.

William O. Hester—U.S. History, Twentieth Century History, U.S. History, A.P. History; Univ. of Richmond, U.V.A., Univ. of Maryland, William and Mary; B.A., M.A.; Social Studies Chairman.

Jack A. Olsen—U.S. Government; Waldorf Jr. College, Texas Lutheran College, V.C.U.; A.A., B.A.; Assistant Football Coach, JV Basketball Coach, Head Baseball Coach.

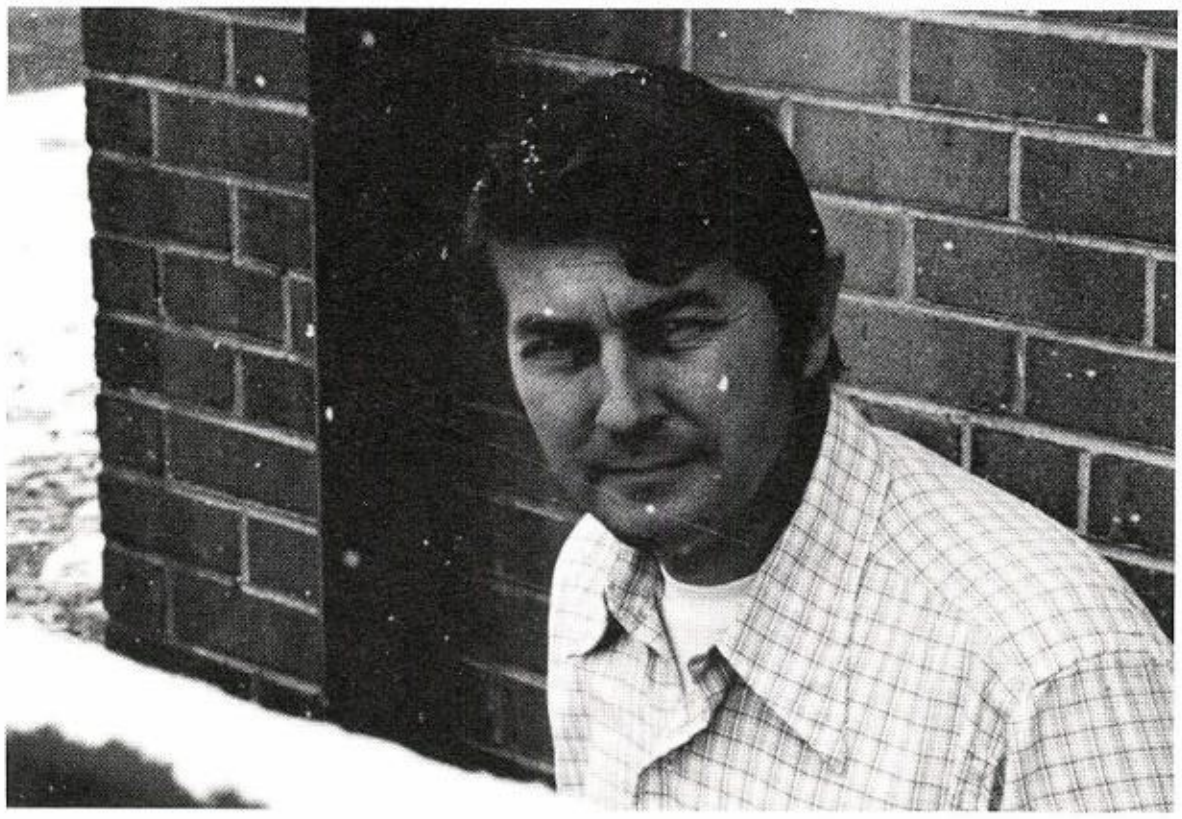
The Social Studies Department attempts to challenge each student to appreciate the privileges of living in a democratic republic and to honor his American heritage and its tradition; to encourage him to develop a respect and understanding for the people of his own country as well as those of the many others of the world; and to encourage him to accept personal responsibilities so as to face the challenges of the contemporary world and to become an effective citizen.



Joseph W. Pollard, Jr.—U.S. and Va. History; Richard Bland College, A.A.; V.C.U., B.S.; Yearbook Sponsor.

Foreign Language Department

Hilda C. Flippen—Spanish II-V; William and Mary, B.A.; U.V.A., M.Ed.; Spanish Club Sponsor.

Amelia N. Hopkins—Spanish I,II; Longwood College, B.A.; Va. State College, M.Ed.; Pom-Pom Squad Co-Sponsor.

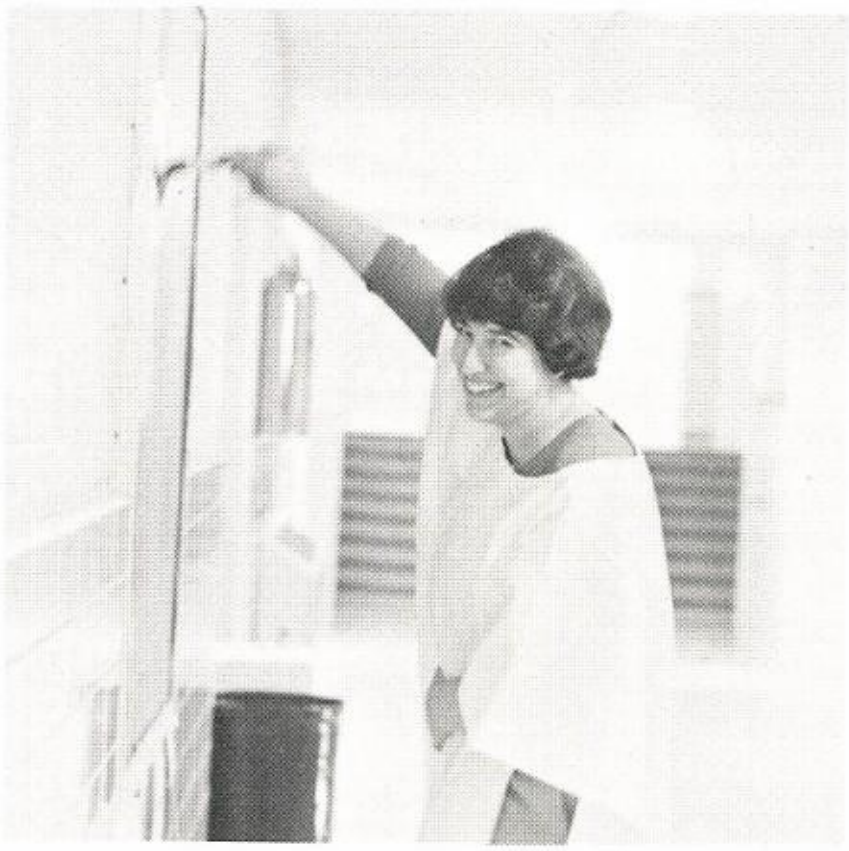
Evaline H. Jones—French III-V; William and Mary, B.A.; Societé Honoraire de Français Sponsor.

Josephine E. Ripley—French II; Univ. of Richmond, V.C.U., Madison College, McGill Univ.; B.A., M.A.; French Club Sponsor.

Sue T. Robertson—Latin I-V, Longwood College, V.C.U., B.A.; Latin Club Sponsor, Debate Team Sponsor.

Karen D. Morano—Spanish, German; Westhampton College; B.A.; German Club Sponsor.

The Foreign Language Department tries to develop in each student an interest in the language he or she is taking. Tapes, drills, and oral discussions are designed to help the student learn the language. Literature study gives the student greater insight into the language. Culture is also studied to let the student better appreciate his own culture.



Phys Ed Department

Loretta P. Bunting—Girls P.E. 10, Adv. P.E. 11-12; Longwood College; B.S.; Field Hockey Team, Softball Team.

Wayne W. Cook, III—P.E. 10, 11, 12; Atlantic Christian College, V.C.U.; B.S.; Football, Indoor, Spring Track.

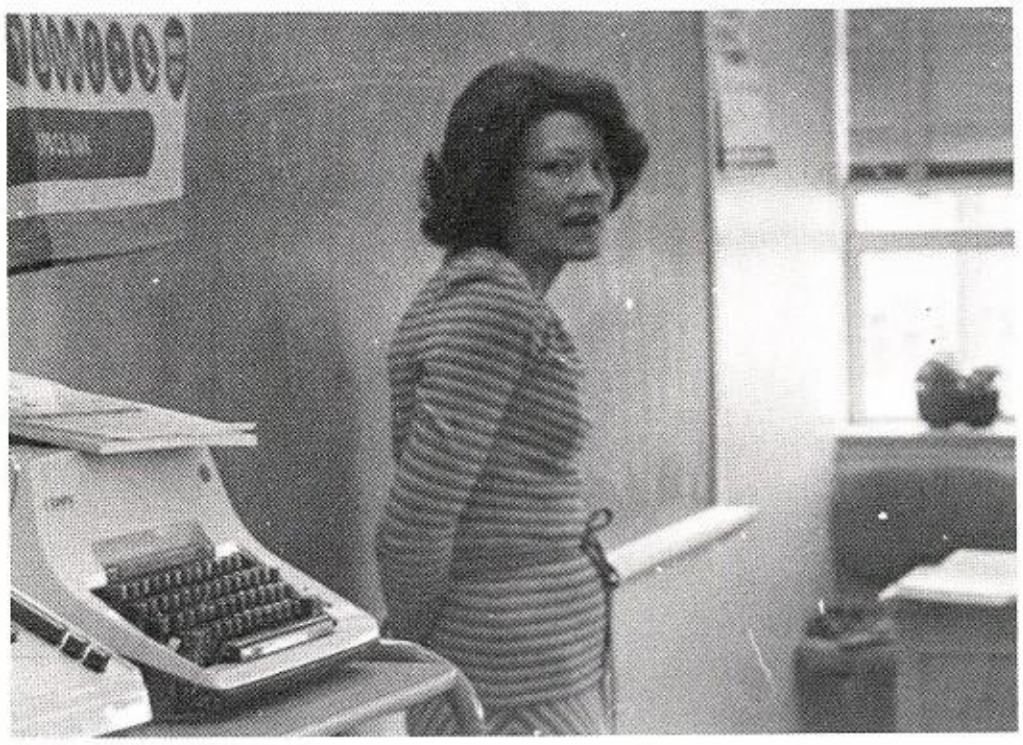
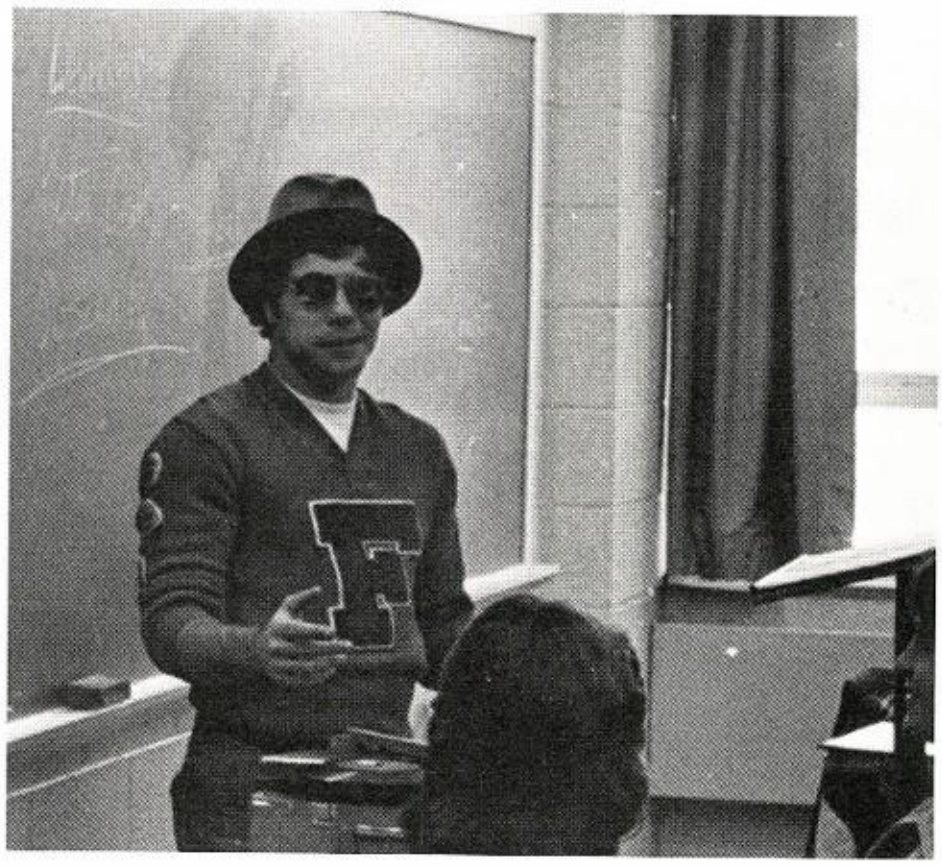
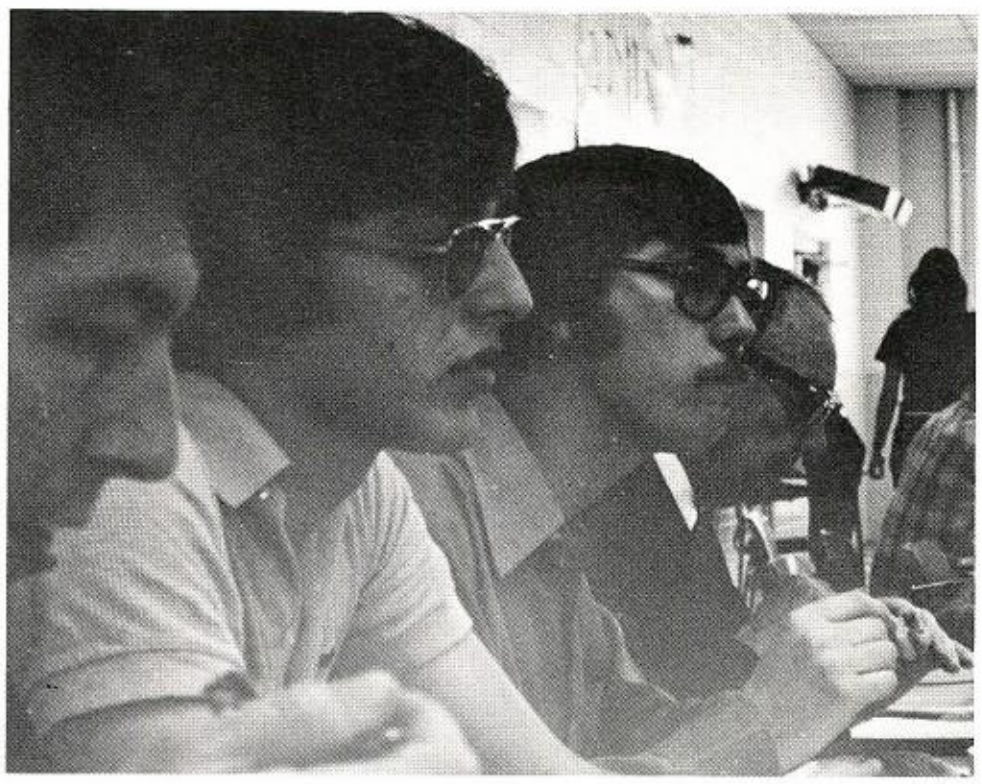
Curtis L. Wilton—General Business; Jefferson Community College, A.A.S.; Bridgewater College, B.A.; Madison College, M.S.Ed.; V.C.U.; Varsity Wrestling Coach.

The curriculum of the Business Education Department is designed to enhance a general or academic educational background as well as to prepare students for a specialized position in business. The curriculum is arranged so that business courses are available to all who desire a basic knowledge of business or a vocational skill. The program provides students in advanced vocational courses with the skills, attitudes, and training necessary to obtain entry-level positions upon graduation. With limited equipment and space provided, a concerted effort is made by the staff to keep the entire program flexible, to reach all ability levels, and to meet individual needs.



Mary A. Martin—Typing I, Personal Typing and Notehand; Longwood College, V.C.U.; B.S., M.S.; FBLA Sponsor.





Richmond Technical Center

Approximately forty students from Midlothian attend the Richmond Technical Center. Courses range from practical nursing to electricity to woodworking. The Richmond Technical Center is designed for students who wish to pursue a vocational career.

Homecoming 1976

ANTICIPATION

Clockwise: Victorious show of jubilation between Queen Gloria O'Brien and Maid of Honor Jody West. The band members are enthusiastic. The Varsity Cheerleaders encourage the Trojans on to victory.

Clockwise: Junior Princesses Dawn Freeman, Karen Ladd, and Jody West flash $1,000,000 smiles. Gwen Scott shows amazing ability gaining yardage for the Pep Club. Trojan cheerleaders compete for the hairiest legs. Sophomore Princesses Beth Baron, Jenny Sawyer, and Gigi Ballard find Midlo rewarding. Cheerleaders Lori Wauters and Terri McDaniel anticipate the attack. Trojans literally crush Prince George's royalty.

PRIDE

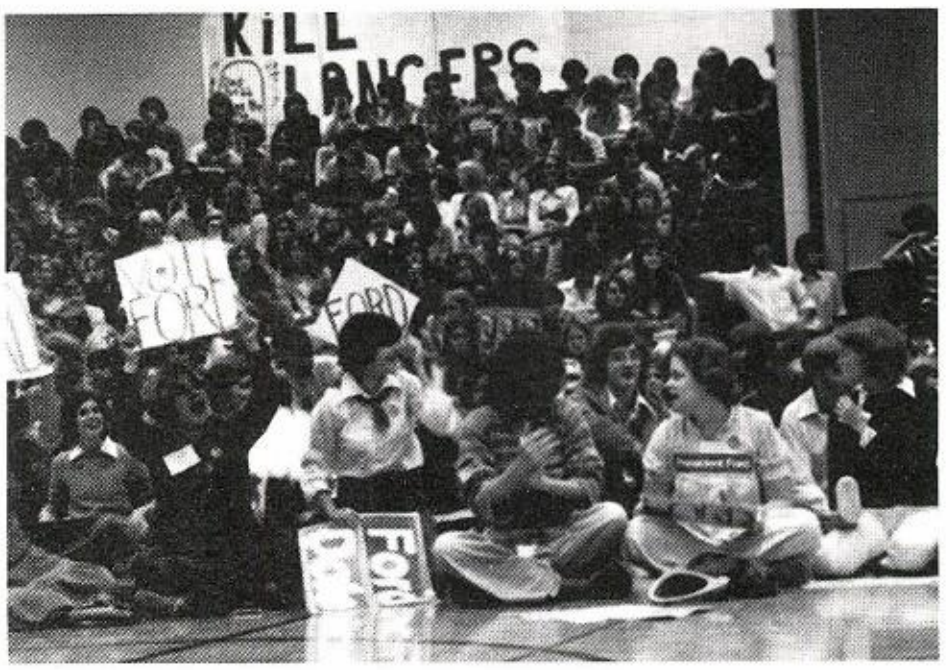
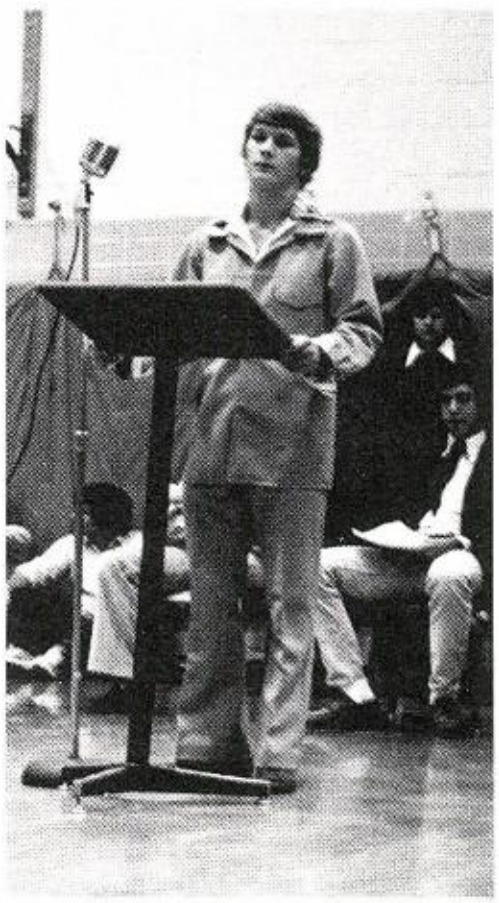
There was "a little bit of magic" in the air that Friday night. All the preparation paid off as the floats made their way around the field, with the Spanish Club float winning first place. The stands were filled with fans who had come to watch their team win. And win they did! 20-2 over Prince George. And then the highlight of the evening . . . The crowning of the Queen. Who would it be? Ten happy girls waited nervously. Then it was announced . . . The Homecoming Queen for 1976 was Gloria O'Brien, and the Maid of Honor was Jody West. The magic of that night will be with us all for a long time, but for Gloria and Jody the magic will last forever.

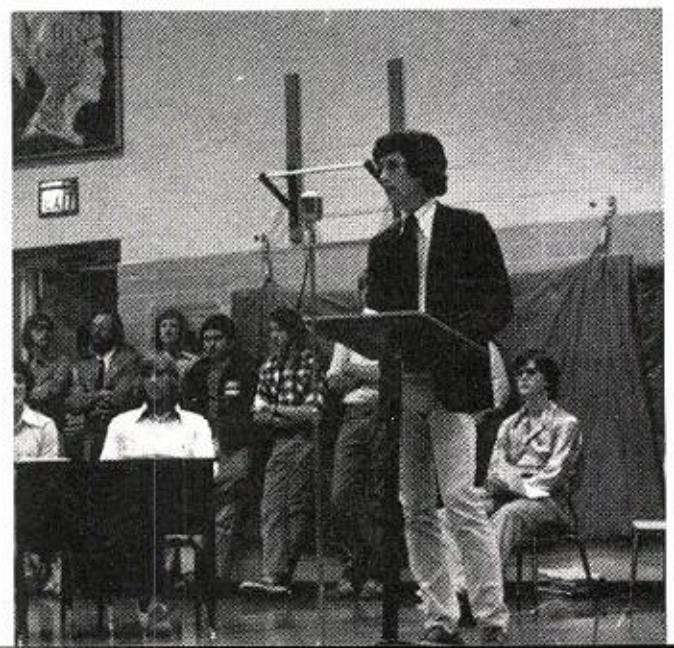
Mock Election but No Mock Interest

The mock election this year showed real interest and hard work. As students voiced their opinion on the "right" candidate, the student body listened and made up their minds. Pennies rolled across the floor, paper airplanes flew through the air, and students smiled for the TV cameras. President Ford won at Midlothian, but this was no indication of the national election. All in all, it was a learning and meaningful experience.



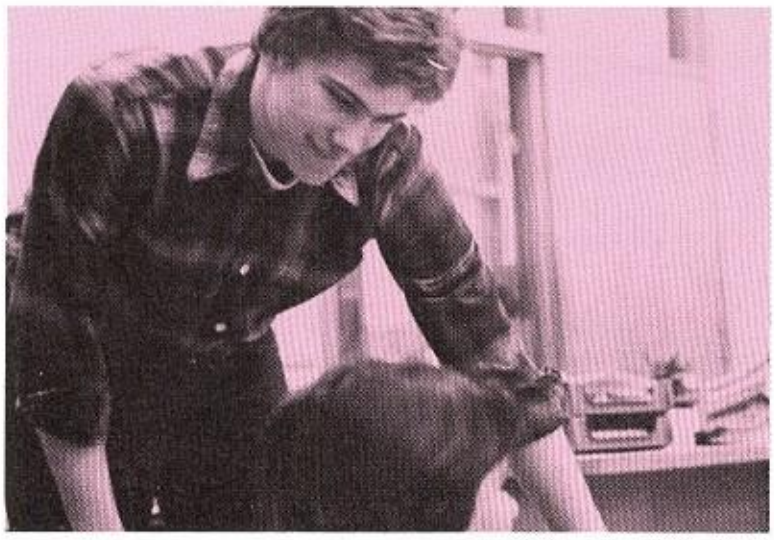


Clockwise: Students show their support for Ford. Andy Lacy speaks out for Carter. President Ford campaigns in Virginia. Bill Girone, moderator, talked to the student body as Mike McQuary and Mary Fisk wait their turn. Students ham it up for WWBT Channel 12.



SODA

A new organization at Midlothian this year was SODA. SODA–Student Organization of Developing Attitudes–is made up of fifteen students. These students visit Watkins Elementary School every three weeks. They play games, have discussions, and try to help the children with their values and attitudes in life. The group's sponsors were Mrs. Jones and Mr. Gunn, the county school psychologist.



Brad Marrs gets involved in the game.

Donna Farthing seems very interested in the conversation.

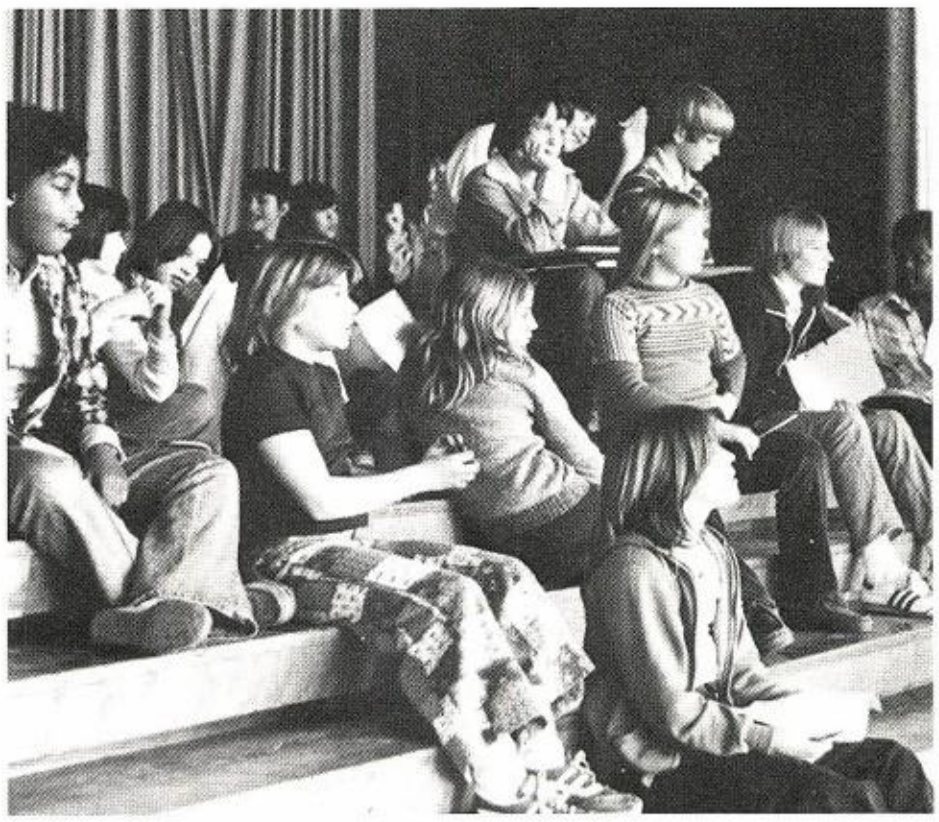
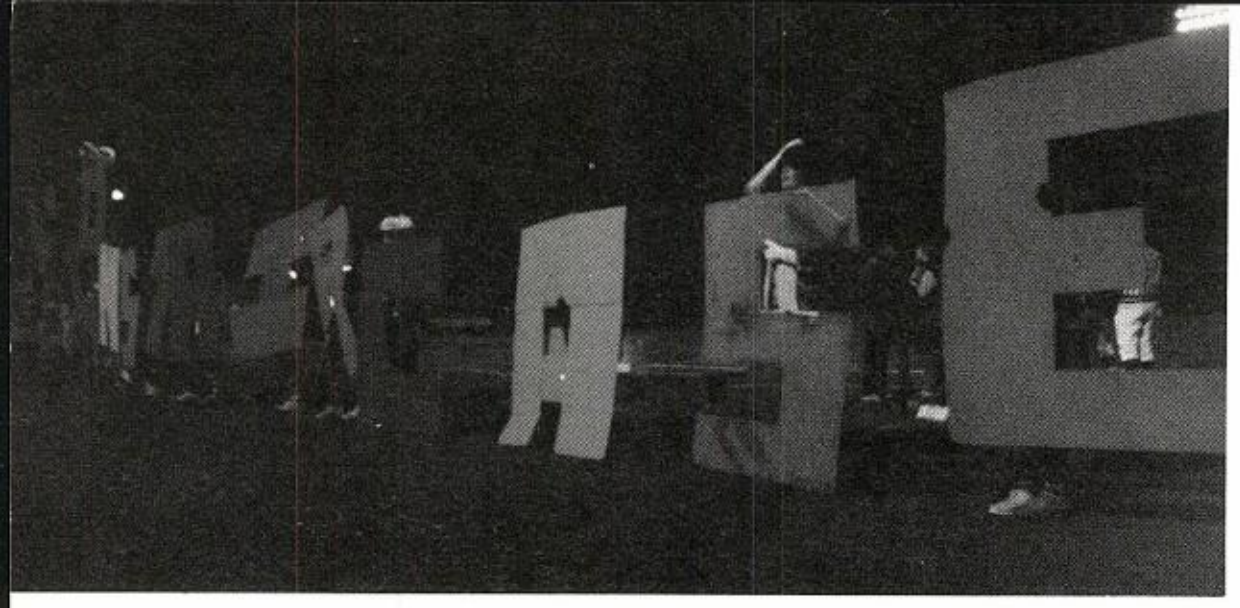
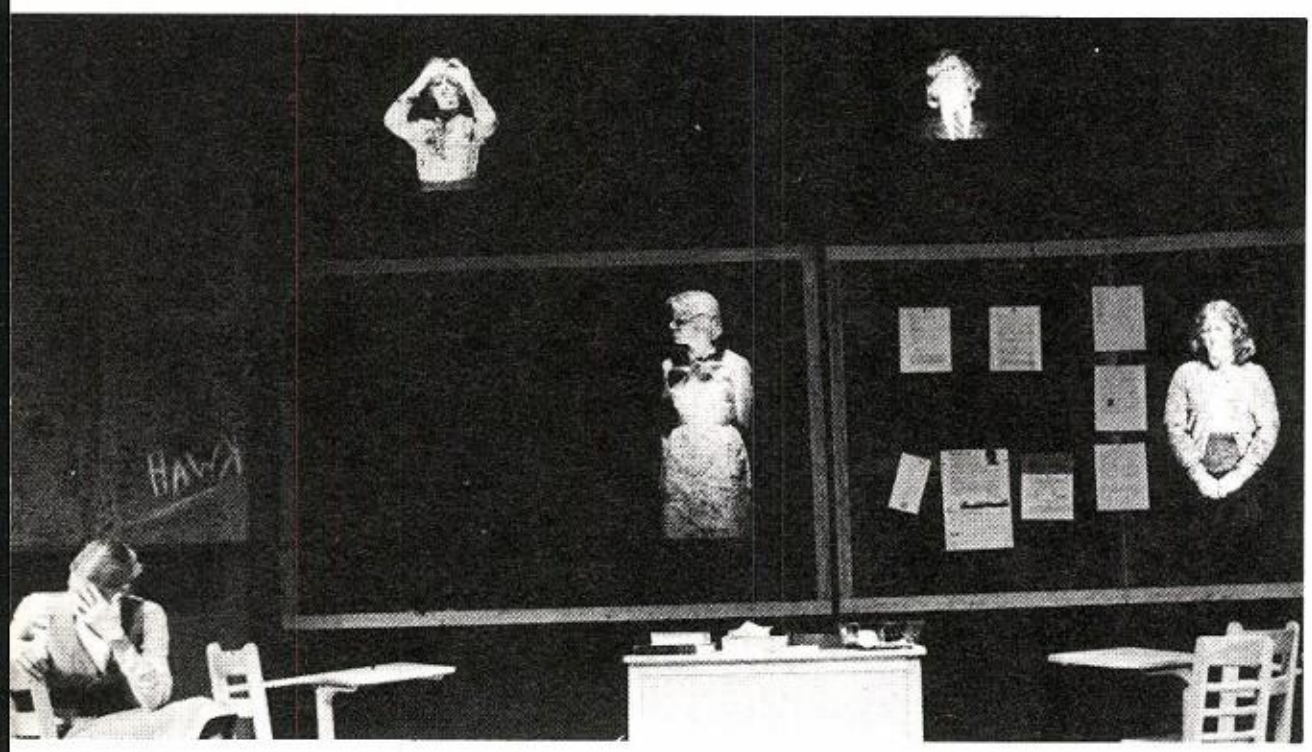
"What is this?!?" wonders Annette Hayden.

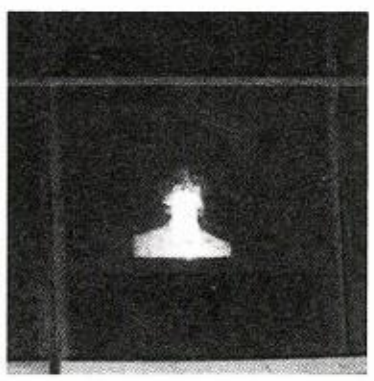
Karen Hough watches closely.



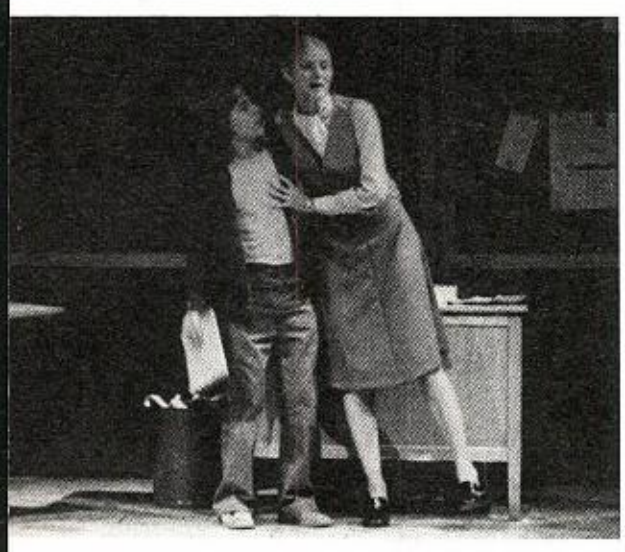
The SODA kids.



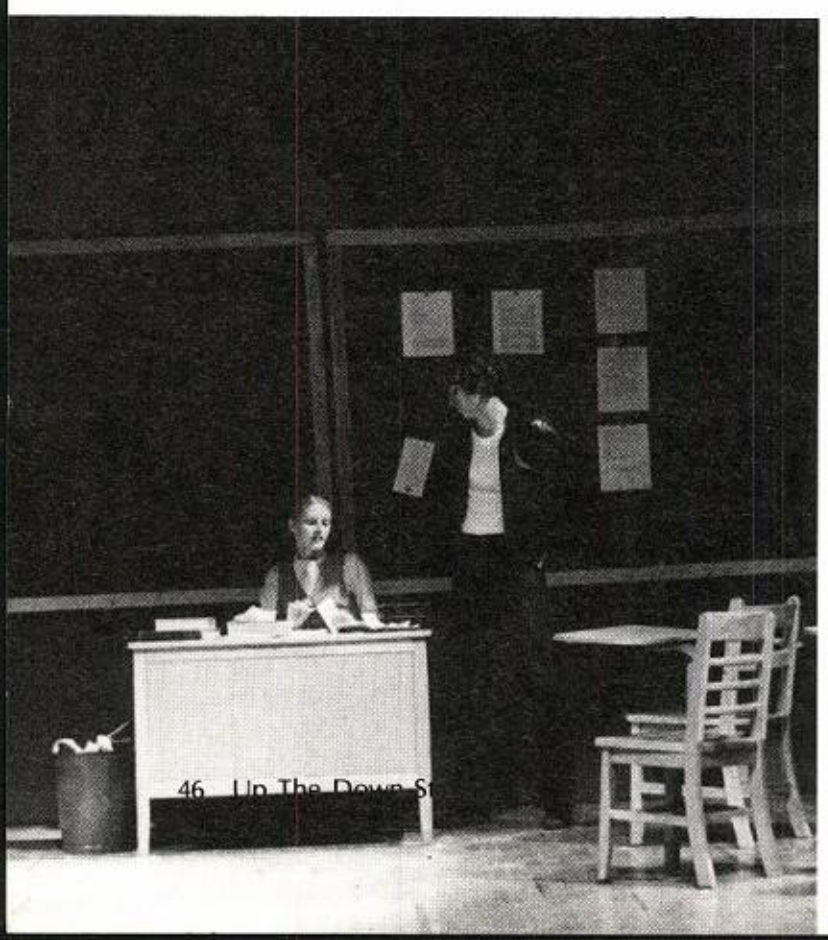


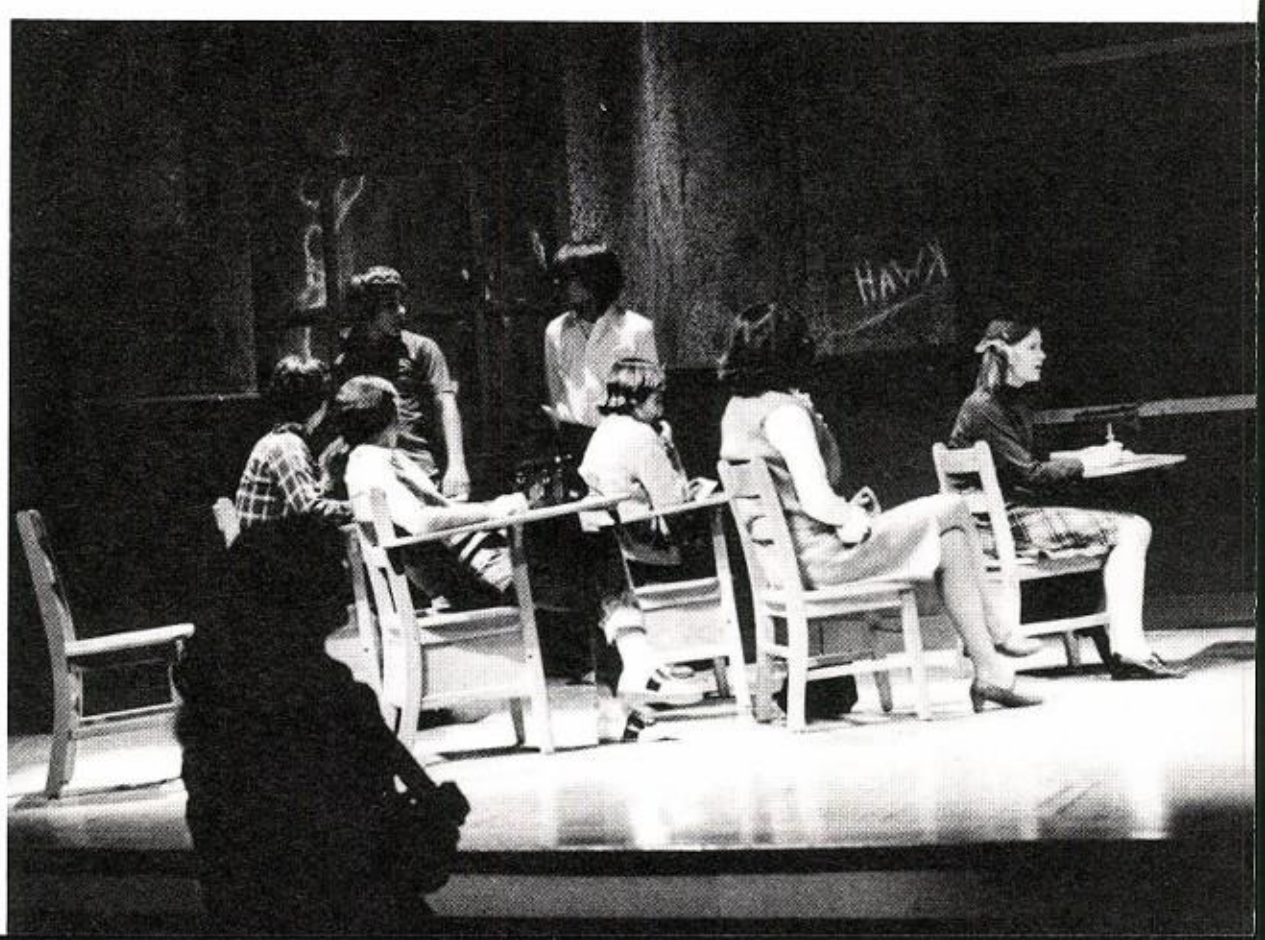


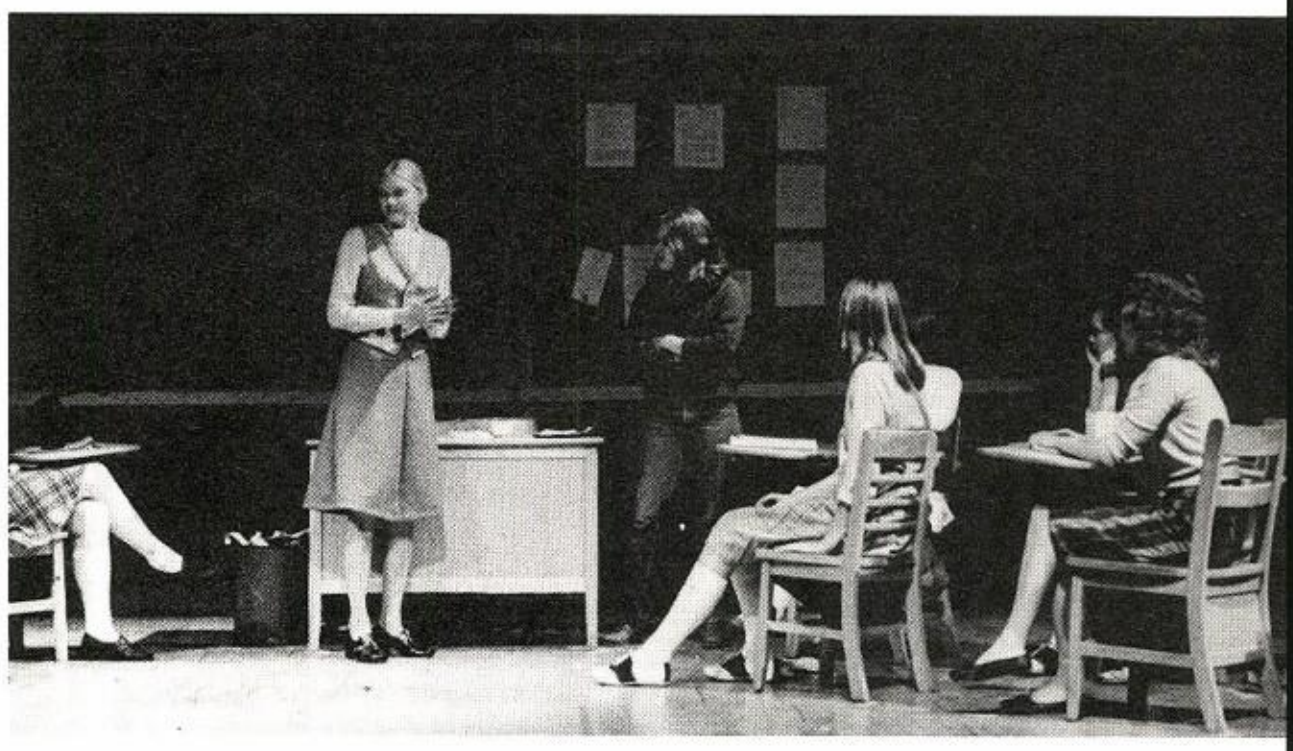
THE P U



Top to bottom left to right: Homecoming parade offers great publicity to the play. Jackie Chaphin complains, "I'm always left in the corner!" The school staff imposes their principles on an unresponsive student body. Tim Williamson threatens, " Come on, Teach, lay it on me– just one!" Kris Negaard exclaims, "Why should you care!" The excitement of this classroom is overwhelming.







DOWN STAIRCASE

Top to bottom left to right: Kane Scarlett steams, "If they knock me down one more time!" Kim Dise queries, "Maybe this is the wrong room?" Andrea Garnett guides her perfect villians to stable maturity. Aimée Mann discovers her teaching methods are outdated in the wild kingdom. Todd Hilton challenges her with his superior knowledge. Zach Byrd offers his uncontrollable help in taming the wildcats. Frank Gresham explains, "This is to be understood—our system is strictly controlled by our leader in charge—me!"

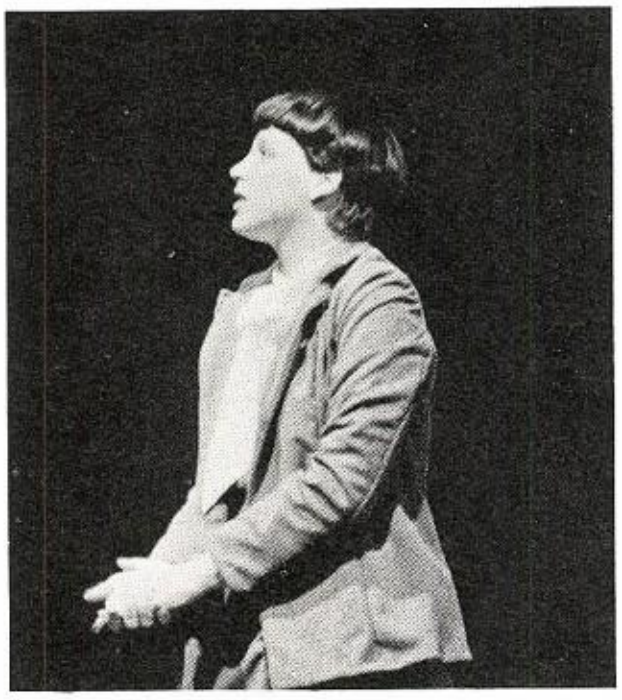
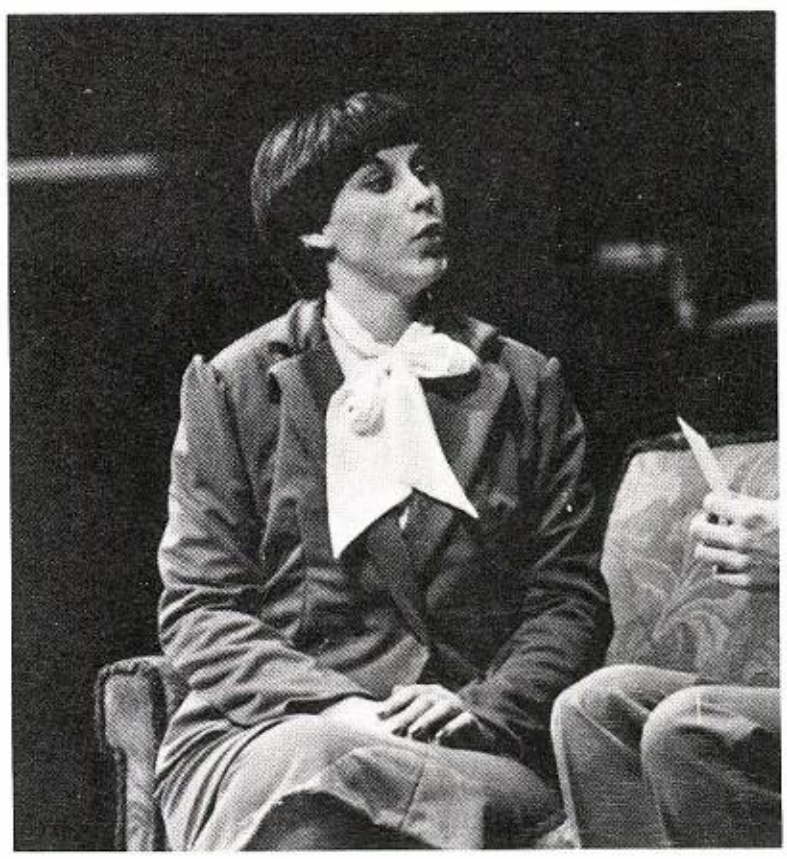
"Auntie Mame"



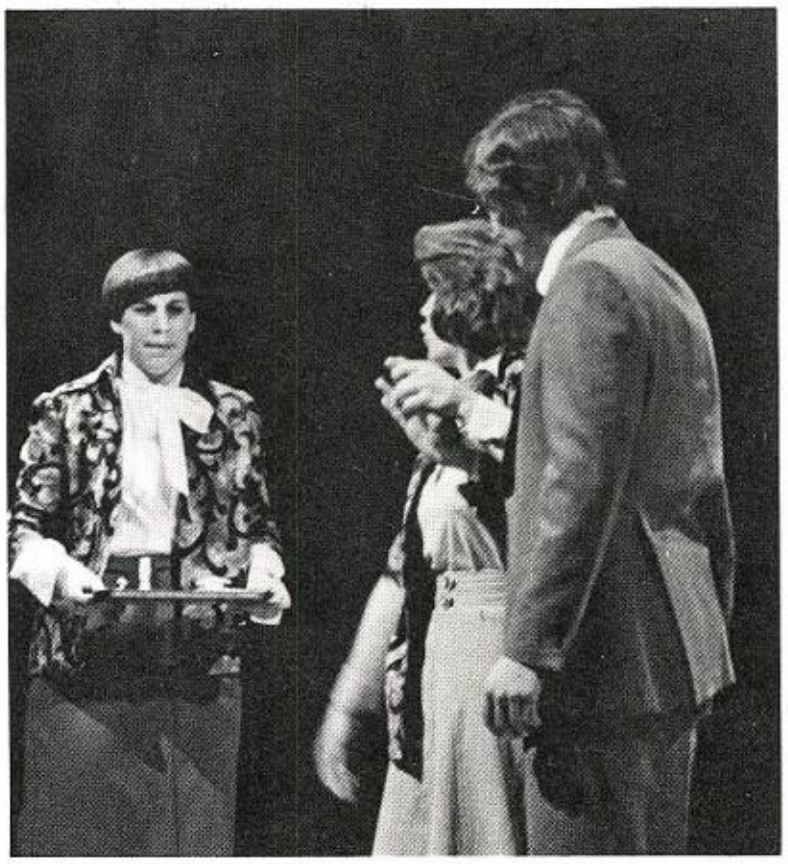
This year's musical "Mame" may be the best production that Midlothian has ever done. Lucille Romanello had the leading role of Mame, with Kim Dise as her bosom buddy, Vera. Brian Carlson played the man left in charge of Patrick's care, Mr. Babcock. The most unforgettable character was Agnes, played by Debbie Mays. A lot of hard work, long hours, and dedication paid off with a wonderfully done production.

Clockwise: She has to make a decision. Mame prepares to meet the people at Peckerwood. Mame discussed the issue with Mr. Babcock. Mame finds out that Patrick must leave in the morning.

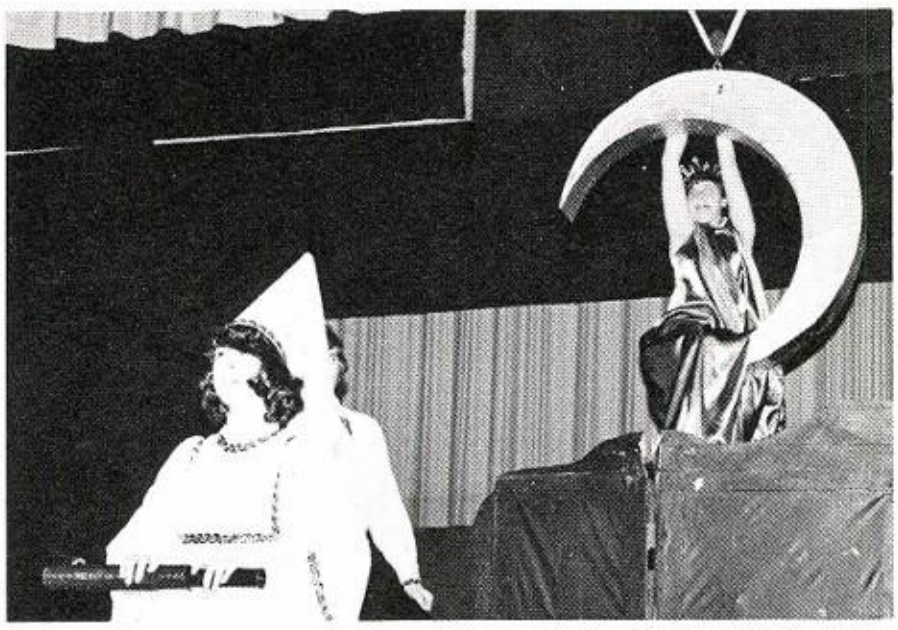
M a m e



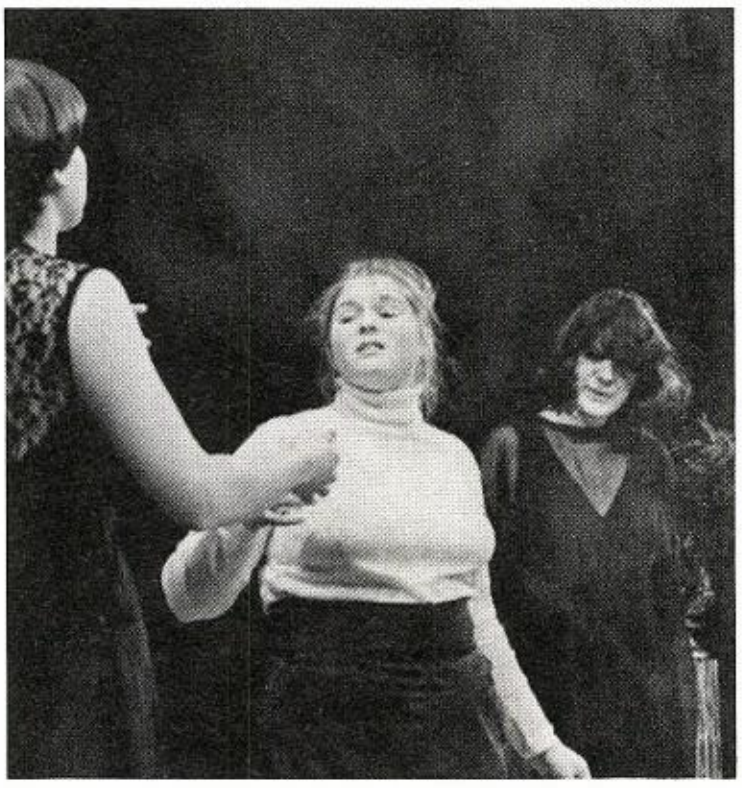
One of Mame's guests "leaves" the party.



"This man is bleeding!"



The famous "moon scene."



Mame and Vera decide to redo Agnes.

Ito decides "we need a little Christmas."

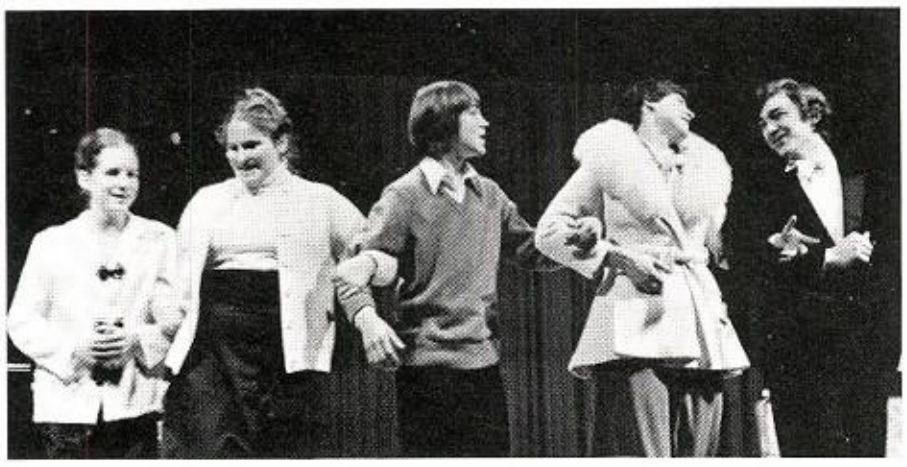
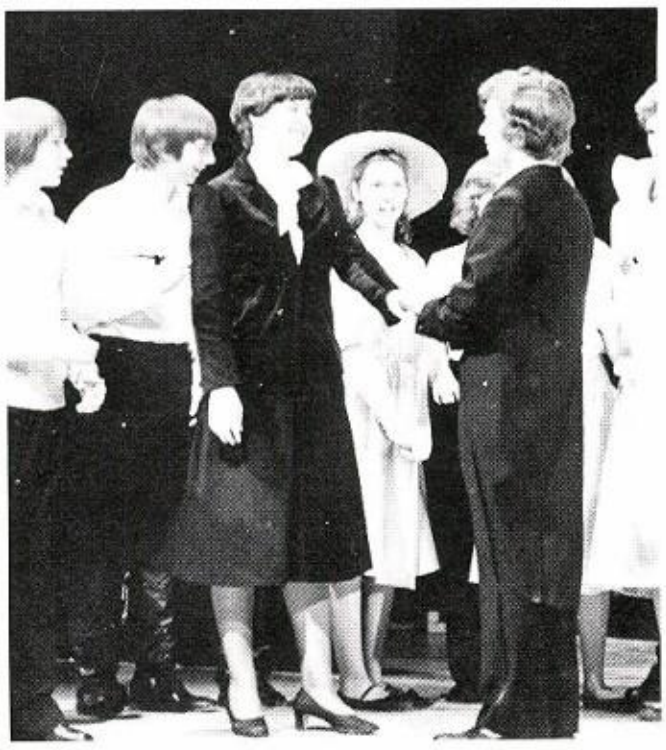
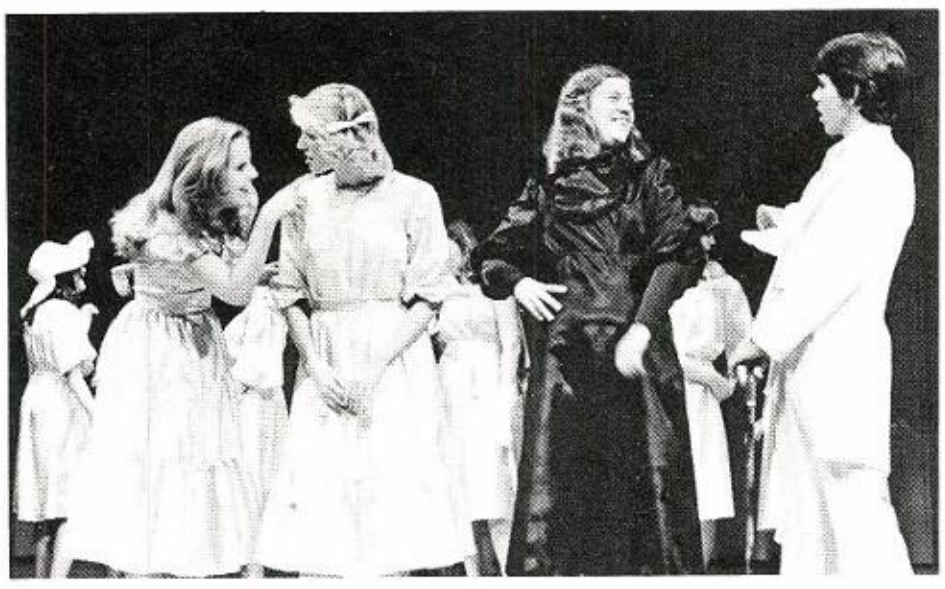
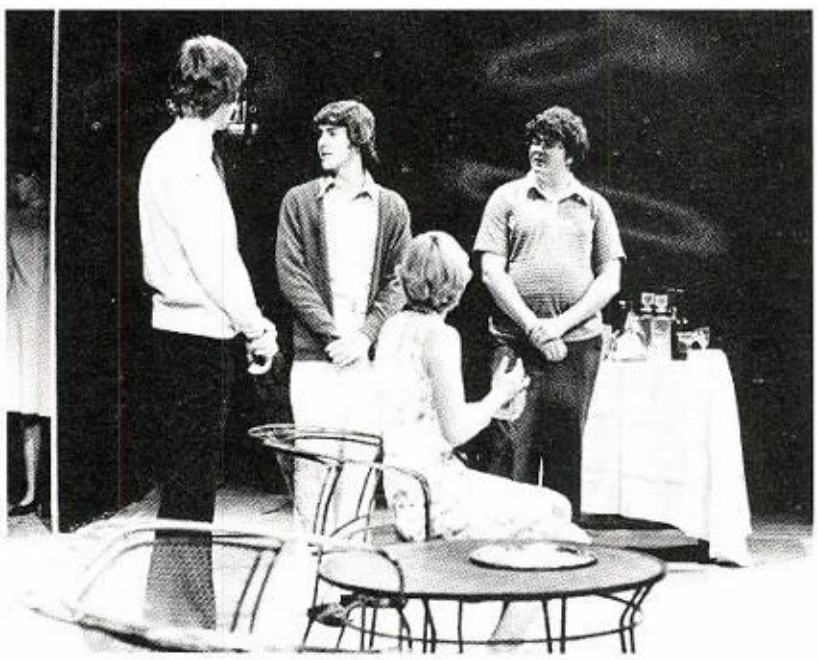
Our "Best Girl"



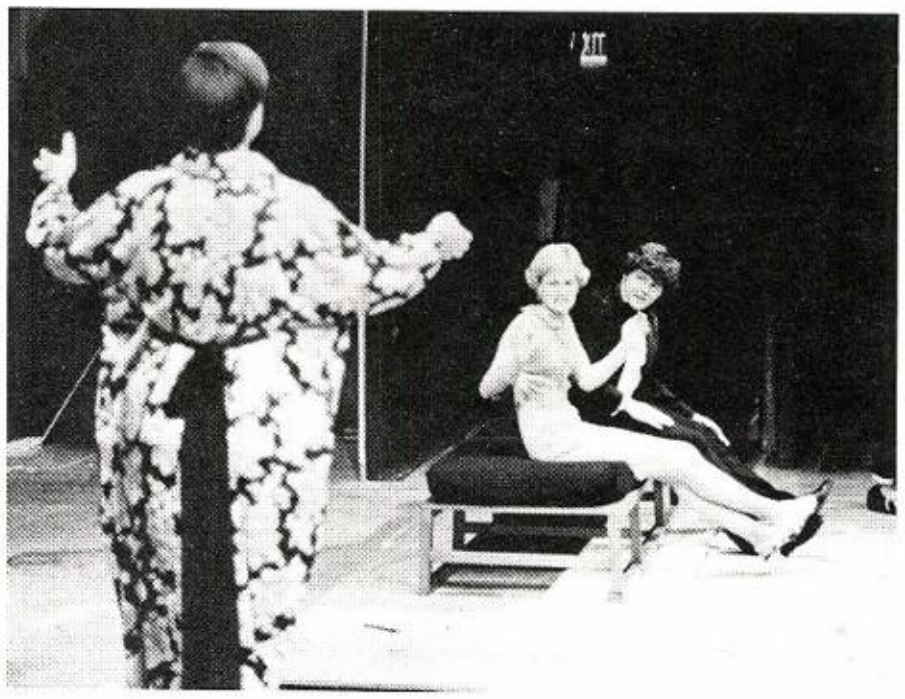






Clockwise: starting at top: One big happy family. Mr. Burnside proposes to Mame. Ito begins on his work. "I think it's just marvey!" exclaims Gloria. The Upsons prepare to meet Mame. Mother Burnside and the 'good ole folks' at Peckerwood.

The new Agnes emerges.



"It's pickled rattlesnake—try one."

"You make the old magnolia tree bud, Mame."

Mame takes a job as a manicurist.

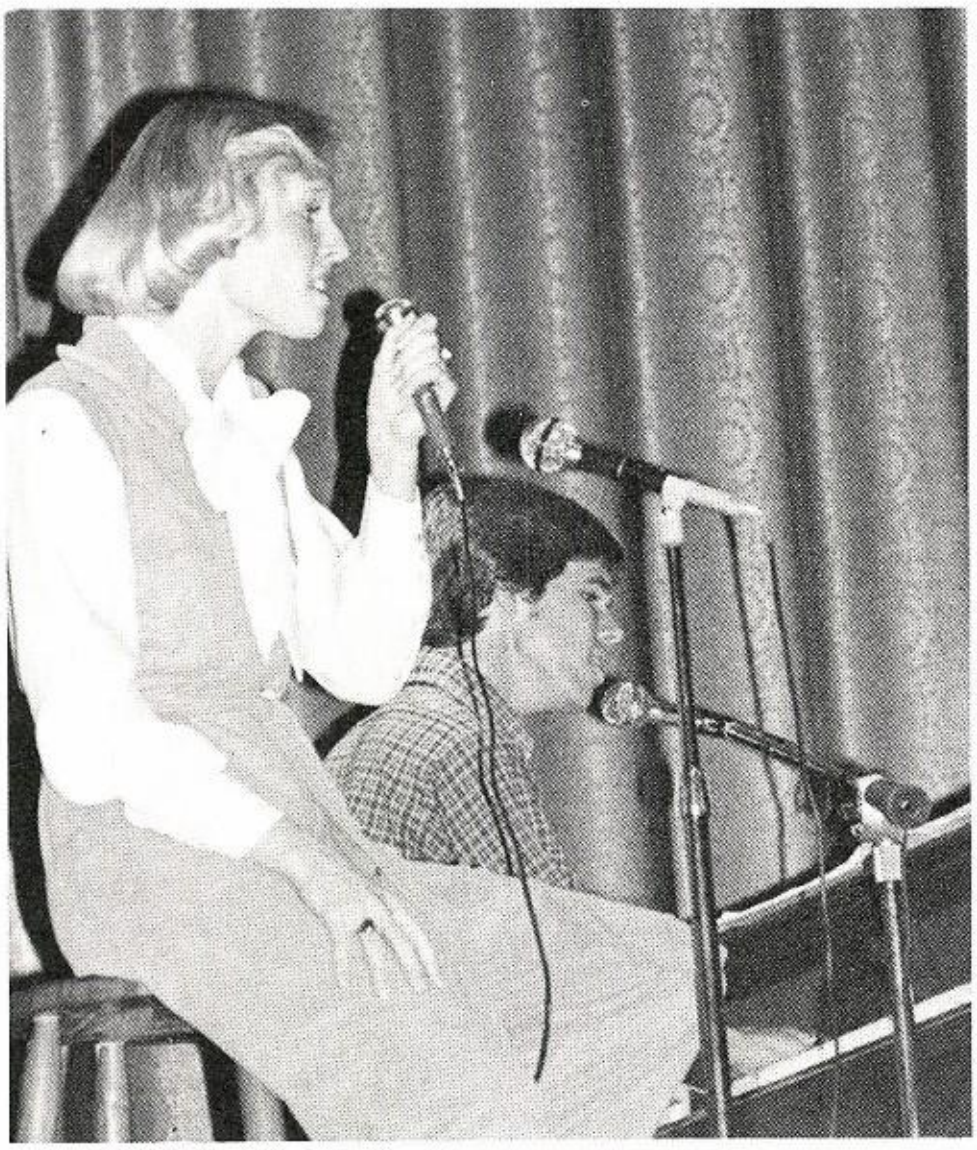
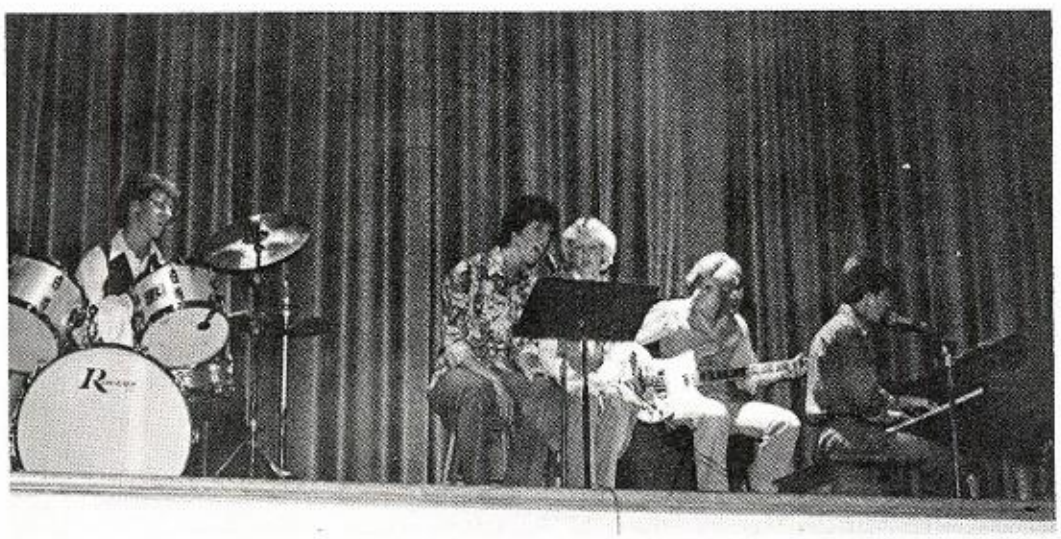
Talent Towers Tall

Trojan talent towers tall, no doubt casting an ominous shadow over Hollywood—scintillating, enchanting, captivating—these words describe this year's show which in its two-day run enveloped the performing arts at their very best.

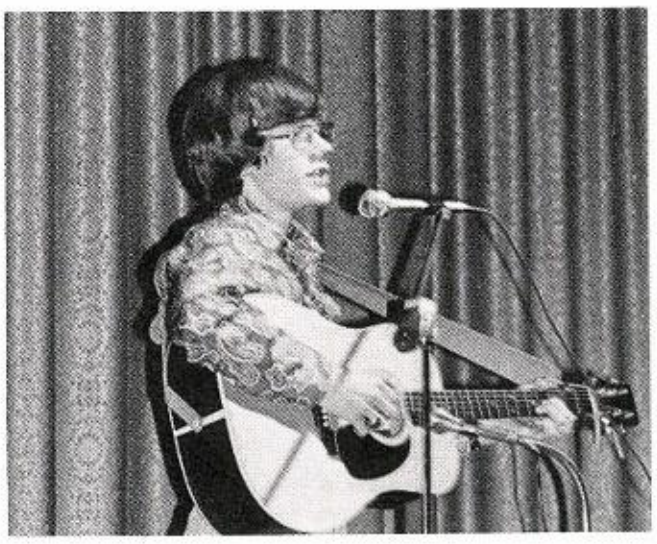


Beth Lazard and Tom Keeling winding a song down to its close.

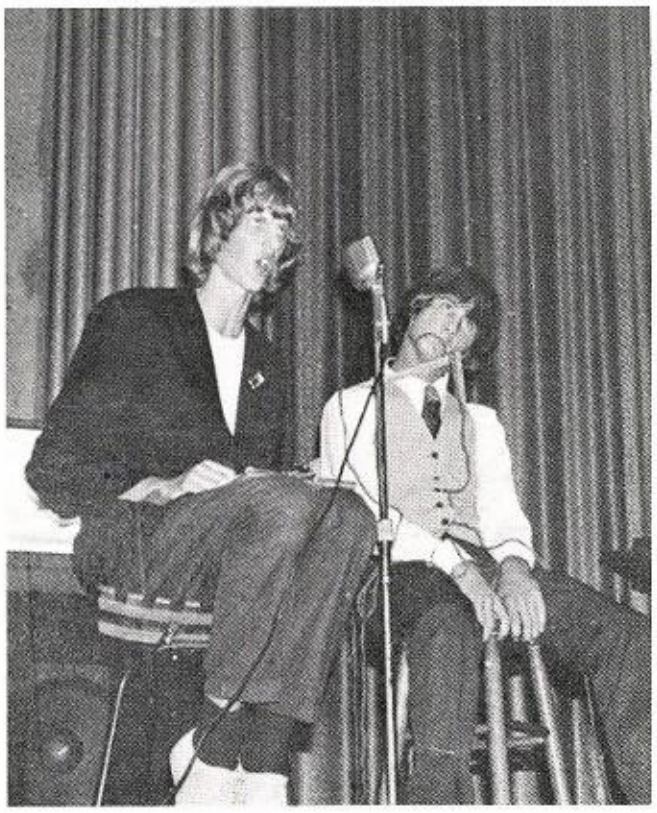
Barbara Watkins in queenly garb.



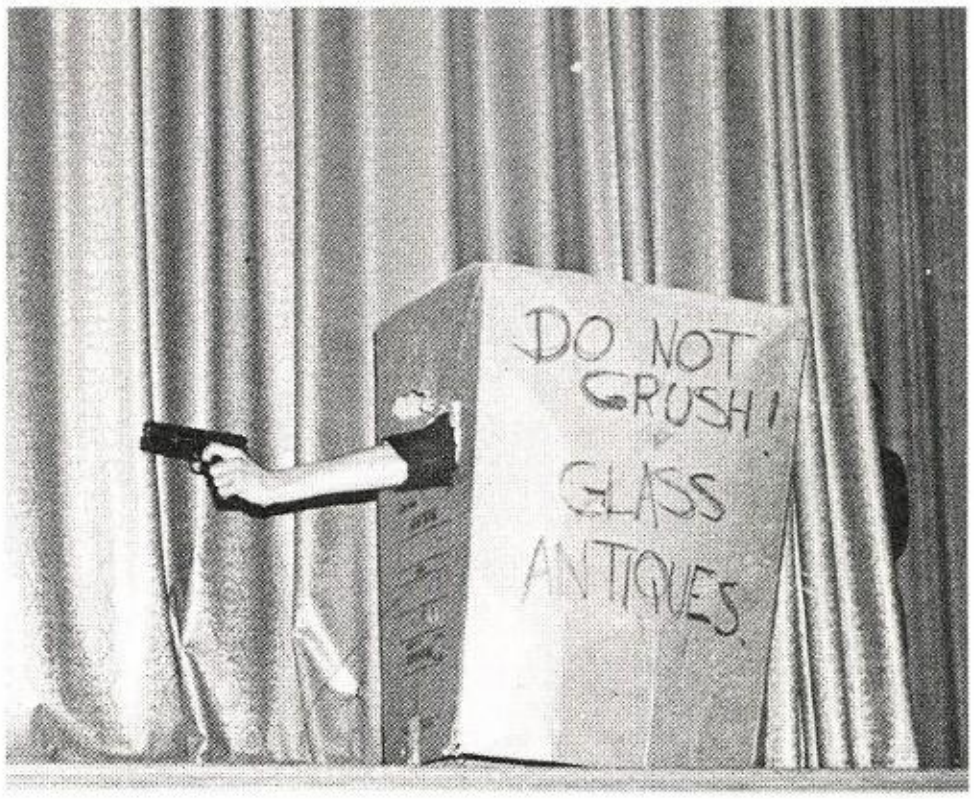
A carefully orchestrated interlude of voices and instruments.



Tom Miller solos.



Frank Gresham and Mike McQuary clown around.



A stunt worthy of 007.

Becca Butterworth's concentration is intense.

Mike Hamilton, Ken Holder, Brian Carlson and Scott Warner—hats off in a harmonizing farewell.

Students Display their Talent

The Midlothian Music Departments presented their annual spring concerts. The Orchestra, directed by Mr. Trevett, held their concert Monday night, May 23. The Choruses, directed by Miss Wright, held their concert Wednesday night, May 25. The Band, directed by Mr. Hale, held their concert Thursday, May 26. The grand display of talent and musical ability in these concerts were inspirational to all who attended.

Miss Wright is enthusiastic.

Mr. Trevett introduces the orchestra.

Mr. Hale conducts.

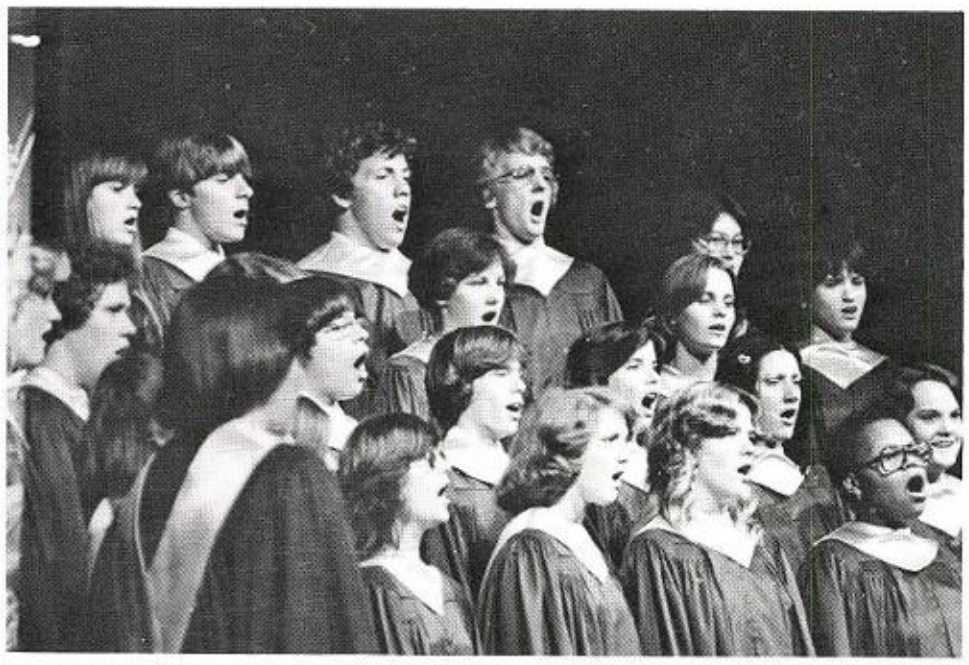
The other choruses join the Mixed Choir for the grand finale.

The Treble Chorus poses before singing.

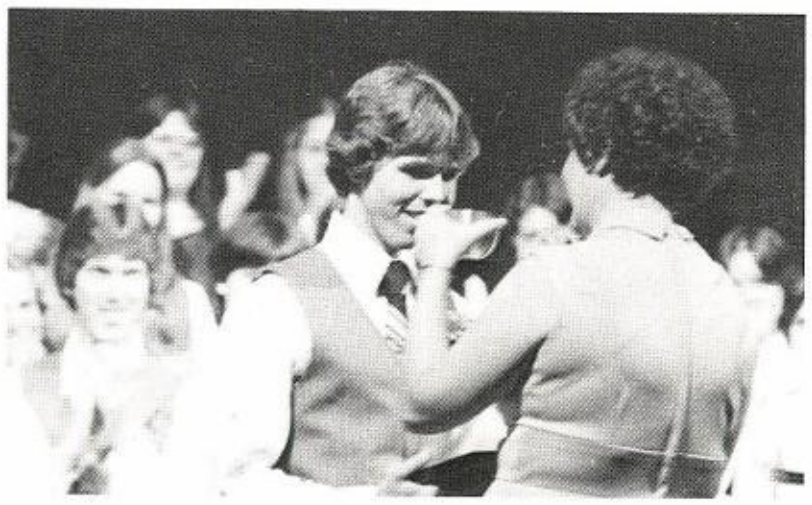
Patti Agliano contributes to the orchestra melody.

The Band accepts their applause.

The Band players concentrate.



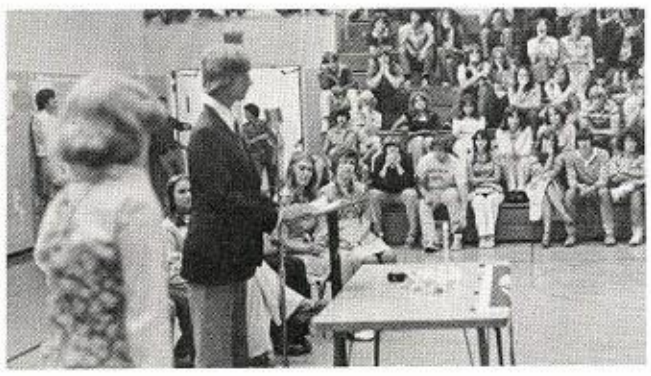
Mixed Chorus enjoys singing.



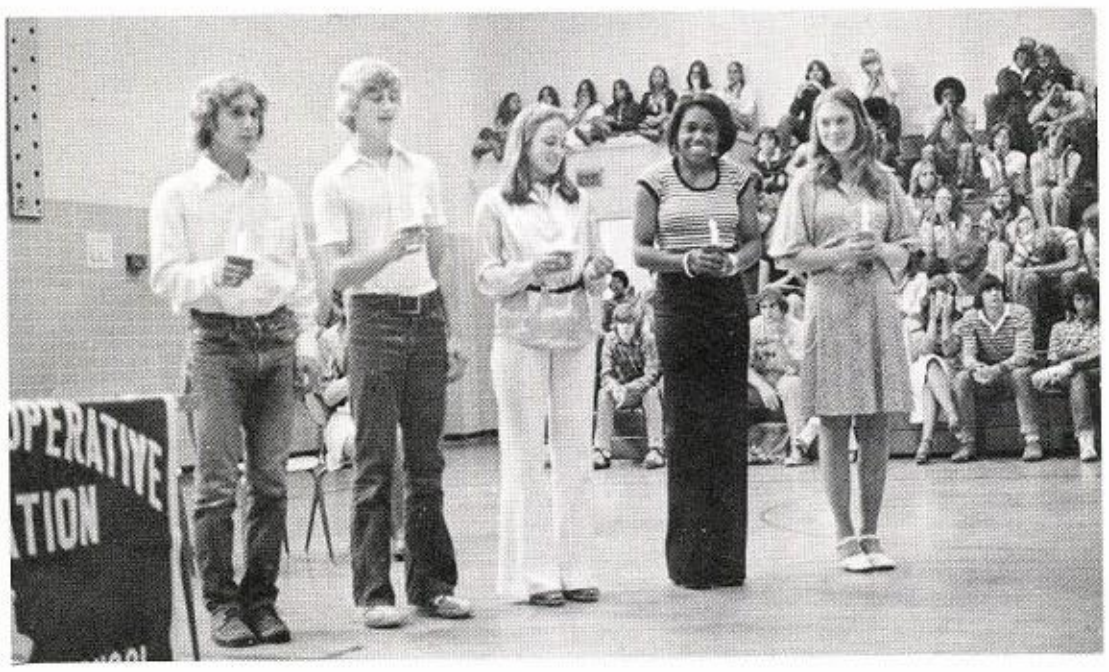
Tom Keeling receives honorable Hesch choir award.

1977-78 SCA Arrival

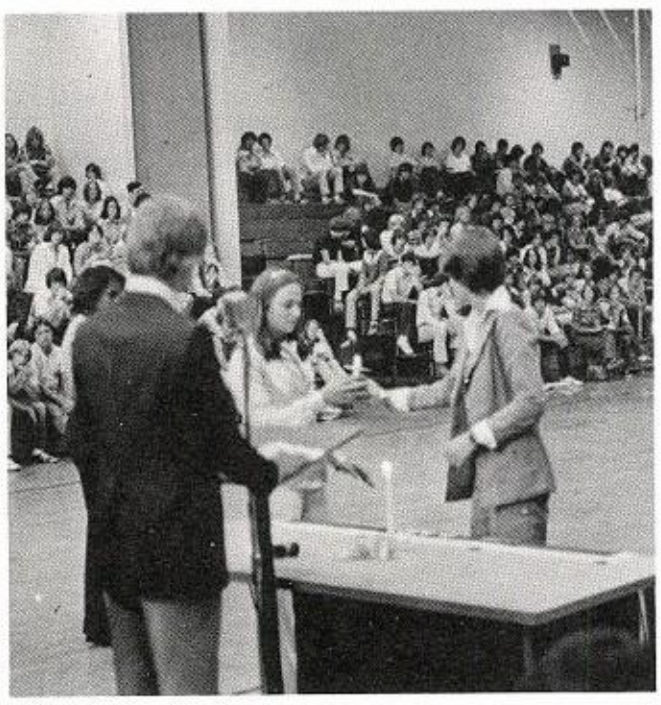
The newly elected 1977-78 SCA officers are Yoel Yonan, president; Todd Hylton, vice-president; Elaine Hughes, secretary; Sheryl Purnell, treasurer; and Suzanne Utley, chaplain. The new sponsor will be Mrs. Yvonne Bailey. The school would like to extend special thanks to the 1976-77 SCA officers and their sponsor Mr. Duggan for their fine leadership.



'76-77 President Mike McQuary presides.

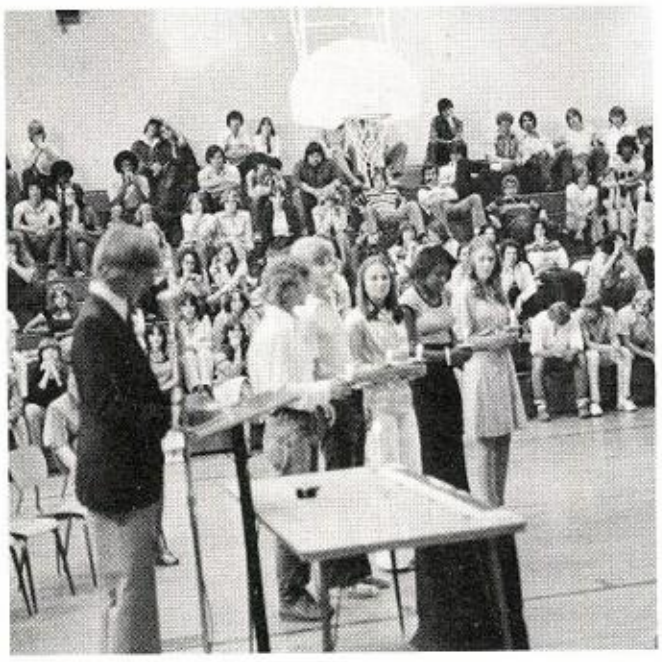


Our pride lies in our new leaders.



Elaine Hughes contemplates her duties.

Sheryl Purnell accepts her position with dignity.



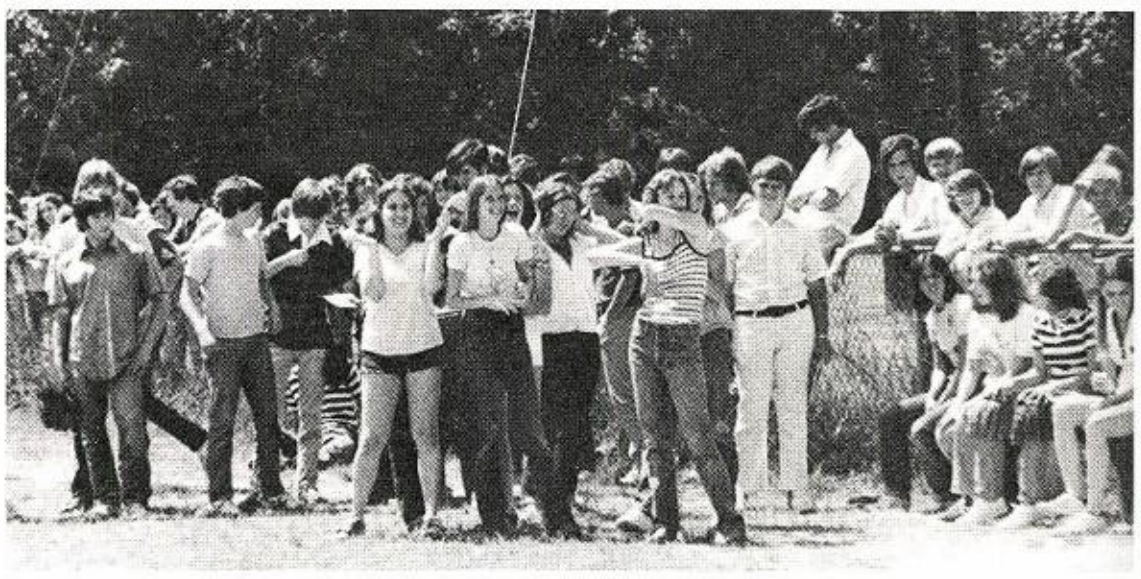
The 1977-78 SCA officers take their oath.

The 1976-77 SCA officers bid farewell.

Top, left to right: Miss Wright: "This outfielding is getting boring!" Coach Hulcher shows his usual enthusiasm. I wouldn't wrestle with Miss Bunting if I were you.

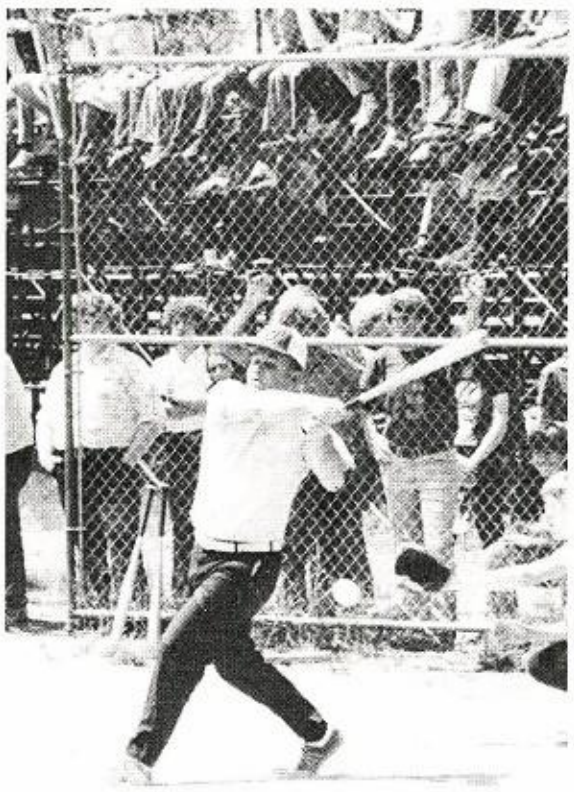
Student-Faculty Softball

On Friday the 13th the students played the faculty in softball. The students showed that youth is a determining factor in softball. Although the faculty members tried hard, they couldn't combat the vitality of the students. It proved to be an interesting afternoon for all who participated.



Many students turn out to watch the game.

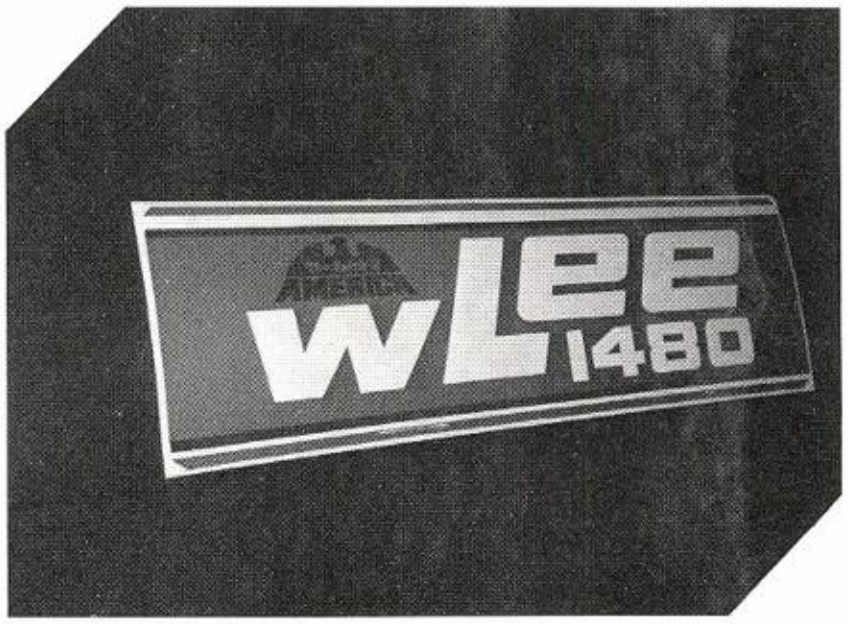
Tracy Restrick says gum helps concentration.

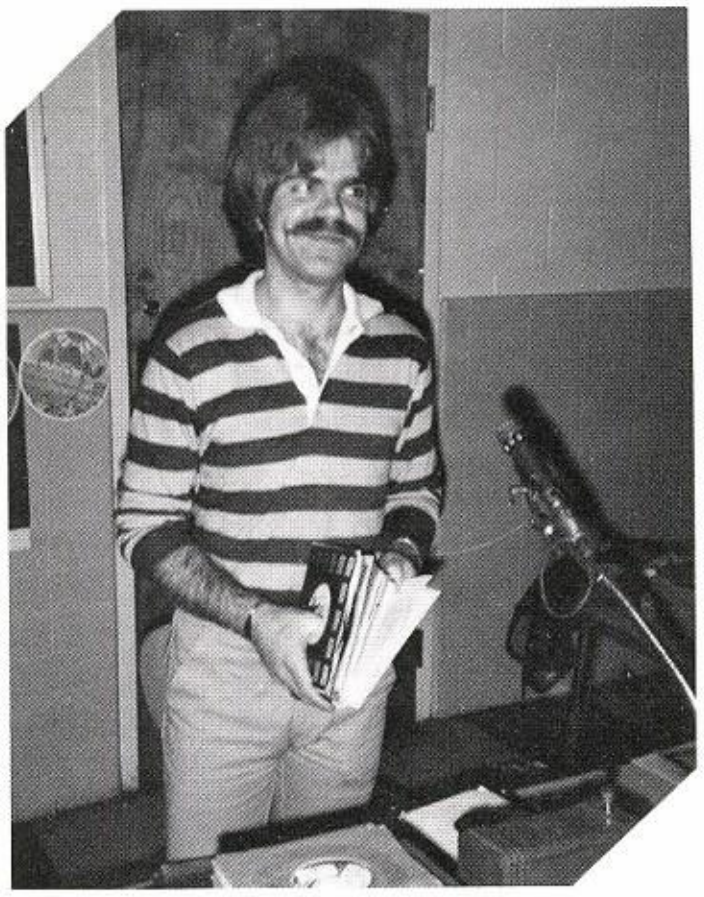


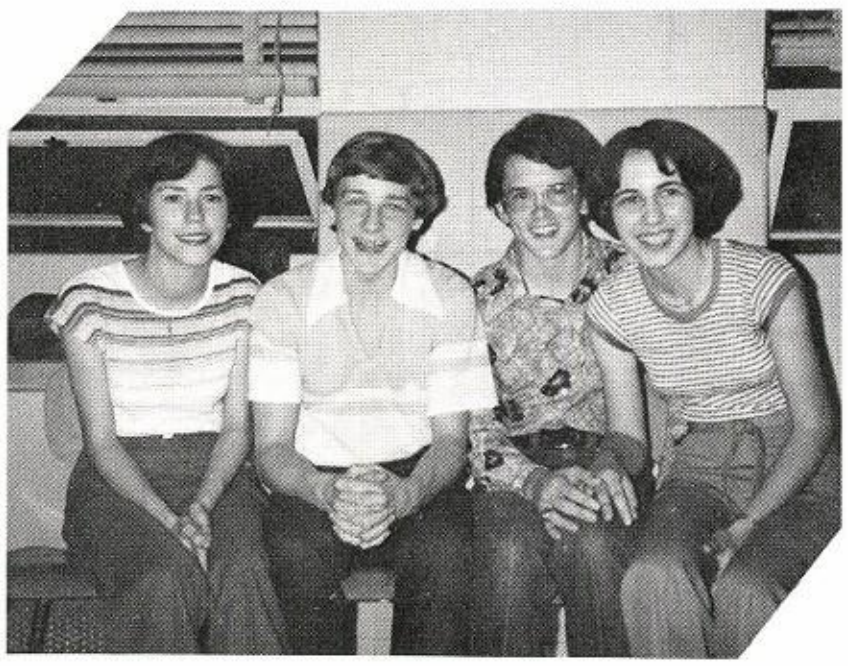
Clockwise left to right: Mr. Hale: "Did I hit that ball?" Doug Shortridge supports the students. Mr. Curry puts his whole heart into the swing.

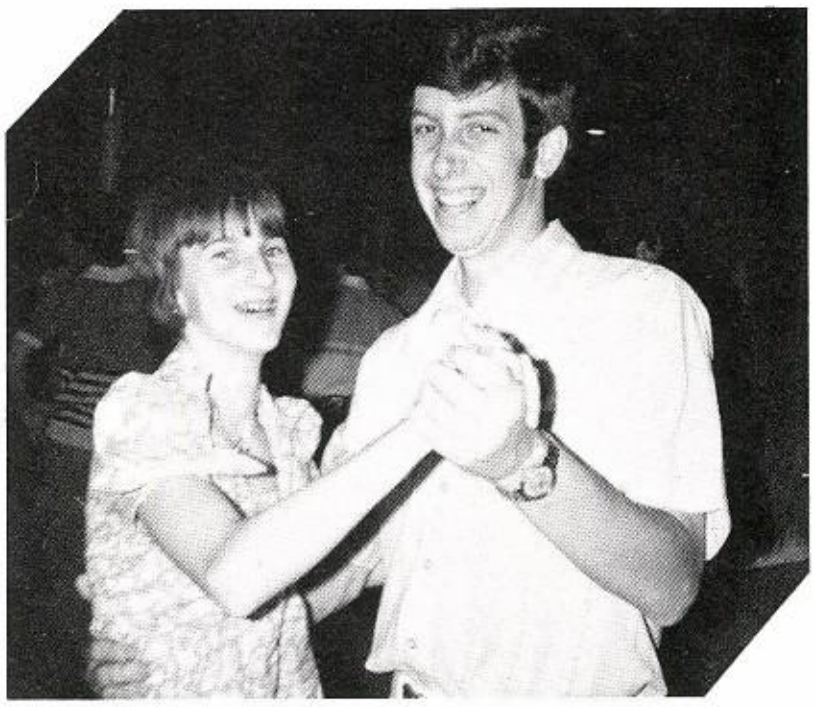
Disco Dance

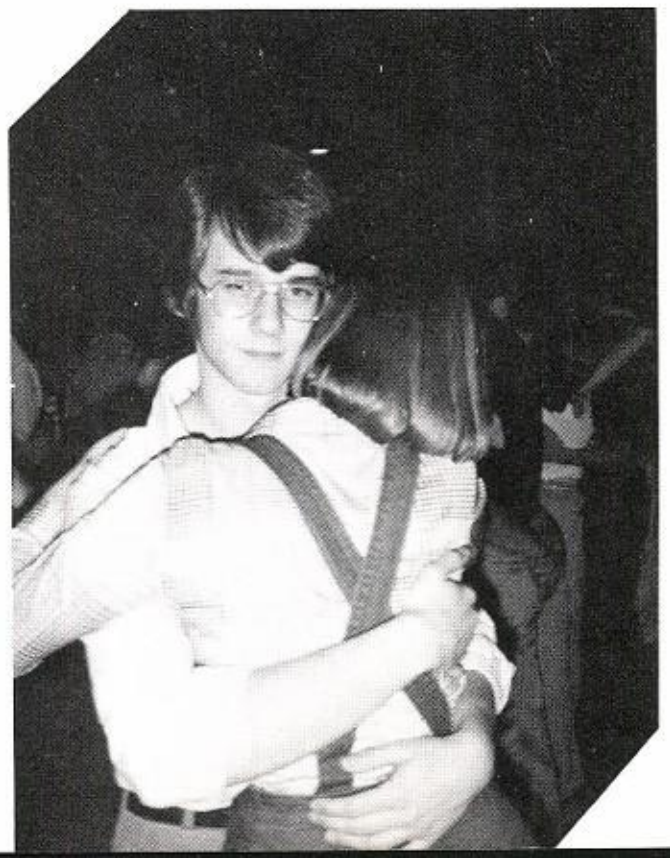
On April Fools Day, the SCA sponsored the Sadie Hawkins Dance in Midlo's cafeteria. Music was provided by Mark Reynolds of WLEE radio. This was the first of its kind this year and had a large turnout by the sophomore class. Everyone enjoyed themselves.



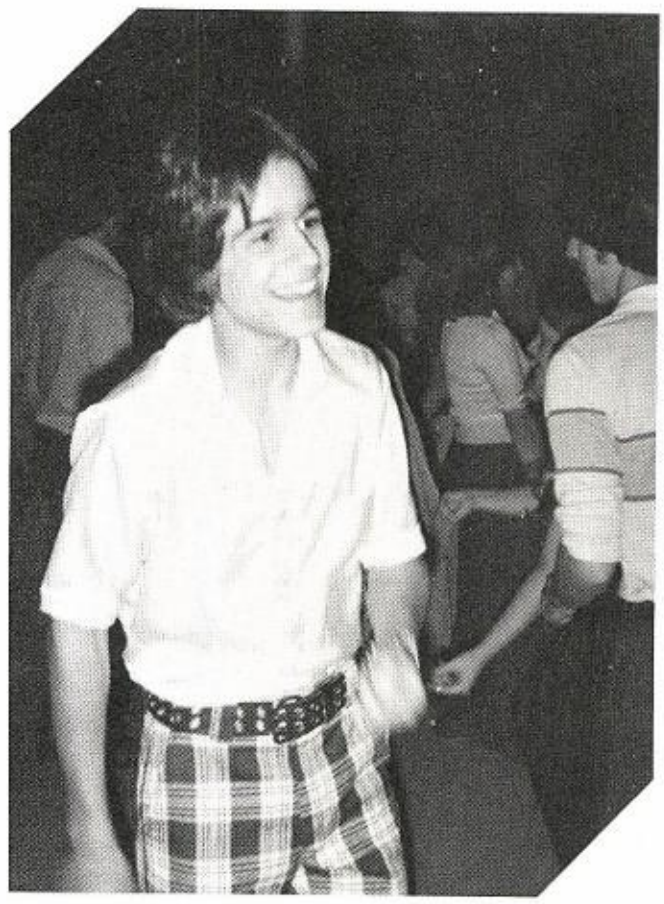


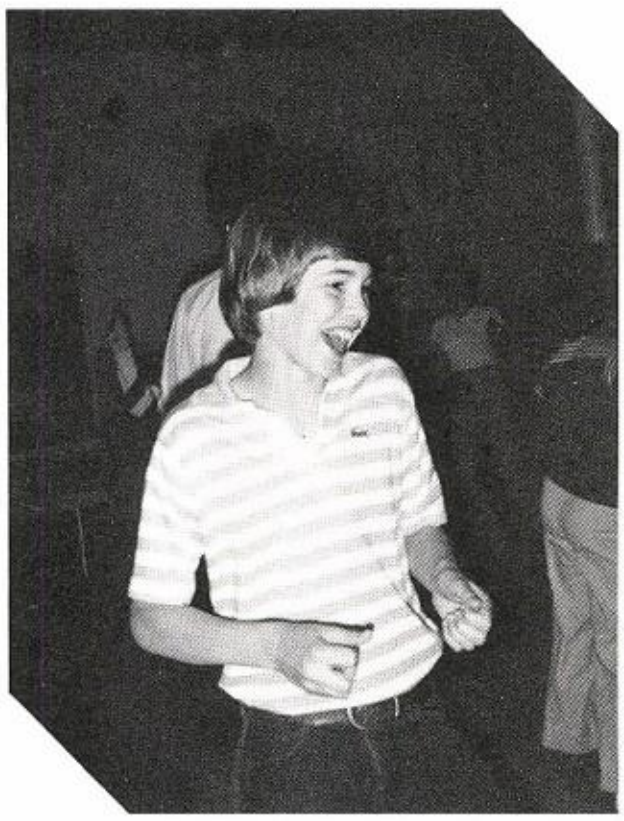


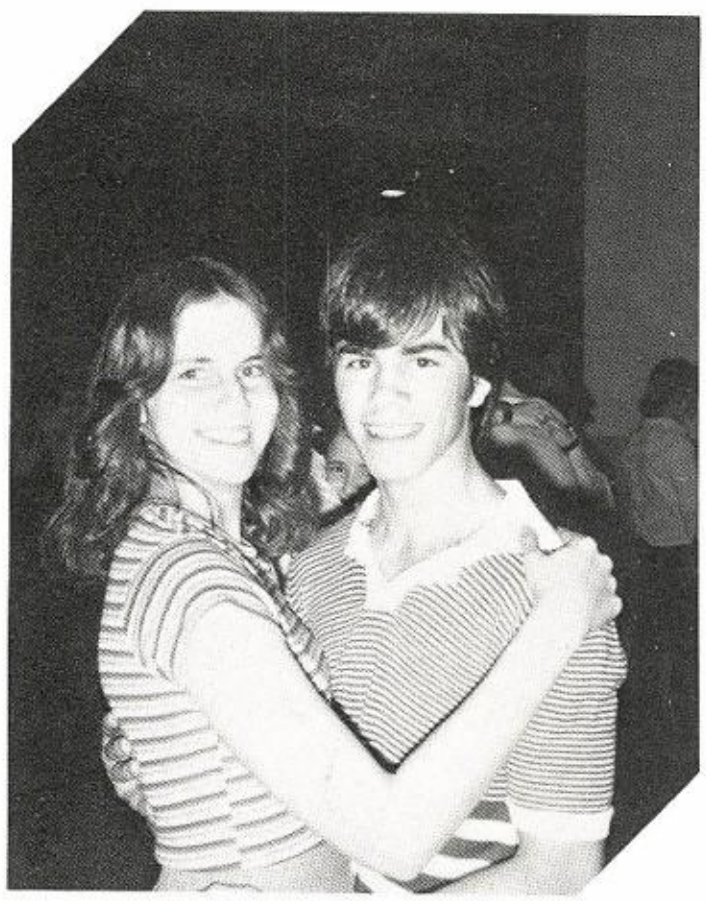


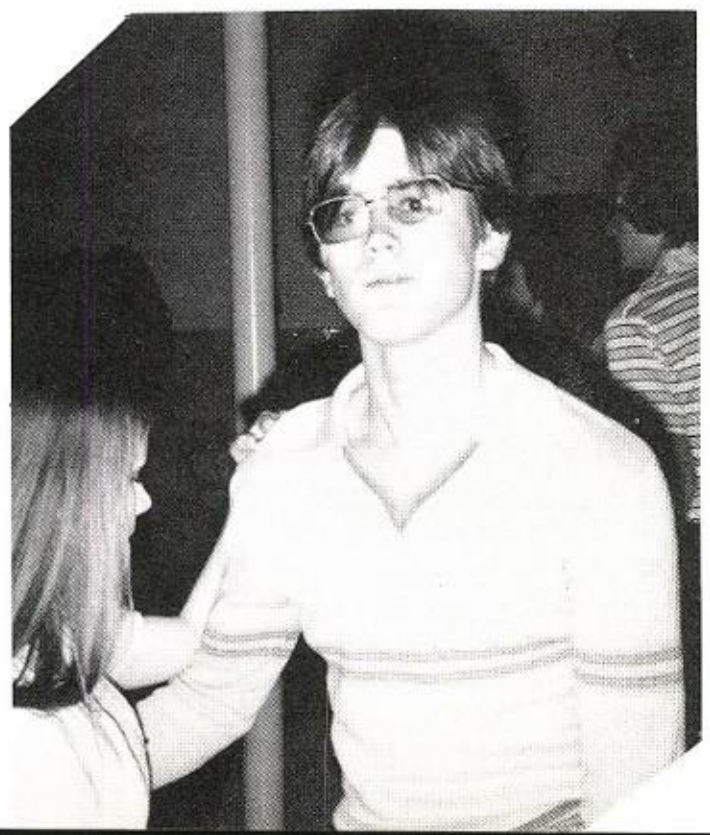


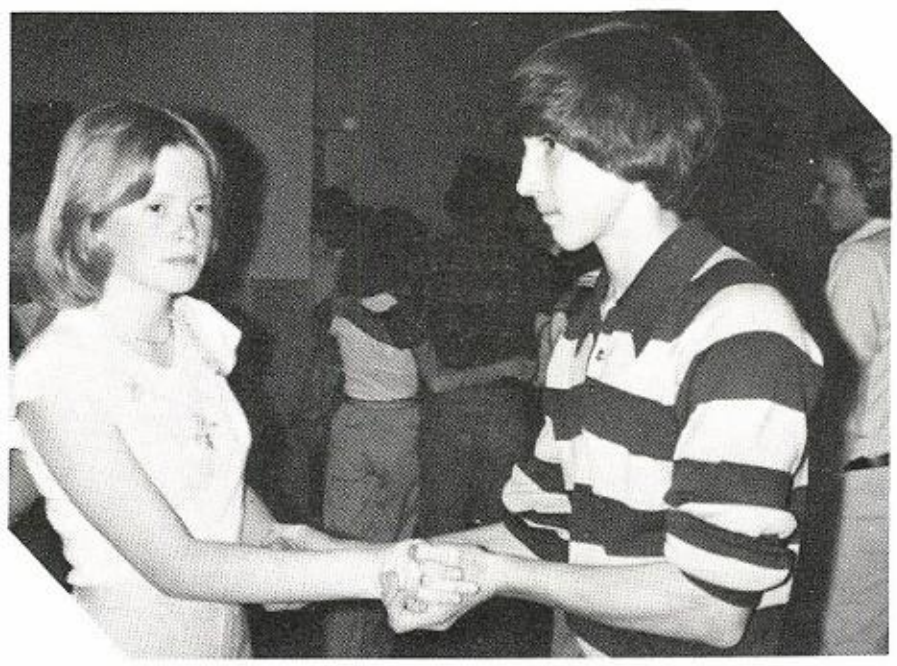
p. 60, clockwise starting above: Marge Selby, Gary Harrington, E.D. Clem, and Dale Johnson take a breather from the excitement. WLEE and Mark Reynolds keep things moving. Tracy Lott and Greg Spurlock ham it up. Doug Jaeger: "I can't believe she asked me!" p. 61, from top, left to right: Servers Beth Wells and Carol Anderson are all smiles. Dan Crowley seems to be the life of the dance. Alan Moore gets into the music. Susan Schneider and Steve Ketrow are a polished pair. Doug Boothe: "This is no April Fool!" Janet Schoettinger: "I'm having such a good time?"











A Foreign Affair

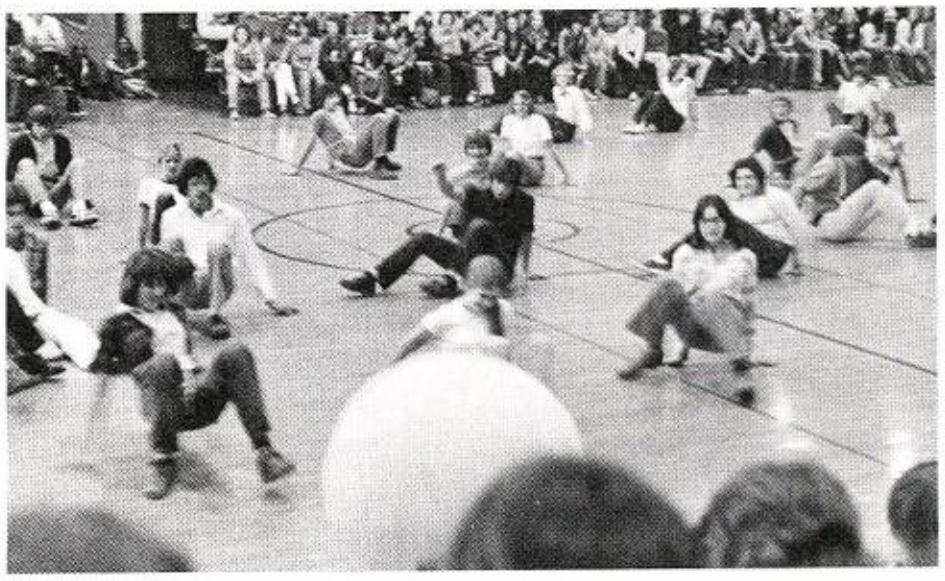
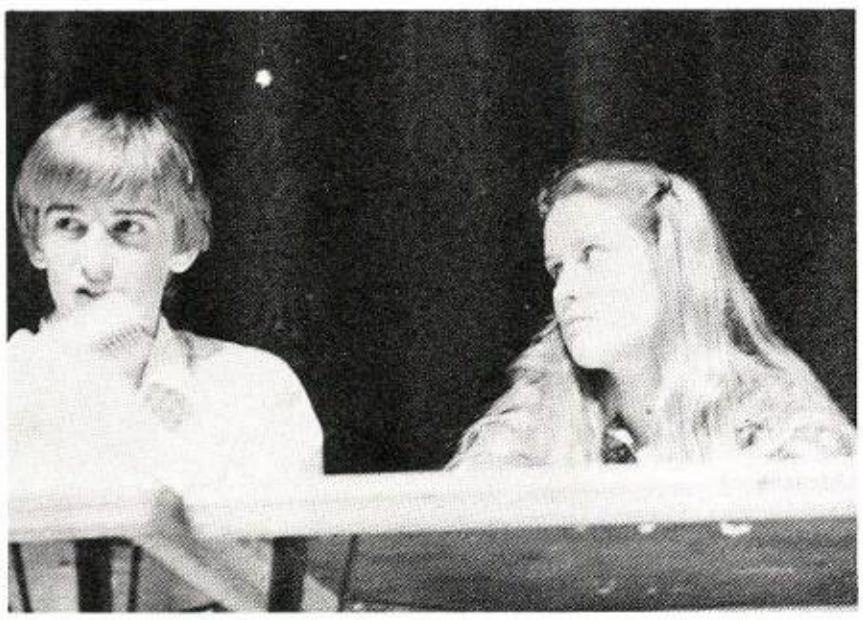
Gary Herrin displays his skill in sack race.

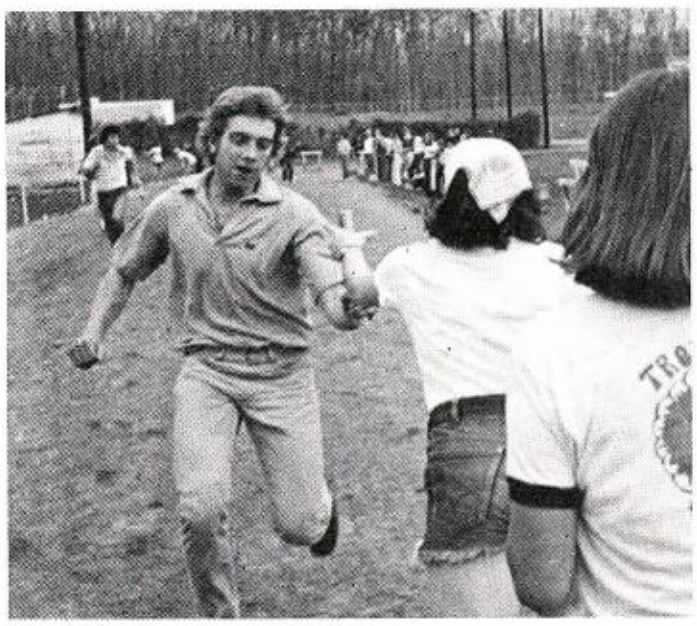
The week was a very exciting one. It was full of games which included volleyball, crab-soccer, basketball, tug-of-war, ping-pong, and many others with Spanish the overall winner. One of the most enjoyable events was the foreign exchange student assembly where Midlo students learned the opinions on America from the foreign students. The week ended with the Taster's Supper. This, too, was a big success. All the money raised went to a Midlo student to help her study abroad. The winner was Susan Foster. All in all, the week was a memorable event.



The German and French teams battle it out in a crab-soccer game.



"What will he say next?" wonders the student from Sweden.



David Baum hands off to Mary Fisk.

Bill Girone prepares to ask his next question.

The baton race can be very exciting.

Susan Foster shows them how to play ping-pong.

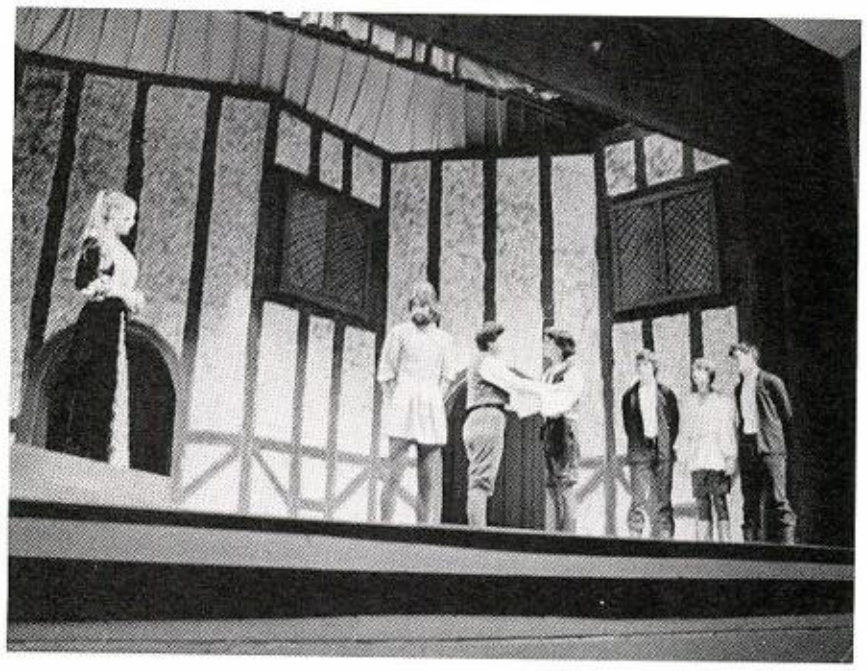
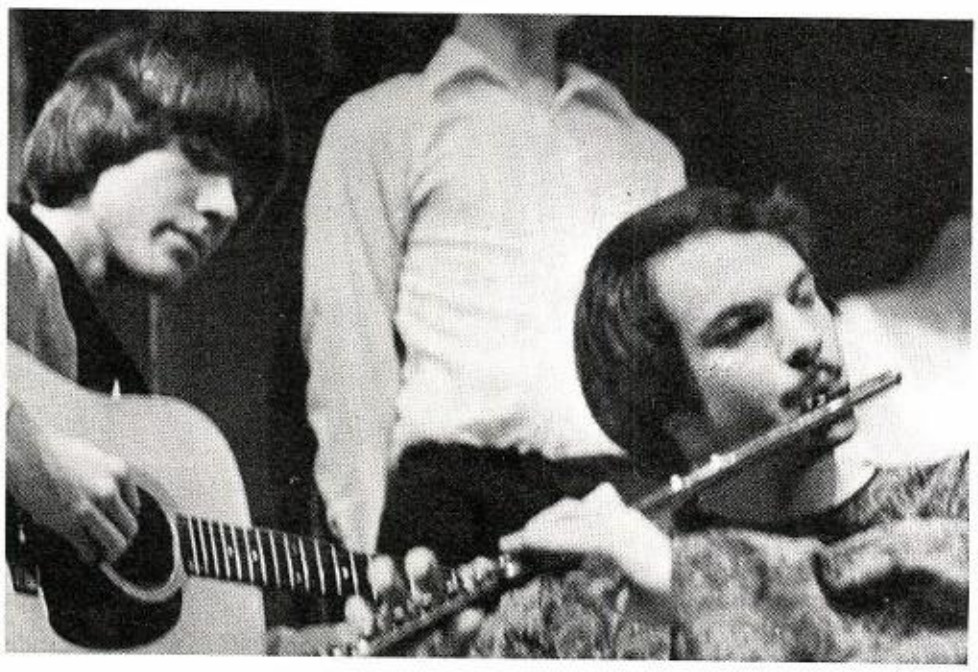
Twelfth Night
or
What You Will



Sebastian and Viola finally meet.



The court musicians perform.

Sir Toby Belch and Fabian plan the sword fight.

The Duke comes on the scene.

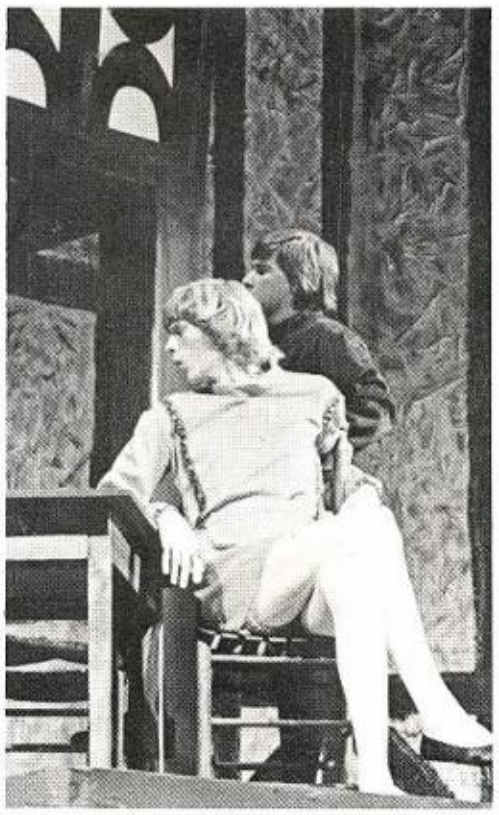
Sir Andrew doesn't seem pleased.

Sir Toby thinks about his actions.

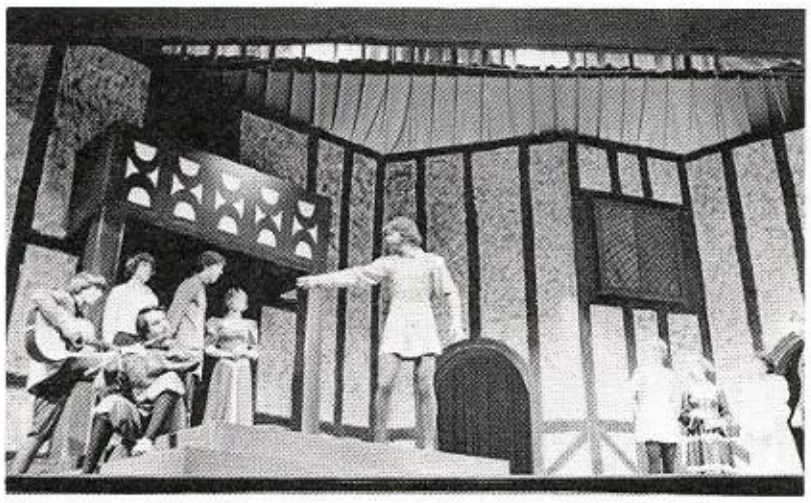
Bryan Carlson, the Sea Captain, tells Viola, Lucille Romanello, that her brother isn't dead.

Maria, Lanie O'Dell, and Sir Toby plot against Malvolio.

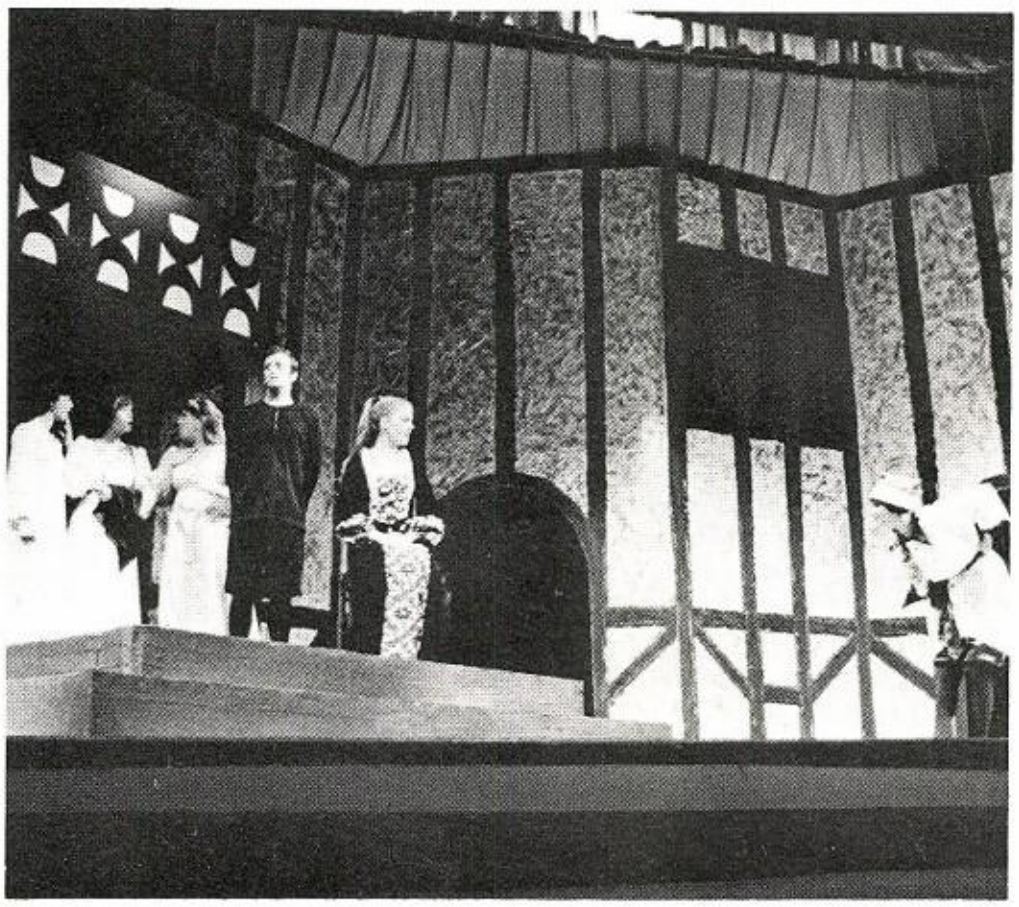
The Duke of Illyria, Brian Cahoon, talks to the others.



Andrew and Toby sing a little song.



The Duke tells the musicians to be quiet.



Feste, Marcia Temple, performs for Olivia, Becca Butterworth.

Curtain call for the cast.

Twelfth Night or What you Will, by William Shakespeare, was presented by the Midlothian Drama Department as the third and final production of the year. This romantic comedy involved a complex plot of mistaken identities and in its four night run provided a source of delightful entertainment which capped off a great season of drama.

Las Vegas Comes Alive

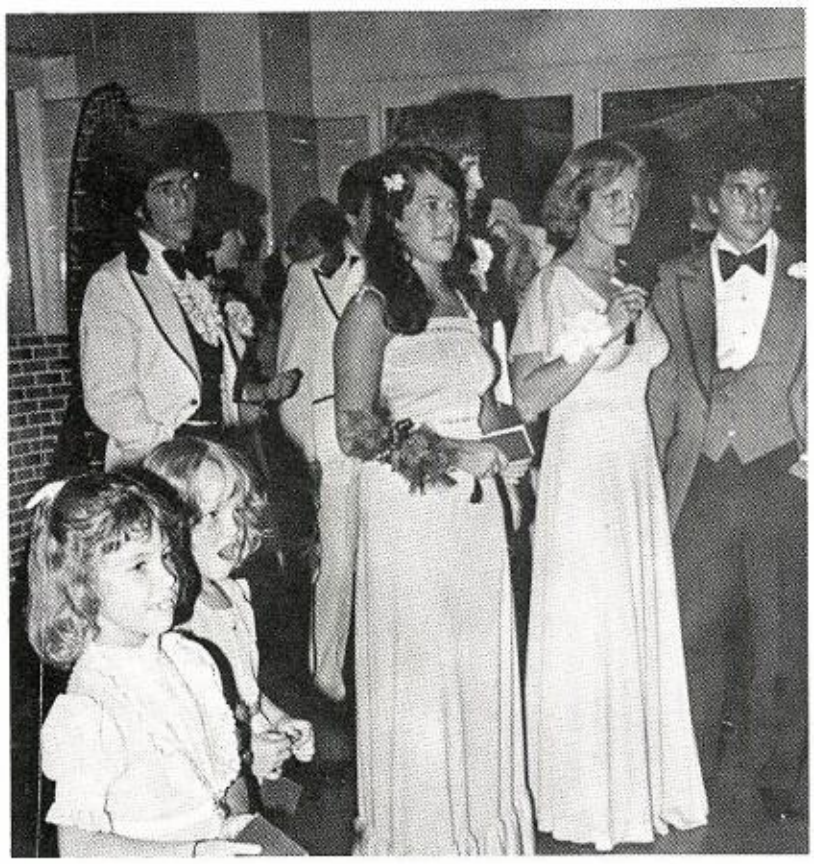
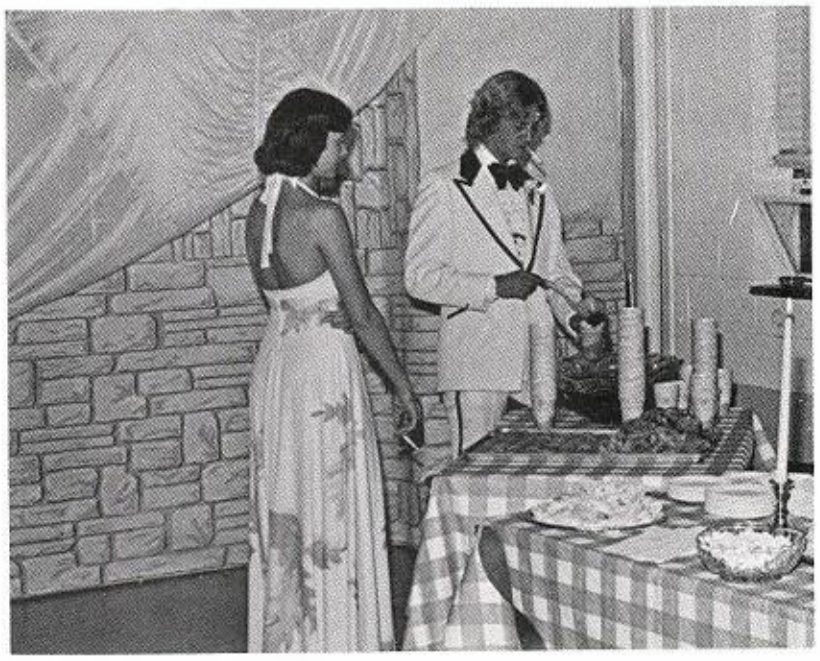
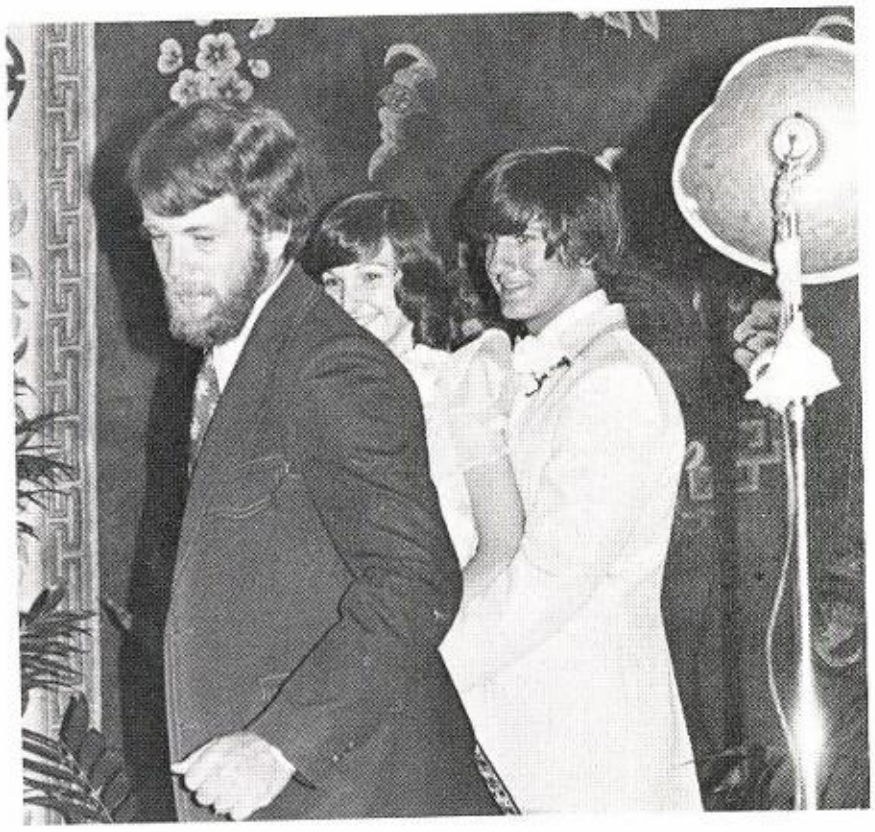
The night begins for this couple.



Clockwise starting above: Candlelight provides dancing music. Russell Berlin and Hedy Willoughby get some punch before it's gone. Marcia Temple gets down. Angie Williamson and Carolyn Huntley watch what's going on.





On May 9 Las Vegas came to Midlothian. The juniors worked hard and it all payed off. The highlights were the senior superlatives and the crowning of Frank Gresham and Gloria O'Brien as king and queen. With Mrs. Rosser, Mrs. Graham, the band, Candlelight, the decorations, and the "punch" all working together made for a very enjoyable evening.

The Casino Rolls

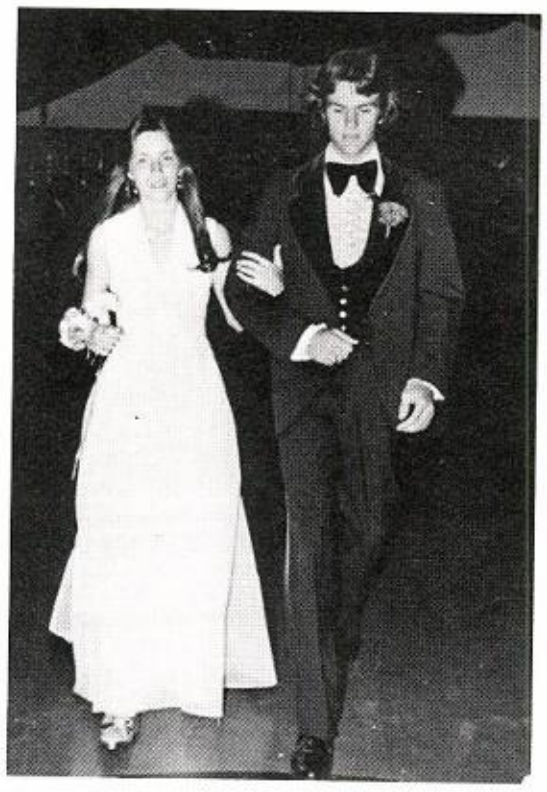
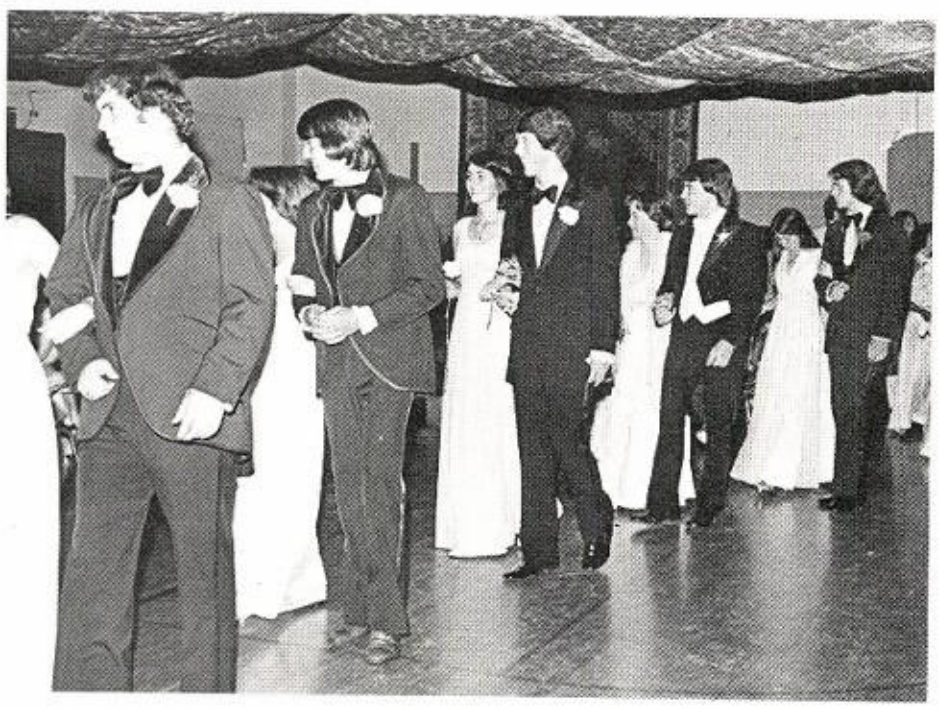
Susan Proffit and Scott Rugar are announced.



Alice Doyle and Lee Rider make their entrance.

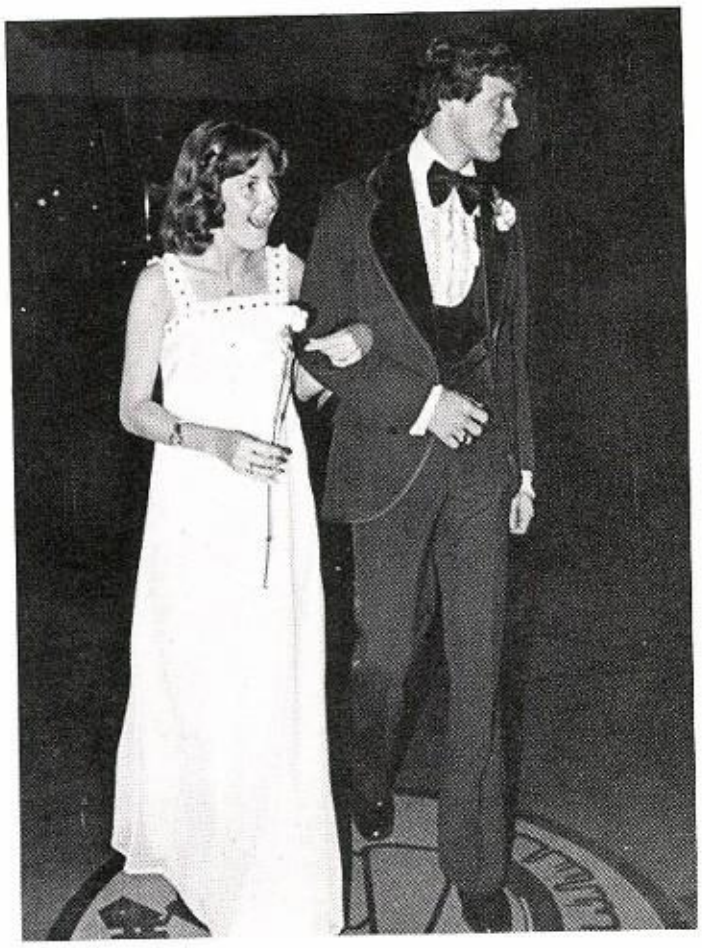


The procession begins.

Judy James gleams with beauty.

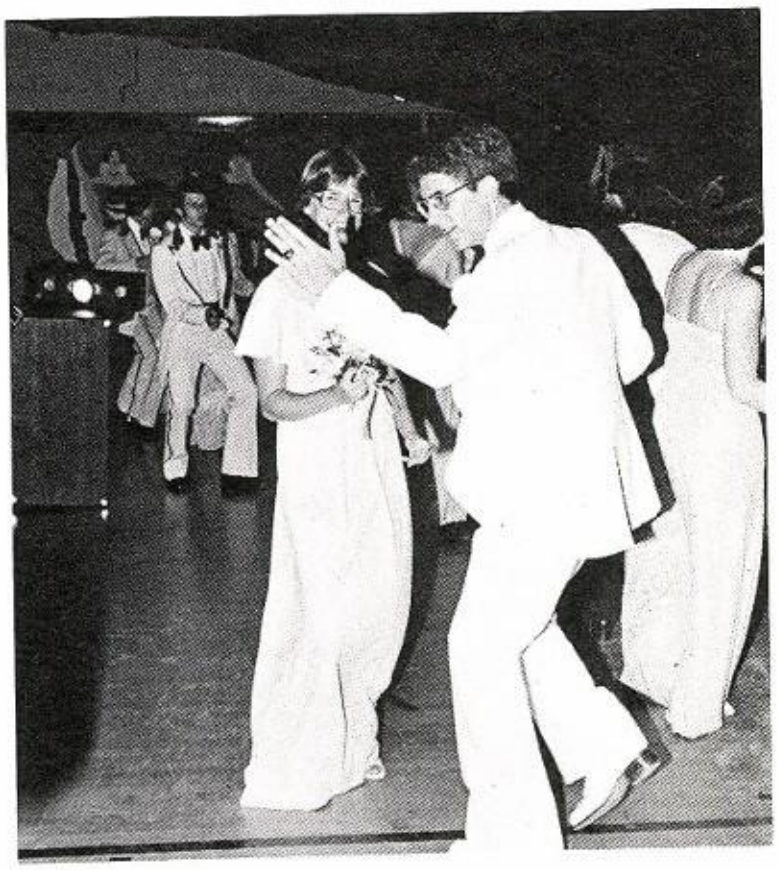
The seniors receive recognition.

Gloria O'Brien is crowned, once again, as Prom Queen.



Lynn Feagin and Coulter James highlight the figure.

Andy Lacy and Lisa Sweeney ham it up.



Wendi Berry finds her date funny.

Midlo rocks to the music.

This couple is expecting a good time.

MILESTONES . . .

Thinking back to the first miles
Traveled in sunrise orange buses,
Our feet did not touch the floor.
We learned to reach to keep
From breaking
And to lean correctly with the curves.
The route changed with the calendar
Pages
But the destination was the same.

Looking back as the last miles
Flicker through the rear-view
Mirror,
We pass orange buses.
Signalling, we meet our exit,
Careful not to disturb the Flow of traffic . . .

Our Everyday People

Anticipation

As seniors, the final year creates mixed feelings of regret and anticipation. The years of preparation are coming to an end and important decisions must be made. Each decision determines a move in new directions. With growing confidence, seniors reach the end of one game and begin another.

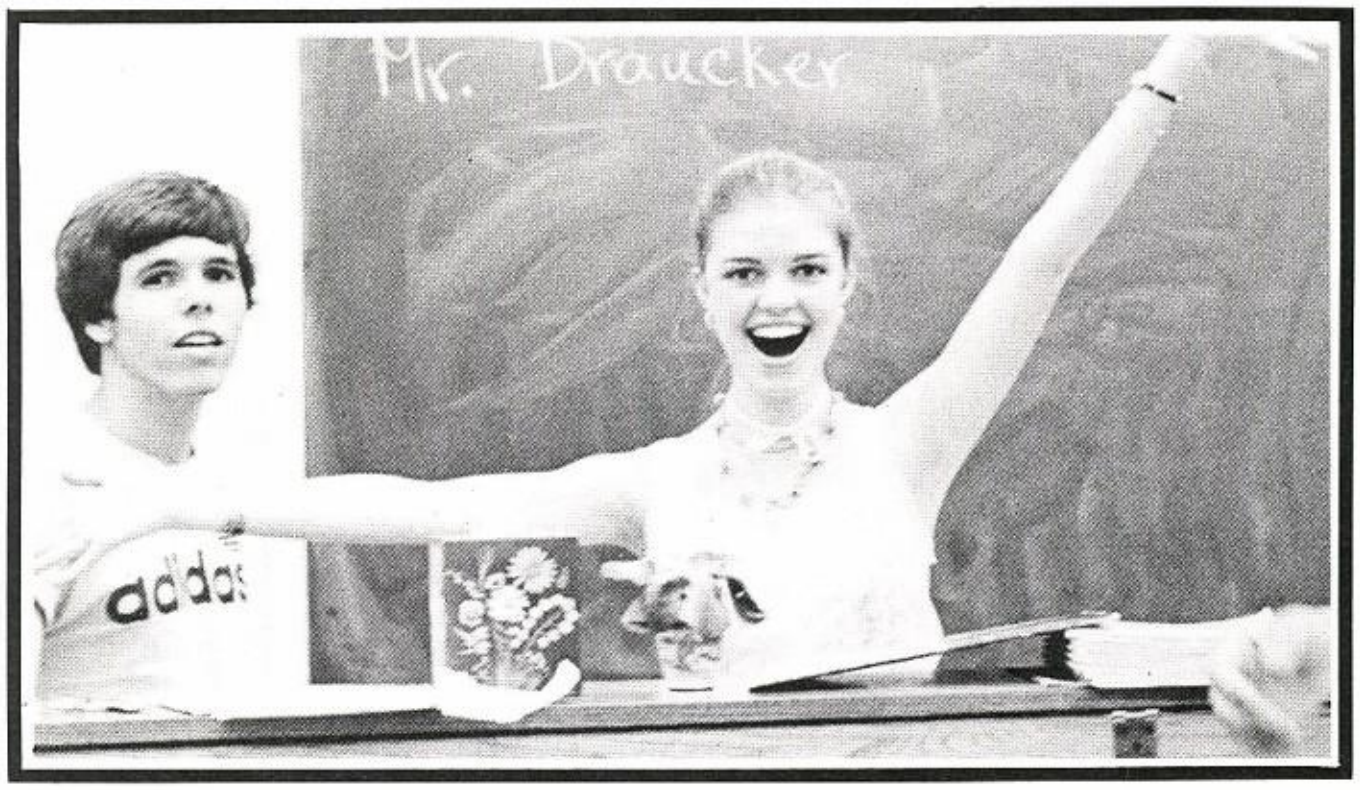
Rainy Days Come Alive



Spring brings creativity out of hibernation. The student parking lot hosts a daily skateboard championship. A handstand wins applause or a broken nose—What a risk! The grafitti artists strike and the mysterious "ORT Rises Again" on newly painted walls. The "Great Dumpster Fire" only filled the halls with smoke instead of charring algebra books. Rain can't stop the active seniors.

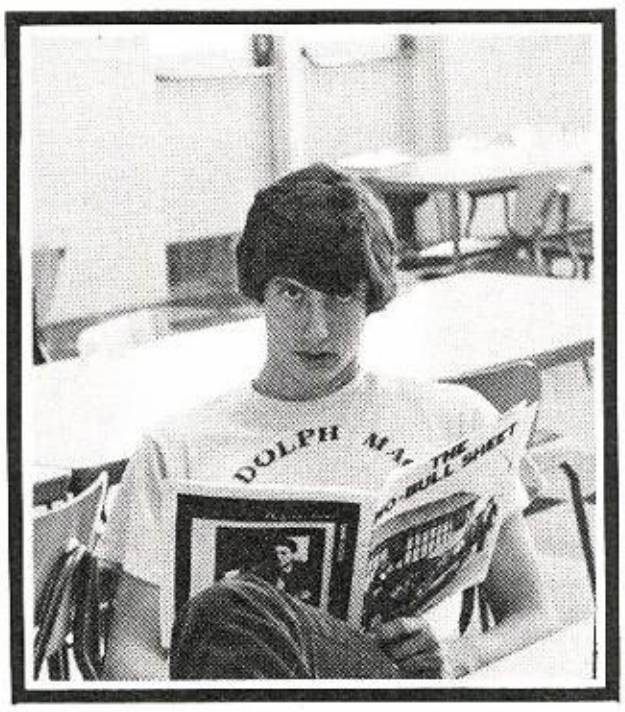
SLUMP

This group is characterized by knowing their priorities and through perserverence not letting anything thwart the attainment of their goals. Although school came easy to many of these students, there was the constant struggle to maintain their rank. Many sacrificed grade point averages for a chance to take advanced subjects. Some of the more tortuous subjects include Math Analysis, Advanced English and "History." This honor is a good indication of future success in their lives.



Seniors tire of the waiting game. With the news of college acceptances and rejections, decisions threaten the carefree feeling of spring. Yet, soon relieved seniors slump. Ranks and averages fade in importance lending way to "take it easy" and "just getting by." Spring encourages laziness so the seniors propose another skip day—the Monday after the prom!

D O W N

Caps and gowns finally arrive with only one problem—multi-colored tassels with a twenty-two on them. Mrs. Wolfe quickly corrects the mistake before anyone can complain, and again tradition wins over faddishness. Graduation gets closer and even the uninterested students get excited. Class day committees form for everything from roses to programs. Seniors soon realize graduating is an art. No one ever told us how to wear our tassels or send announcements. After all this they know they're ready for the "big bad" world.

Left top: John Pickett feels comfortable in his unmatched graduation cap. Left: "Look I'm really going to graduate!," says Donald Searle. Right: Dwight Byrd stashes his box under his arm before anyone can tell him he's flunked out.

Senior Day!! For the Class of 1977, this is the one day of the year that is dedicated to us, and yet, everyday this year has been unmistakably ours. We have all looked forward eagerly to this day as we rapidly approached graduation. But in the anticipation of looking toward the future, we should not forget to look back at the merits and tribulations that account for the greatness of the Class of '77, 389 strong.

The first resemblance of our present-day appearance came at a Recreation Center named Robious Junior High School. For six weeks there were no classes as everyone oriented himself or herself with the building, and for the rest of the year there were only vague resemblances of classes as we tested the tolerance level of the open school system. A few individuals left their marks on us regardless of the atmosphere. Among these was "Midder" Page with his "locquaciousness is an adversary of academic achievement."

By the time the eighth grade rolled around most of us had settled into packets of independent study and were forced to endure the wisdom of intellects such as Mr. Puett, who is responsible for the popularity of styled hair. And then there was the History Department. Along with Verdell Hubbard, the man of a million sneakers, the history department boasted the county's only living fossil in Robert L. Bailey, who could recall with vivid memory the Battle of Gettysburg.

The Phys. Ed. department held an array of tortures known as the red, white, and blue groups. While Coach Lester was showing the red group the art of pegboarding, and Coach Shaw was showing the white group animal imitations, Coach Ancarrow killed off half of the blue group with his daily marathons.

The major differences between the eighth and ninth grades were the removal of the doors from the bathrooms, and the appearance of the notorious Jackie Wooten. The first time we all worked together on a project was in trying to push Ms. Wooten over the brink of sanity. But we soon learned the foolhardiness of this effort when some of us were forced into picking up crumbs after lunches in House One. We learned two valuable things at Robious—How to play "bloodyknuckles," and how to knock those leaning back in their chairs onto the floor with a single tug of the curtain.

Amazingly, we were the first class to survive three years at Robious (though some were detained by a robotoid known as Mr. Bradham) and we were headed for Midlothian and work, which had been forgotten about for three years.

Midlothian could have held some harsh realities for us, save for the compassion of an understanding principal, Mr. Poates, who chose to help us adapt to the rigors of life in the halls of Midlothian. As Sophomores we started an annual tradition by electing Andy Lacy as our class president, and we began to notice that there were advantages to go along with the work at Midlothian. We learned to utilize a full 45 minute activity period twice a week, also a few went to club meetings during this time.

Moving up in the world as Juniors, things got hectic. Herff-Jones picked our pockets clean for class rings, but the day they arrived it all seemed worth it. PSAT's (the P is for "Pray a lot") also arrived to further complicate things for us. After our scores came back, many of us decided to take the real thing in April, to give ourselves more chances to retake them later. On that fateful day in April we piled into Huguenot High School prepared for the worst. After they were over, we were much relieved for a few weeks, until scores returned and we scrambled to find out if any college would take scores that low.

Prom time came early, but not easy for us. Our finances came at the expense of complexions, as we sold Reeses cups diligently, and later cornered the market on Clearasil. A magazine drive rounded out our expense money and Prom Chairperson Lynn Thomas directed the preparations for the magical night of "Mardi Gras". It can be safely said that a foot stompin' good time was had by all who attended.

The Class of '77 definitely left its mark that year; in Athletics, (as we helped to win the County All-Sports trophy), on the water tower, and in the towel room.

Our Senior year finally arrived, but without many of the long awaited privileges that usually accompany it. Without a Senior lounge, our meager privileges consisted of nothing more than a head start home and to the cafeteria. We were also greeted with hall passes, a means of penal reform that went out with the Kopko Regime. These formed no obstacle, however, as after the first two weeks, a book of passes was standard equipment in every locker. We found that old rumors such as the end of exam exemptions, and the retirement of Miss Martin were once again unfounded, and both made life as a Senior easier. We were also blessed by the virtues of a paved parking lot.

As Seniors our contributions to athletics were far reaching. Our football team continued its winning ways of a year ago, and our basketball team provided much excitement with a district title, and a first-ever trip to the Regional Tournament. Walter York became the first Midlothian wrestler to compete in the State Tournament, and the gymnastics teams had another typical great year. This coupled with the successes of the cross-country, golf, tennis and track teams, assures Midlothian of Laureat of the County All-Sports titlist.

There was a "Touch of Magic" homecoming night, and the Seniors were well represented by a float and four lovely princesses, Brenda Dintiman, Robin Sowell, Lori Wauters, and Gloria O'Brien who was crowned Queen.

The Guidance office, and Mrs. Jones, gave us constant help with college applications, and a foolproof excuse for missing classes. But it all evened out when we were shocked by our class ranks (now we know why the clinic is so close to the Guidance office.)

As our days at Midlothian become fewer, we begin to ponder these incidents and numerous others that have touched us. We have come together for a brief period of our lives and are now about to separate and go our various ways, but we will not forget the sad times, as well as the happy ones, that have helped to make the Class of '77 better; and we hope we have made Midlothian High School a better place for those who will follow us.

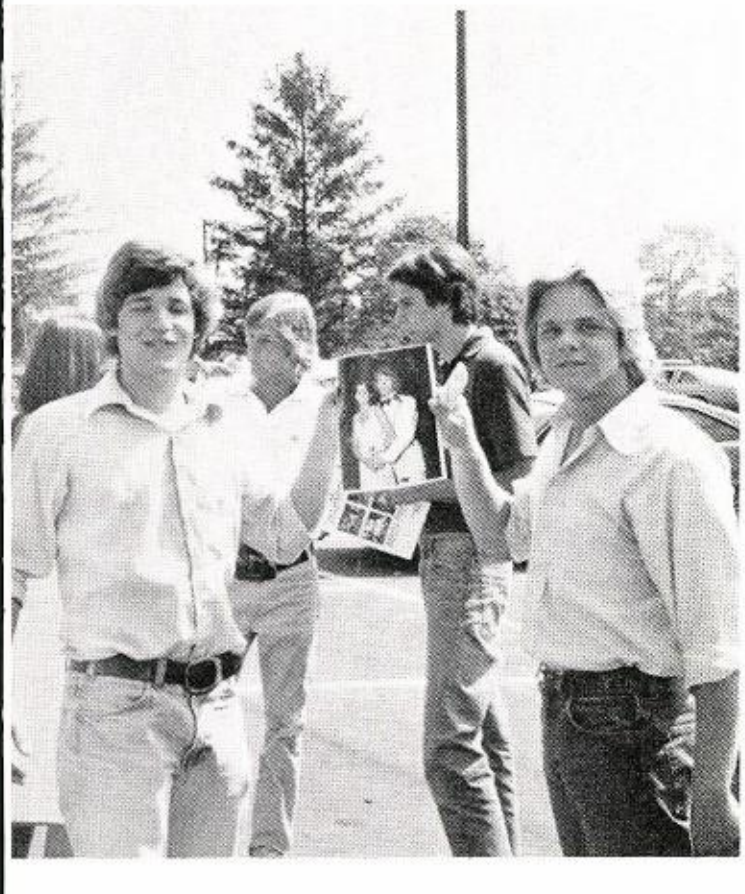
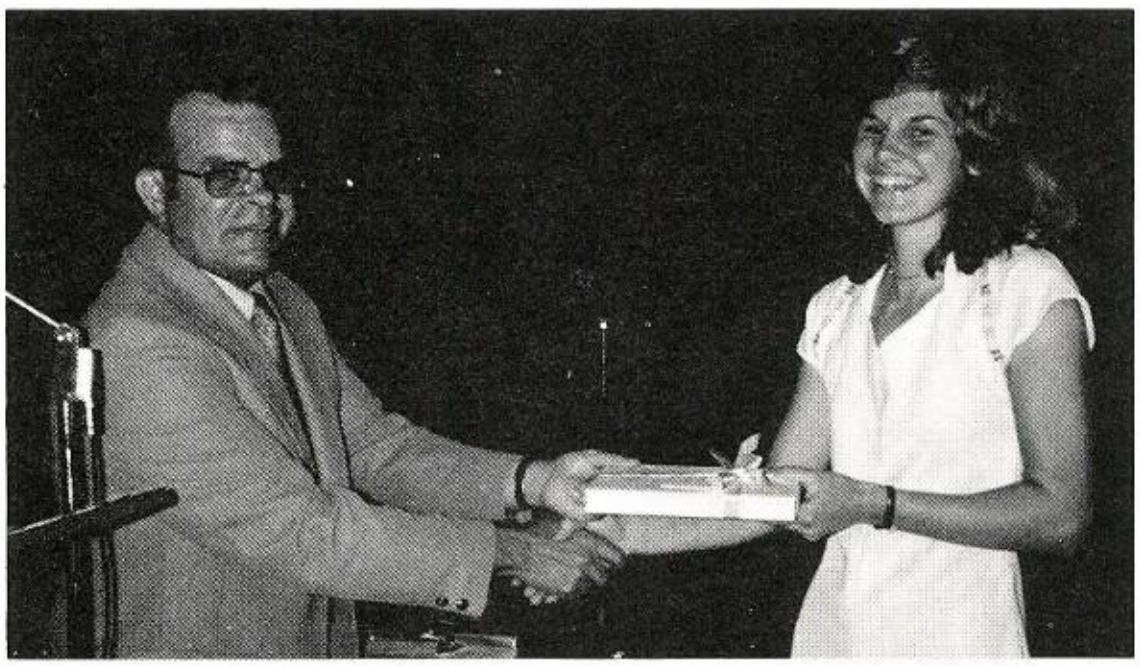
YEE-HAH!!!

Dressed in varying attire according to their individual tastes, the seniors marched into the gym and took their places for the last time. The judgement of the seniors missed no one as the class Prophecy and the Last Will and Testament were read.

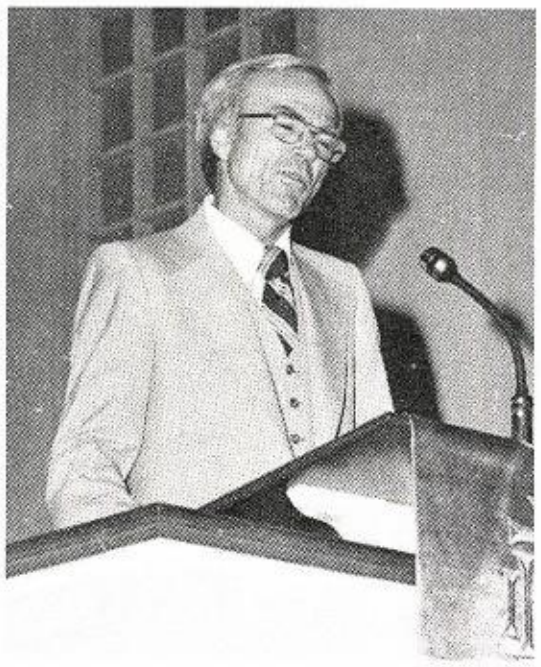
The class of '77 leaves its mark. V. Wood and Drew White proudly display prom night memories. Betsy Belsha receives her award.

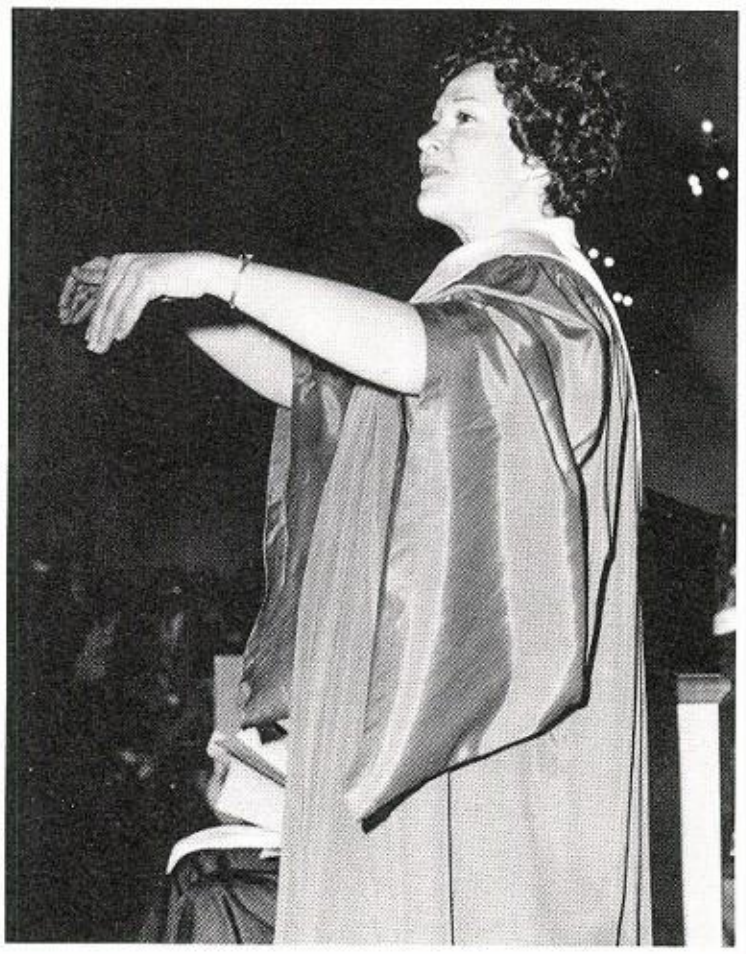


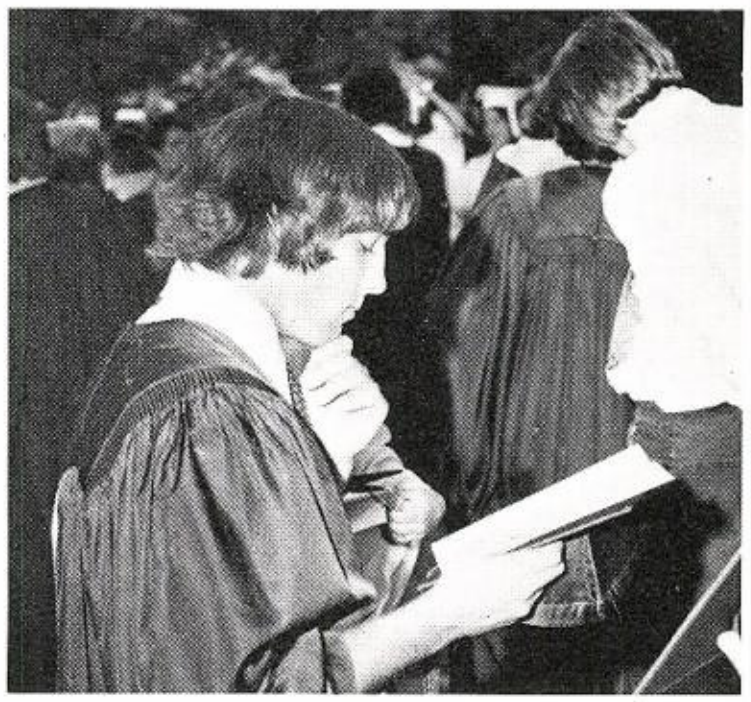


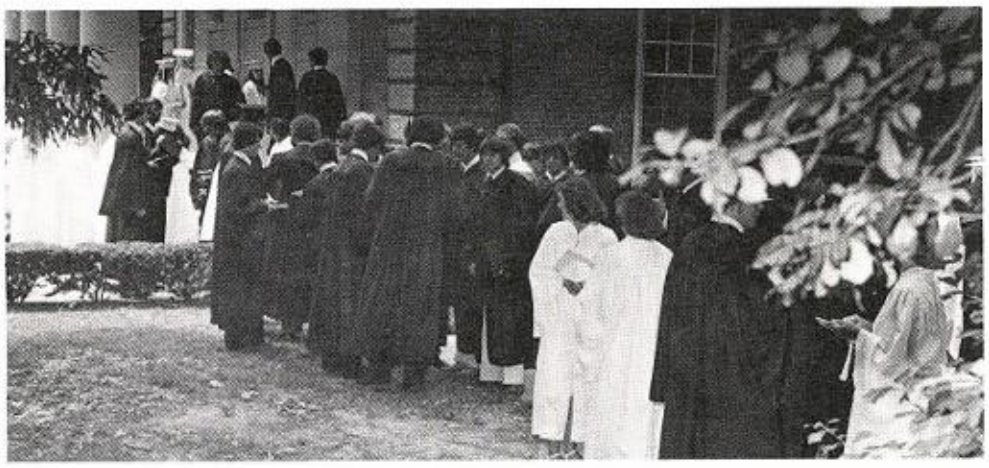
Thermometers and Thermostats

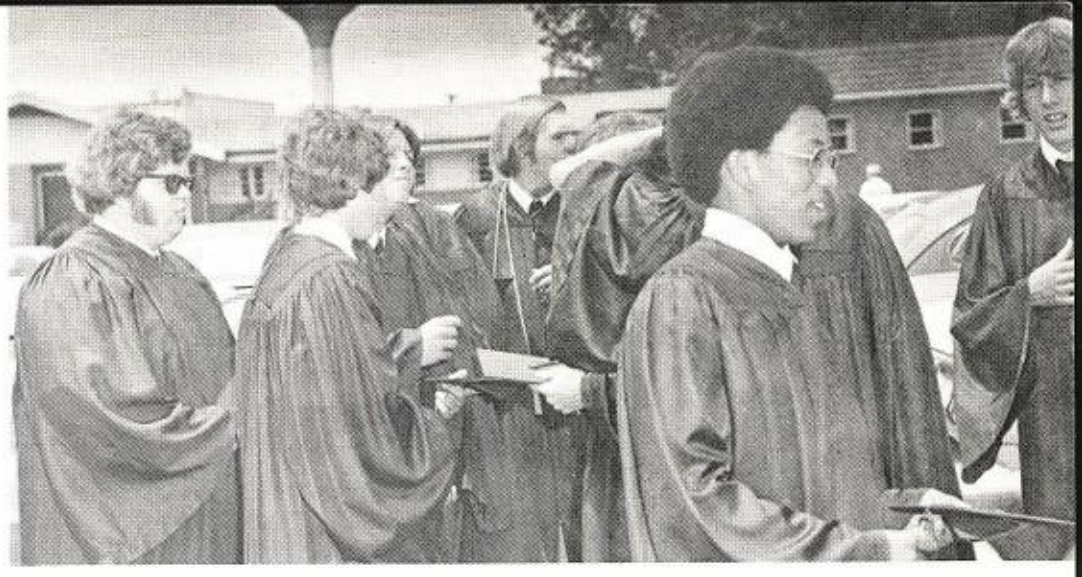
On June 5, a Baccalaureate service at Bon Air Baptist Church joined the seniors for the next to the last time. Seniors struggled to keep their caps on as they were honored to be the first to worship in the new sanctuary. Rev. Cochran greeted us warmly. Com. Paul Galanti gave a short but powerful speech. He emphasized the need to re-evaluate our lives and make new decisions. He also encouraged us to stop being "thermometers," changing with the crowd and begin to take control like a "thermostat." The choir enhanced an inspiring ceremony.

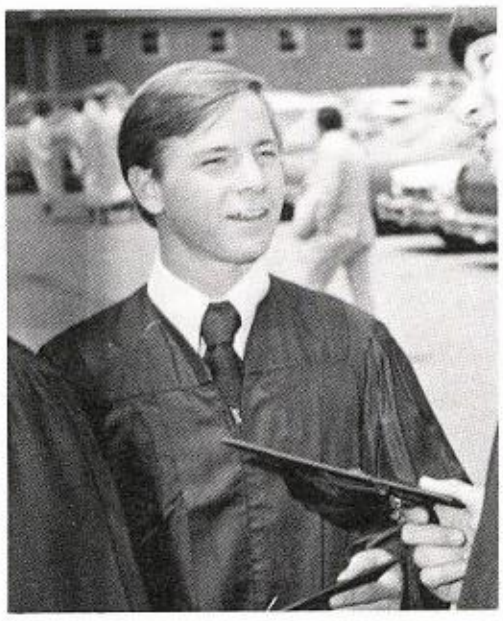


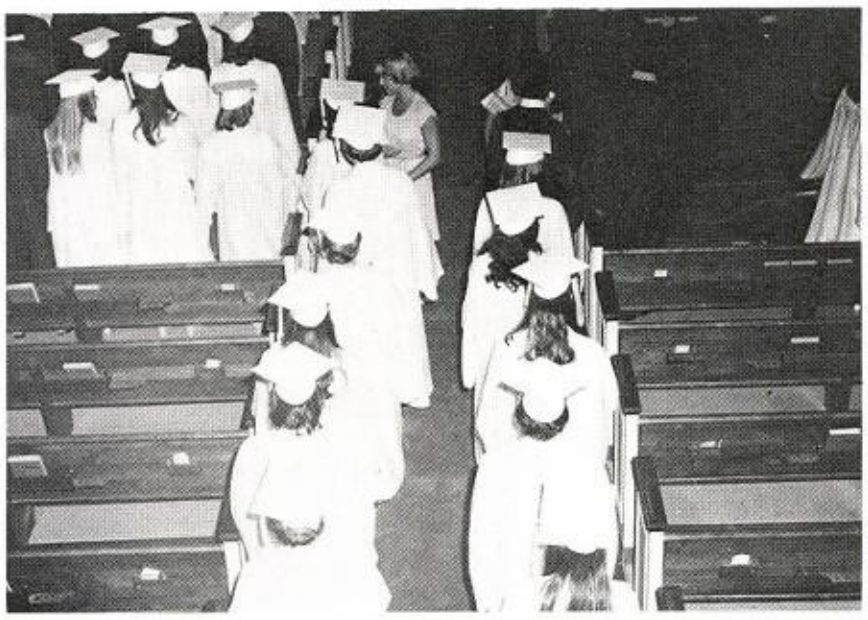


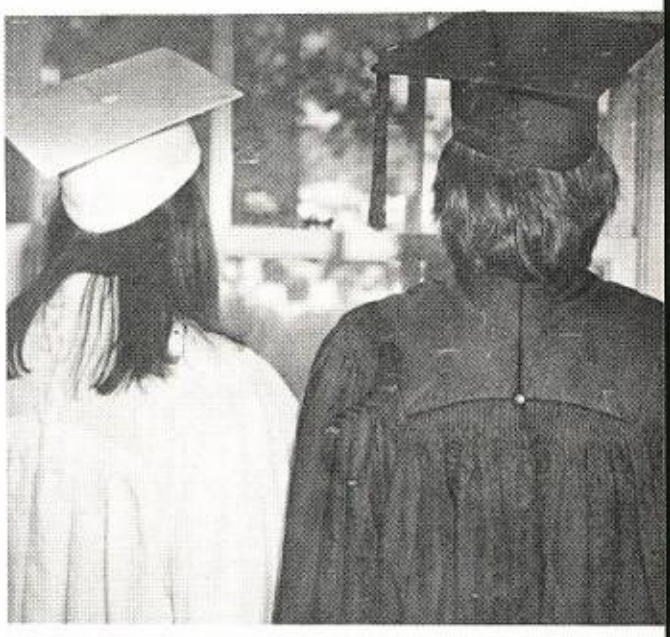


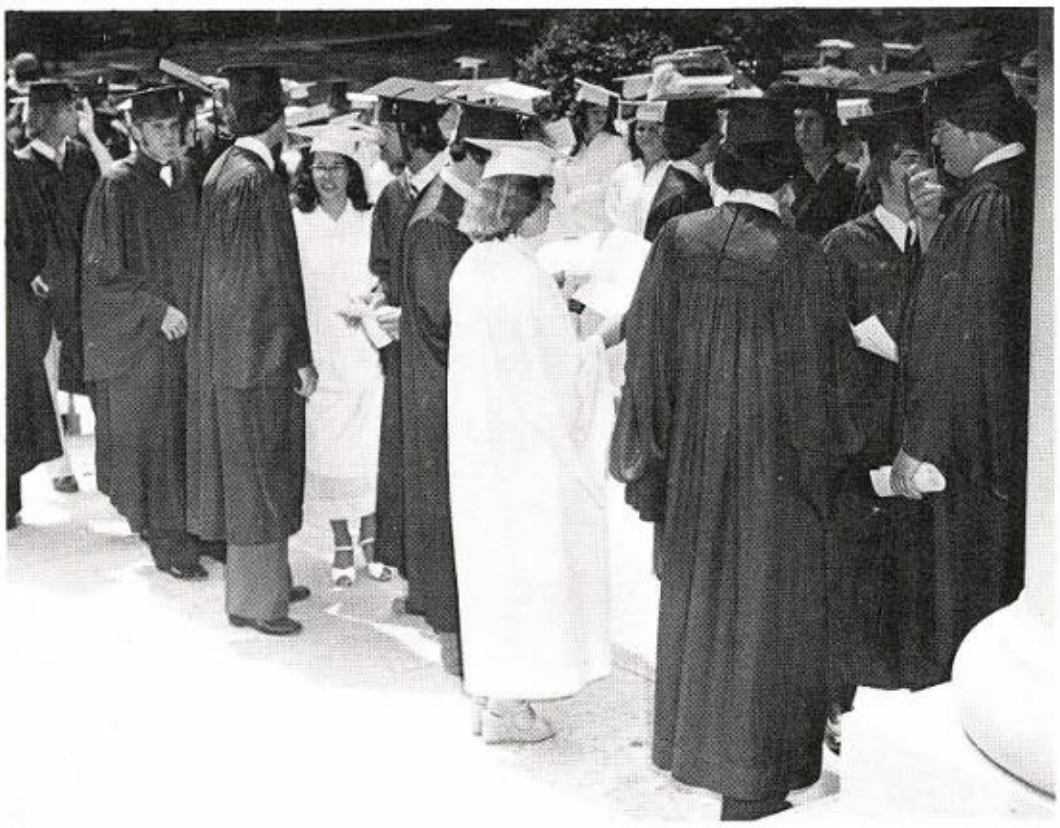


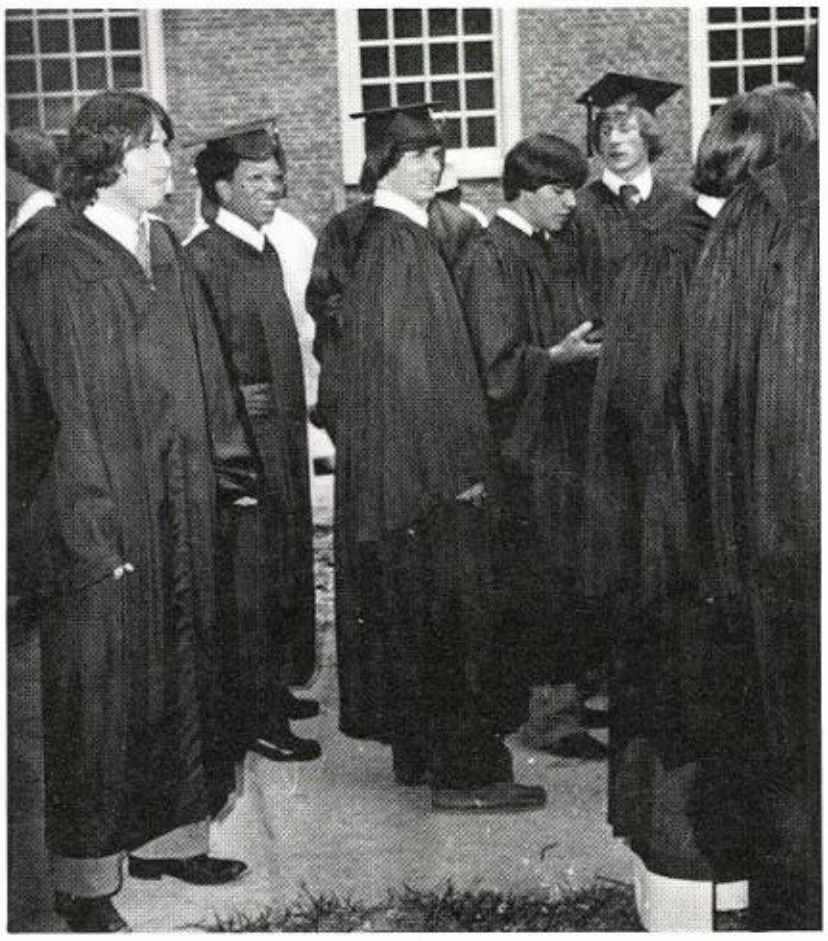


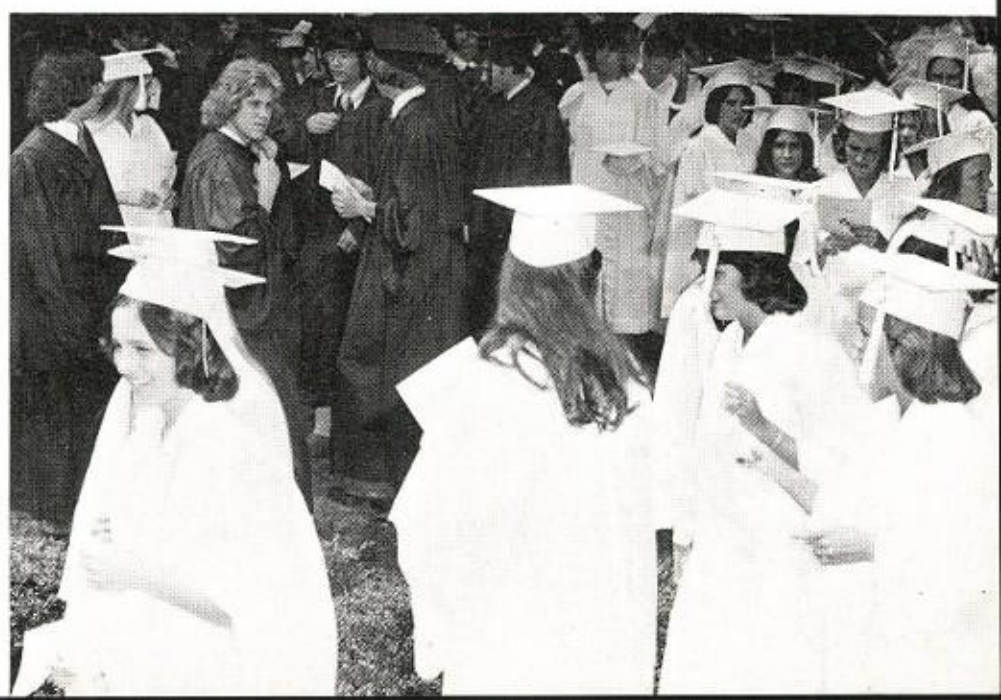








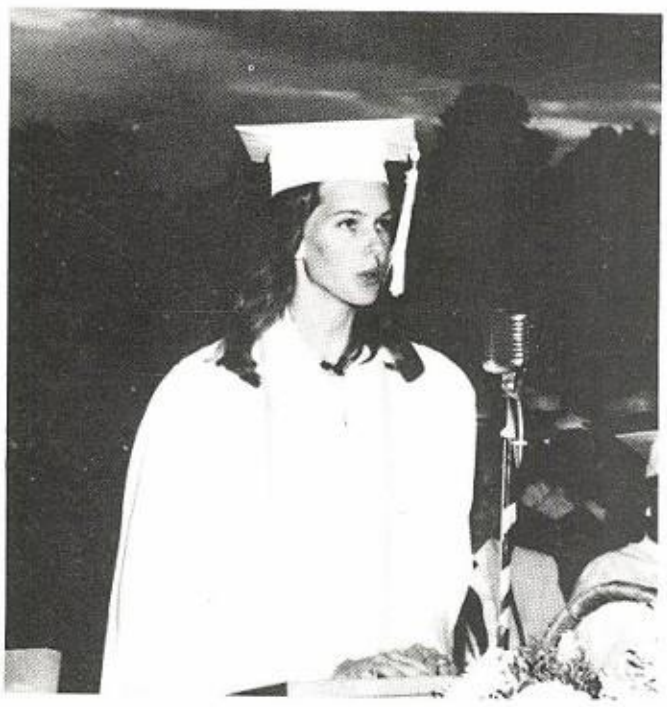




Seniors, Center Stage

Graduation on June ninth was met by morning showers and threatening skies. Luck was on our side though, and Graduation was held as scheduled.

As we lined up to march out on to the field, we realized that we had finally made it through twelve years of hard work, fun, and numerous ups and downs. The stands were filled with family and friends to wish us well and share our proud moments of graduation. Annual speeches were given by valedictorian Leslie Vernon and salutatorian Pam Mayo. After receiving our diplomas we rushed off to celebrate good times and our entrance into yet another world of education.



"Life is a journey, not a destination."

We are all part of the whole.

Sophomores Master Charades with Expressions

The faces of sophomores reveal many feelings and ideas. Tenth-graders cannot seem to hide anything—their expressions always give them away. An earnest face of a sophomore can make you believe almost anything. Maybe because you expect tenth-graders to do such strange things, anyway. If sophomores expressions could be packaged and sold, the least imaginative person would be able to master charades.

In Class

Certain classes, the most time-consuming portion of school, are taken by all sophomores. Driver's Ed is tolerable because it is the forerunner to driving on the open road. This class produces some of the most dangerous factors on the highway today. Biology is another typical tenth-grade experience where sophomores learn about the entire physical structure of frogs and how it is possible to produce a short, yellow pea plant using two tall, green plants.

To Come.

Sophomores breathed sighs of relief when their year as tenth graders was over. When they return next year, they will no longer be the little punks in the school. Expectant of the coming year, tenth graders will encounter many new things as juniors. Looking back on the past year, however, most sophomores will agree that it was at least somewhat worthwhile.

Every year two pages are devoted to the photographers for pictures they have taken and would like to appear in the yearbook, although they may not pertain to school. We would like to thank the five photographers; Larry Griggs, Paul Gresham, Danny Harvey, Tom LaManna, and A.J. Szumski, for all the time and effort they have put into the 1976-77 Trojan yearbook.

The 1977 Science Club led by their sponsors, Miss Olethia Winfield, once again sponsored the student-faculty softball game, which was exciting and humorous as usual. The Club also performed a very constructive job for Midlothian High School. They painted the ugly, dirty trashcans with a new coat of Trojan blue paint. Their job continues the many improvements which are being made at Midlothian.

With over 180 members in Midlothian's largest club, the Pep Club certainly did spread, not only in spirit but also in numbers. Led by Mrs. Martha Parker, the Pep Club was involved in it all: from baking cakes to painting signs to giving parties and even playing a little football. The Midlothain student body and faculty owe a lot to the Pep Club for everything they have done.

A Christmas party including entertainment by "Sing Out South" was given by the SCA to the Diagnostic Center, and the experience turned out to be a rewarding one. Trash cans were placed in the smoking area to help keep the school more attractive and cold water fountains were installed in the school for the student's pleasure. The annual Homecoming Dance and Parade were once again sponsored by the SCA and the "good ole" bookstore and Coke machine managed to hang in there.

The 1976-1977 Midlothian Choruses made up of the Treble Chorus, the Mixed Chorus, and the Mixed Choir, all led by Miss Rebecca Wright, were very successful in carrying out their "Universal Language". They presented two concerts, a Christmas Concert, and a Spring Concert. The three groups went to Festival where the Treble Chorus and the Mixed Choir received a superior rating, and the Mixed Chorus received an overall rating of excellent. Midlothian also sent representatives to All Regional and All State, and fifty percent of all the participants in this region that went to All State were from Midlothian. In conclusion, the Midlothian Choruses carried through their talent to the point of total success.

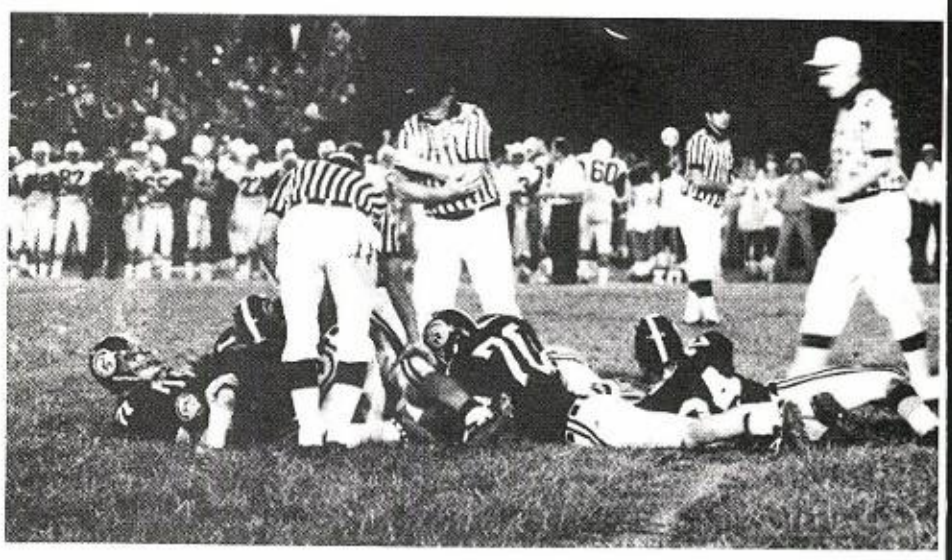
Young Trojans Prove Good

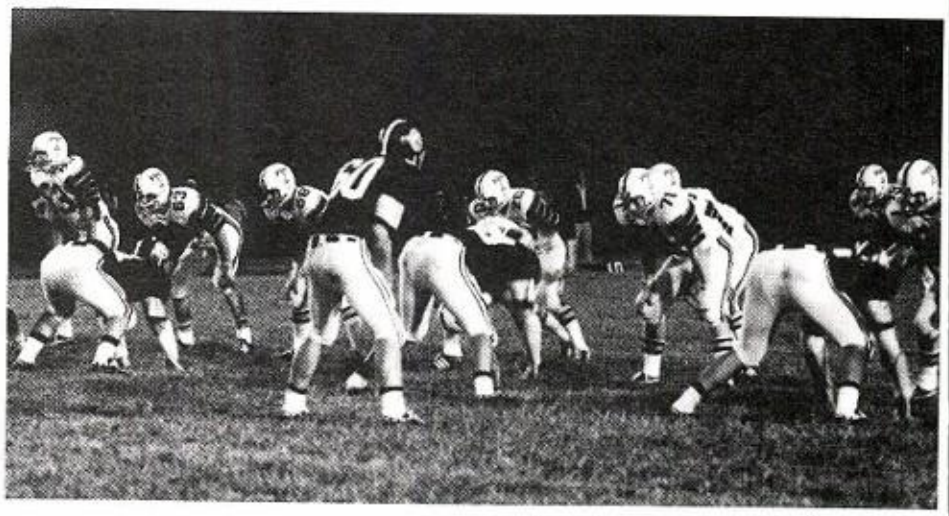
Midlothian's football team proved better than expected. Having lost almost the whole line last year, the replacements had their work cut out for them.

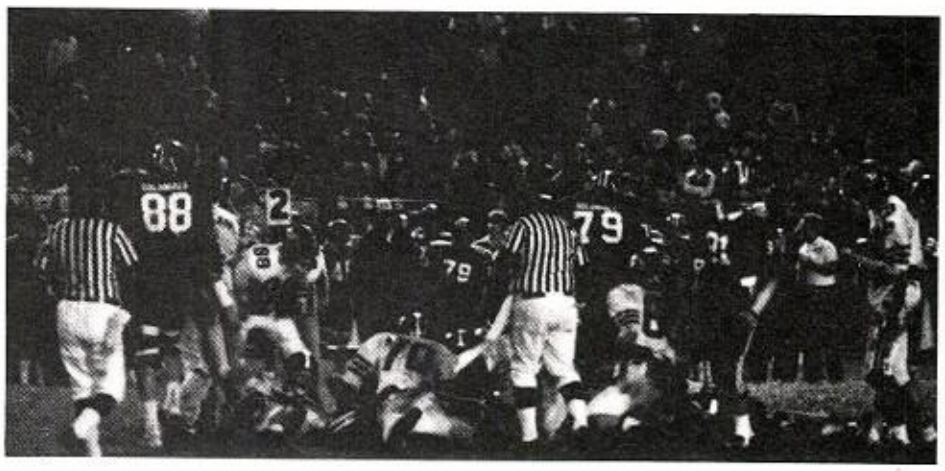
Their season started off slowly when they were defeated by J.R. Tucker on September 3. The next week, however, they went to Thomas Dale and came home winners. Their confidence was somewhat restored. On September 17, they went to Matoaca and came back with their second win in a row. The Hopewell game was a good one. The Trojans worked and were rewarded with the game. Their next three games were crucial. Colonial Heights defeated them; the next week they laid down for Meadowbrook. Petersburg was next. They really got up for the game. The ball went back and forth, but a bad break gave the Waves those extra points. They weren't beat, and they played great ball; but they lost in the end. This was the most disappointing lost of the season. Clarence Draper, a new and unexperienced running back for Midlothian, was the key to the game. He outran every Petersburg man, proving himself the fastest on the field. Their last three games, Manchester, Prince George, and Dinwiddie, came easily and they ended up with a 6-4 record.

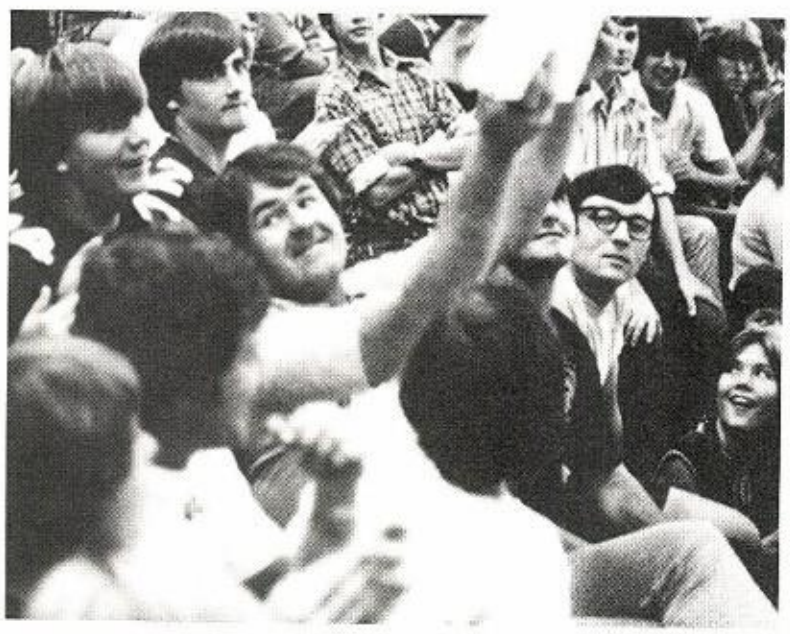
This was only a small part of the season, but the Trojans have earned a name. They had their second winning season since entering the AAA, and everyone knows the Trojans are around.

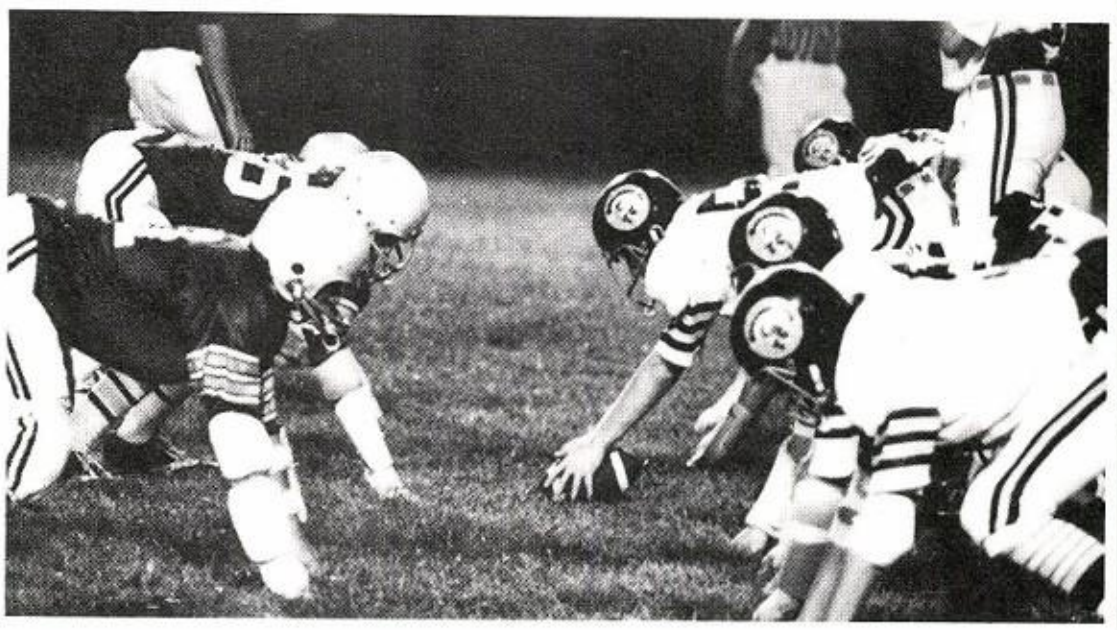
Clockwise: Every Trojan gets his man. The Trojans anxiously await the snap. Hey! What happened? Trojan linemen prepare for the attack. Look guys! Too bad it's all for me.

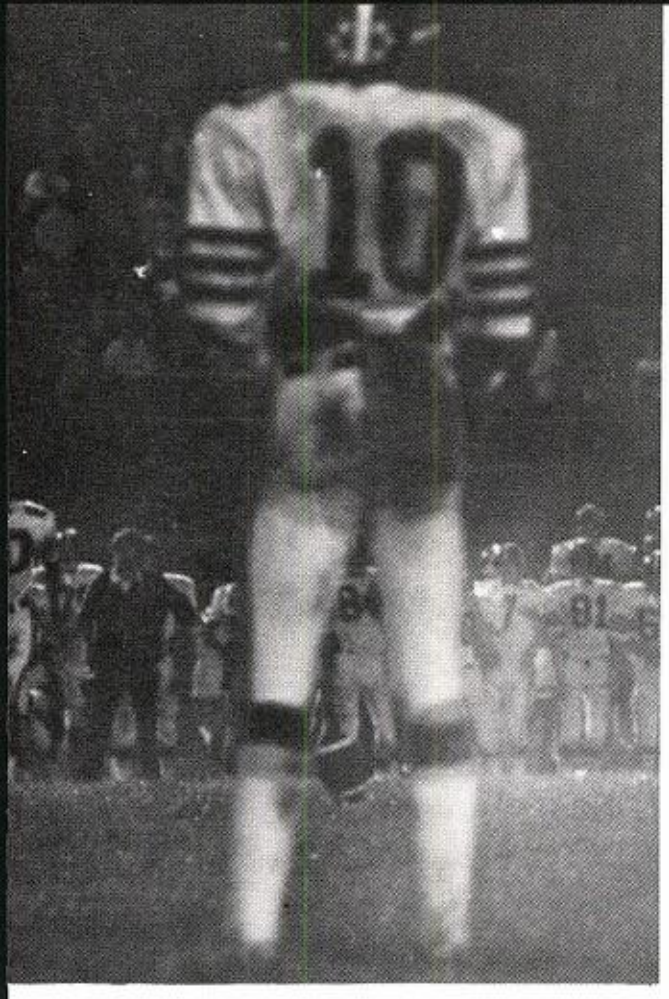




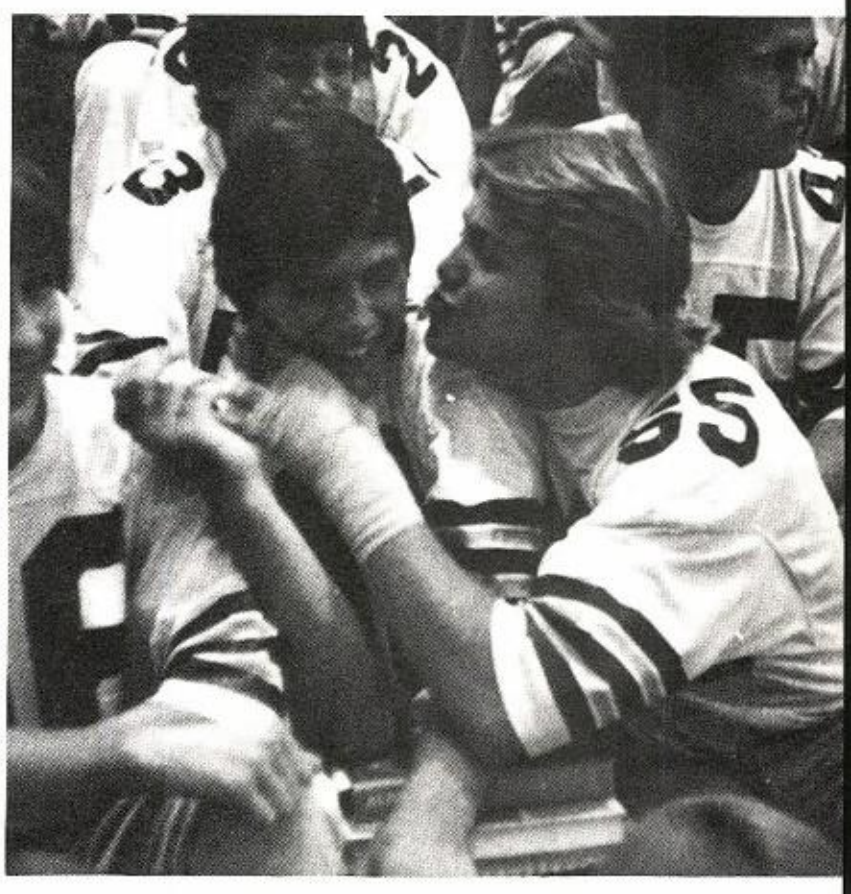


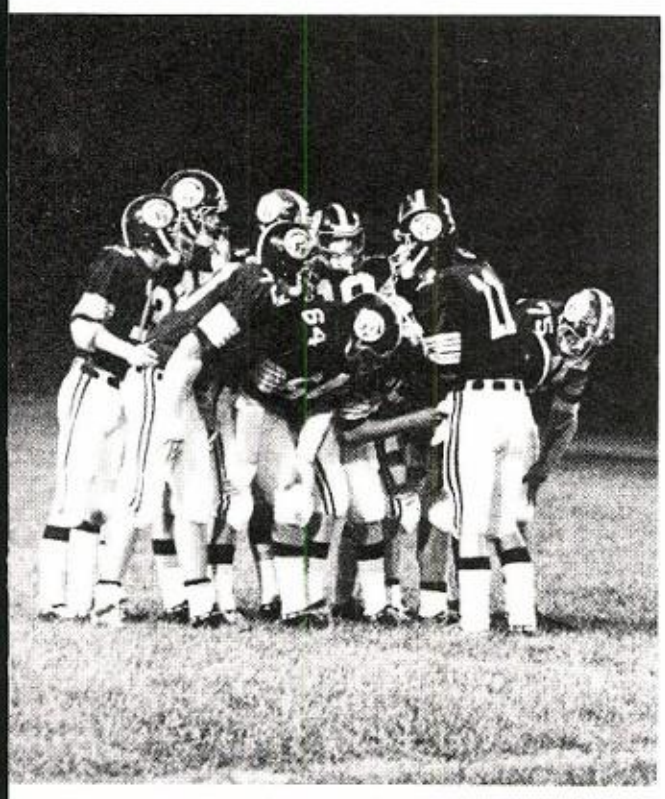


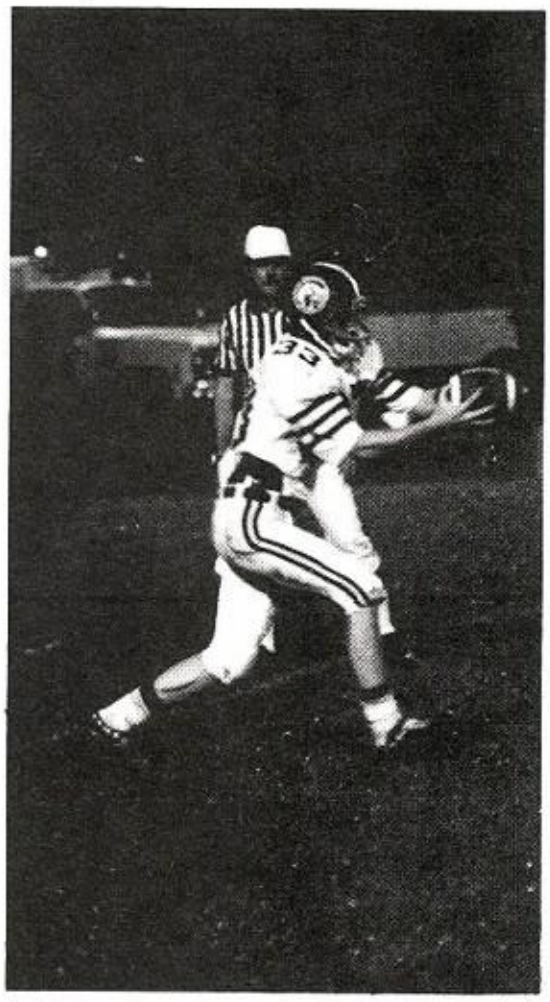


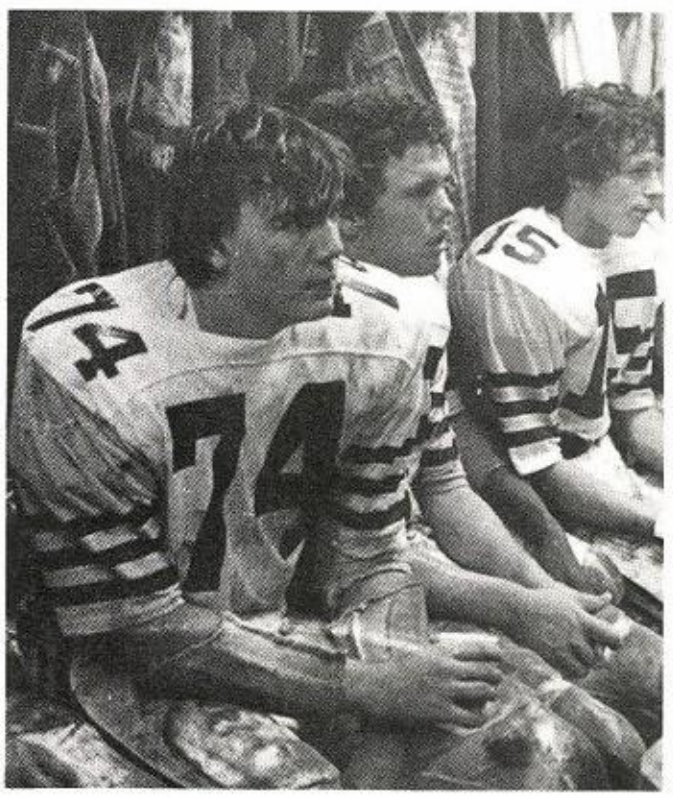


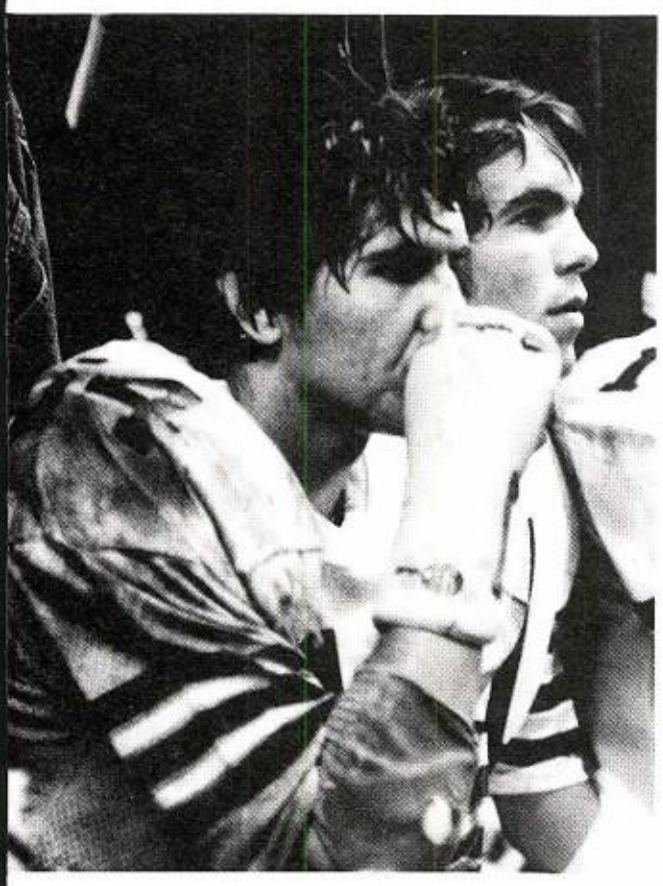
Clockwise, beginning below: Coulter James is up to punt. Football always brings people closer together. Halftimes is a very crucial time for the Trojans. Kevin Sharp seems very popular. "I thought the ball was over there," says Coach Hicks. Some come out of the game clean, but others come out like Stuart Waggoner. Bobby Wingfield tells the offense the next play. Getting dirty always looks good.

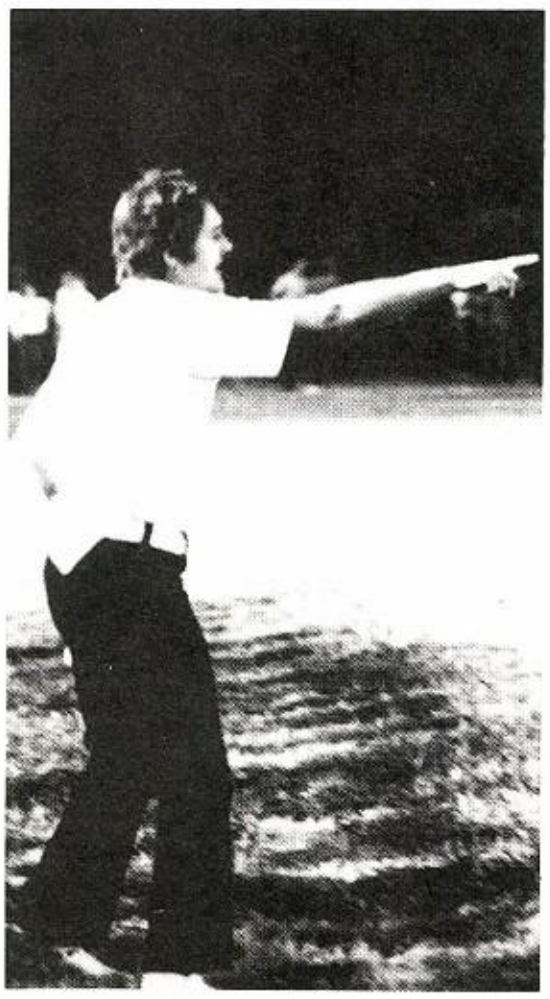


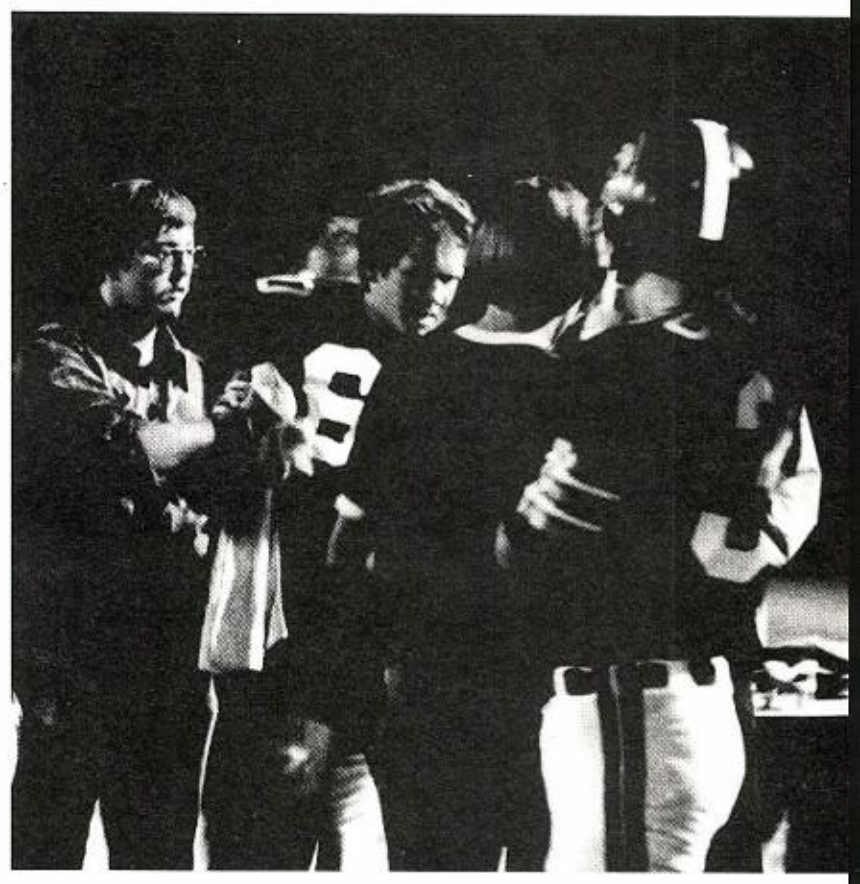












Trojans are Still Winners

Despite cold weather or rain, the Trojan fans still came out to support the winning 1976 Football team. The team used to have little confidence in themselves, but the past two years have changed everyone, including the team's mind. They know they can win, and do.

Clockwise, beginning at left: Drink up, halftime is almost over. Co-captain Reid Critelli Watches his team perform. Sam Gordon seems to be shaken up on the play.

Trojan J.V.'s Unbeatable

The J.V. Trojans are still on top. They were 6-0 this year, increasing their winning streak to 11. The spirit they have will benefit the Varsity 100% next year. They have determination, confidence, and most of all a reason to win. With two undefeated seasons in a row, Midlothian's Varsity football team will be the one to watch next year.

Clockwise, beginning below: The Trojan defense is out to kill. Scott Wauters enters the field after a brief rest. Nicki Cuicci is a very happy manager. Fighting for the ball is what it's all about. Weegie Thompson falls to the ground with a little help. One more win to add to the list.

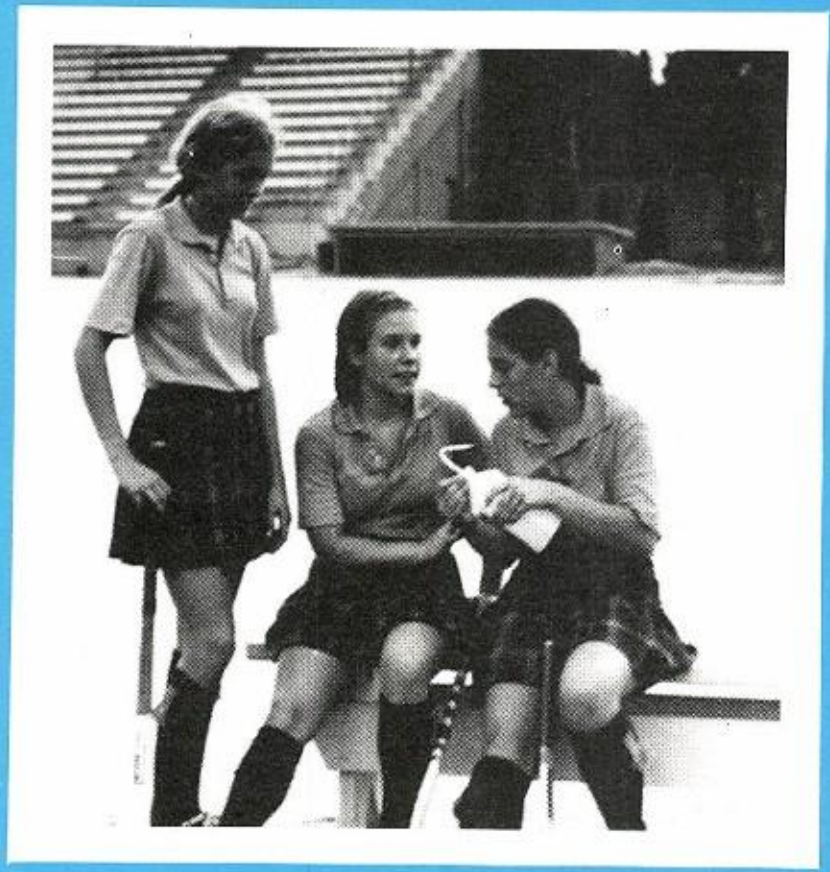
Clockwise, beginning above: Well at least he's down. Pat Sowder has all the moves. Pat Manuel observes from the sideline. "Really! I'm not mad," says Coach Lester. "Where do I go next?" asks Weegie Thompson.



Hockey Reaches Goal

The 1976 Hockey team enjoyed repeated success this year. The team was undefeated as well as unscored upon. They captured the district championship with good team work and spirit. In addition to having a great season, they also placed ten players on the Allied Tournament All-star team. The returning players are looking forward to following this year's fine example.

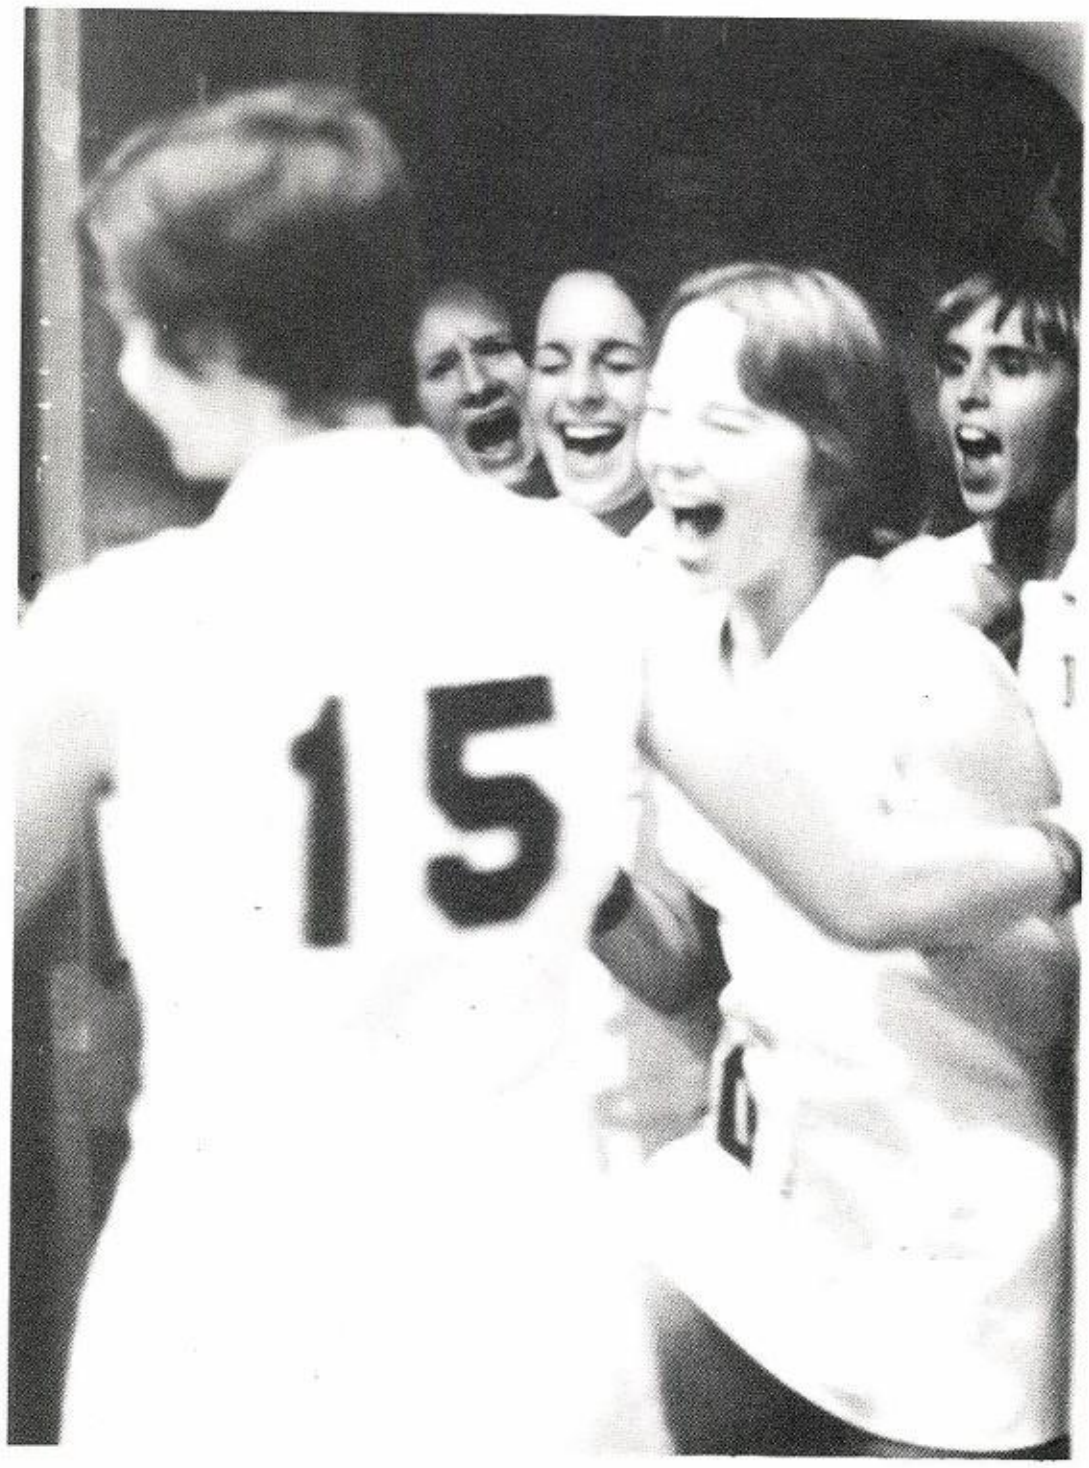
Individuals— Yet a Team

Once again the Lady Trojans, headed by Coach Owen, had an impressive season. Despite the loss of four starters last year, the Trojans overcame inexperience and proved to be a tough, competitive team. Unity, good coaching and spirit helped the Trojans to the District seasonal trophy. The Trojans compiled an outstanding record of 15-4 for 1976, also placing two players, Kelly Watkins and Susan Foster, on All-star teams. The Trojans also set a precedent by forming a Senior game. The five seniors were presented with flowers, and started on the last home seasonal game.

All in all it was a funfilled, satisfying season which the players will long remember.



Top right: The Lady Trojans demonstrate the enthusiasm that they carried throughout the season.

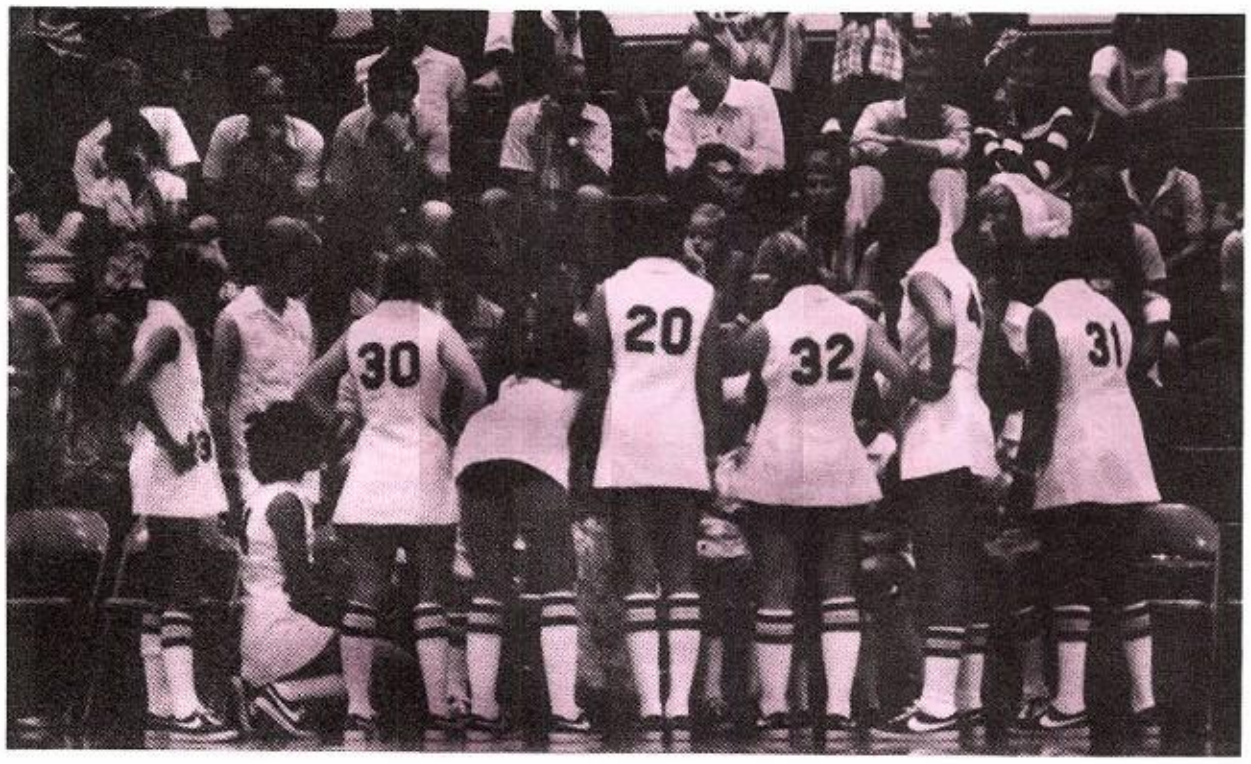
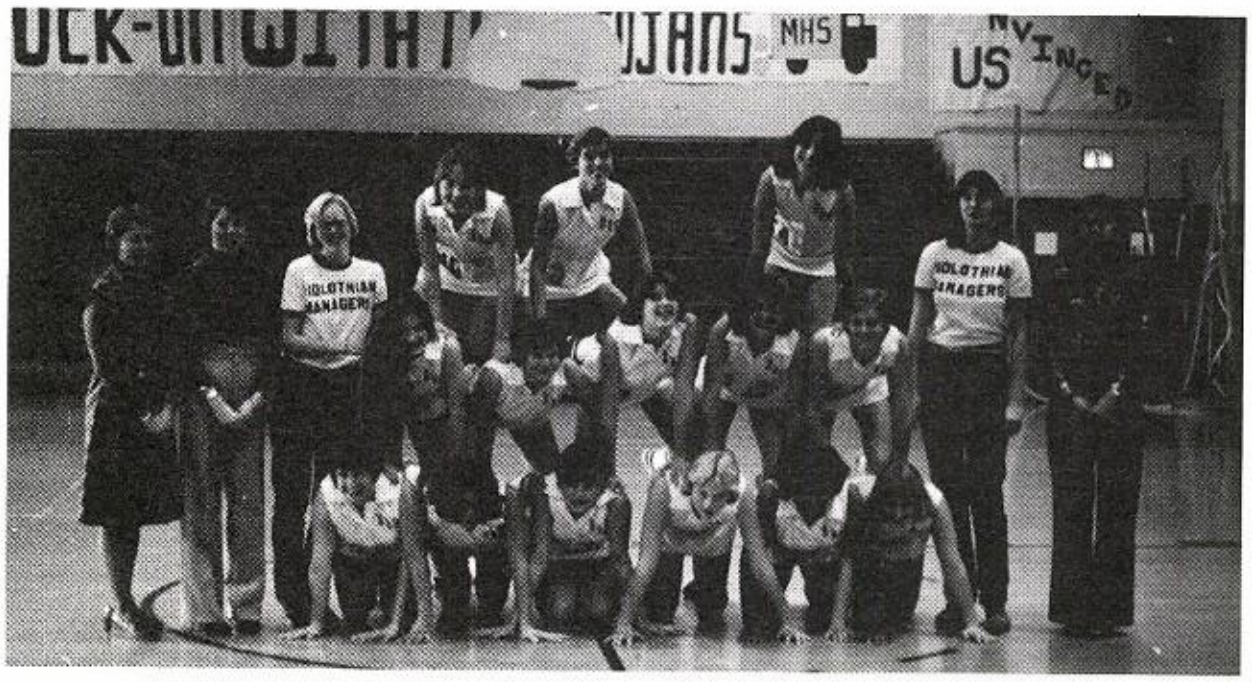
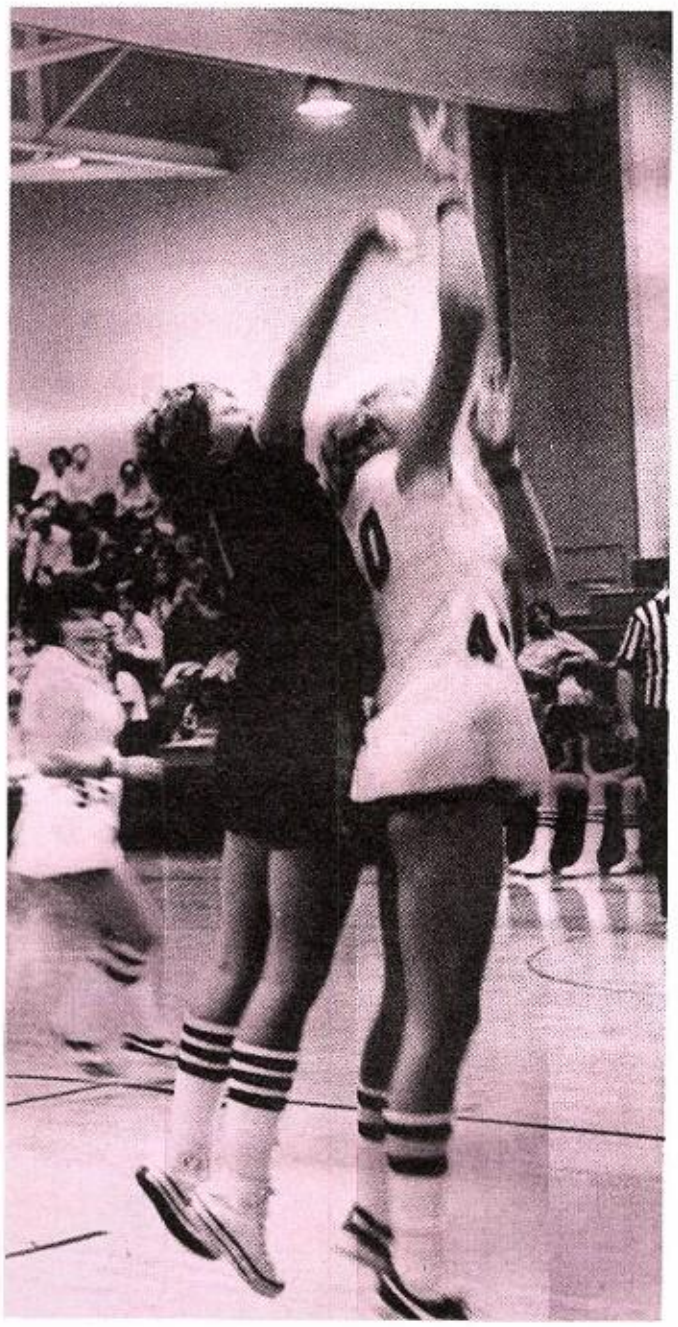
Clockwise, from top left: Time out for a little gossip. Kim Cobbs says, "I may be small, but I'm tough." Miss Owen keeps up with the on-court action. Jessica Nierle tells Mary Gallini to check out the guy in the third row. Kelly Watkins shoots for two. Lucille Romanello reaches for the sky. Jessica Nierle catches up to the pack.

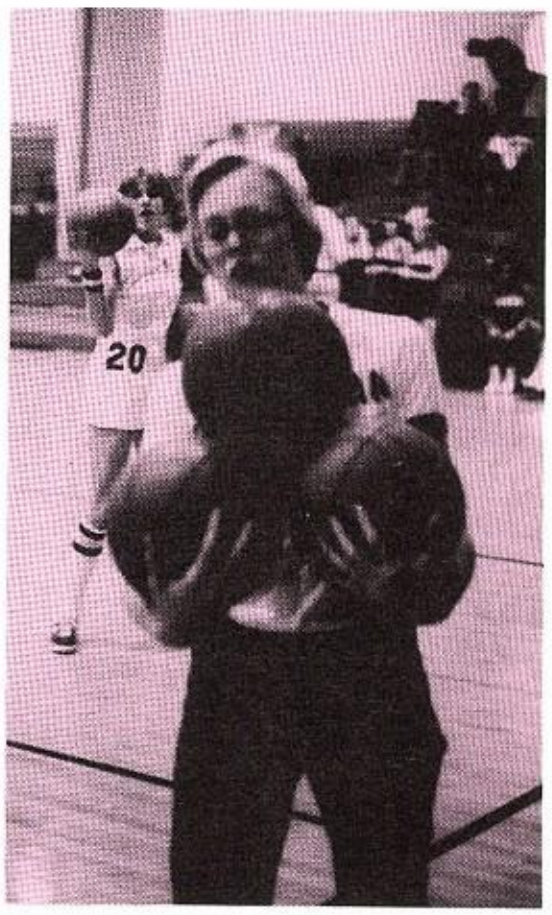
Getting It Together

The Lady Trojans enjoyed an exciting season full of high points. As the season progressed, the team grew closer. They shared victory as well as defeat. The team was not only composed of good friends, but also 'two all-beef forwards, special coach, cheerleaders, and the fastest guards on a sesame-seed court.'

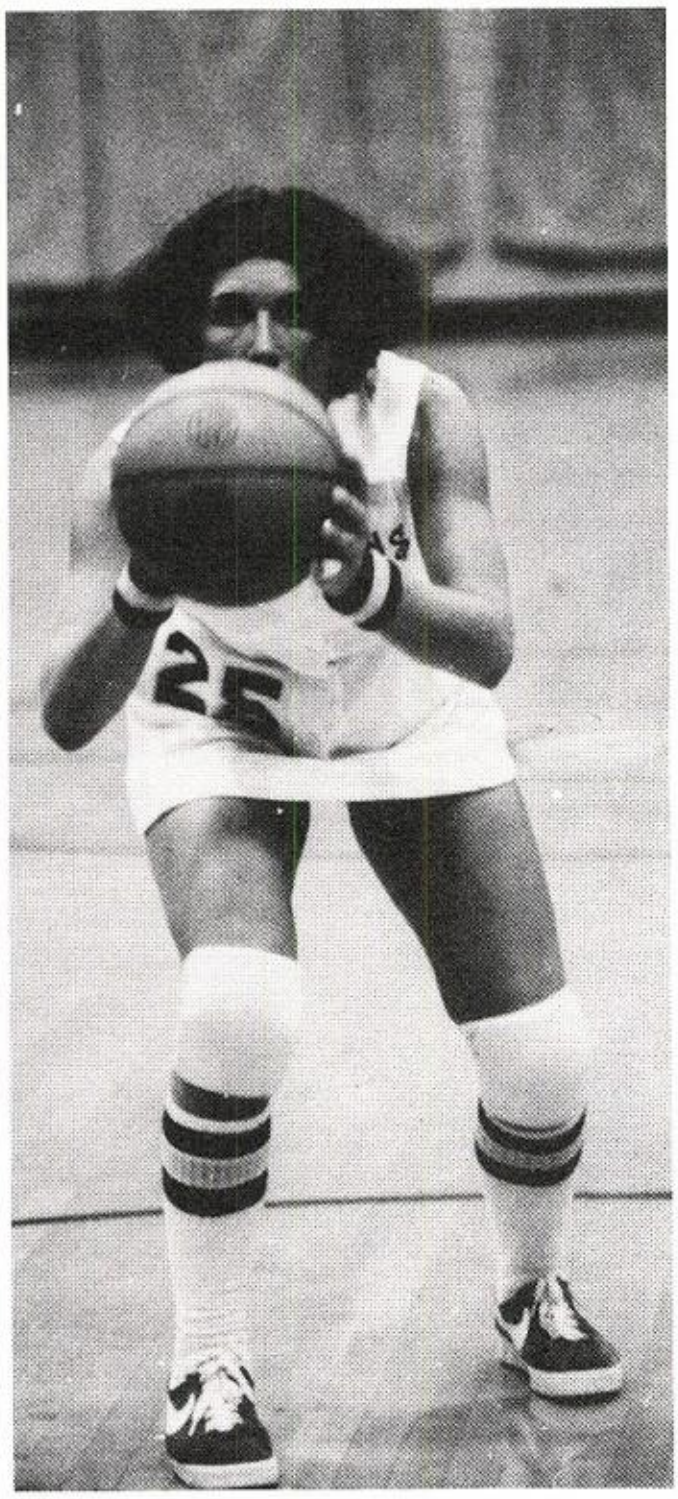


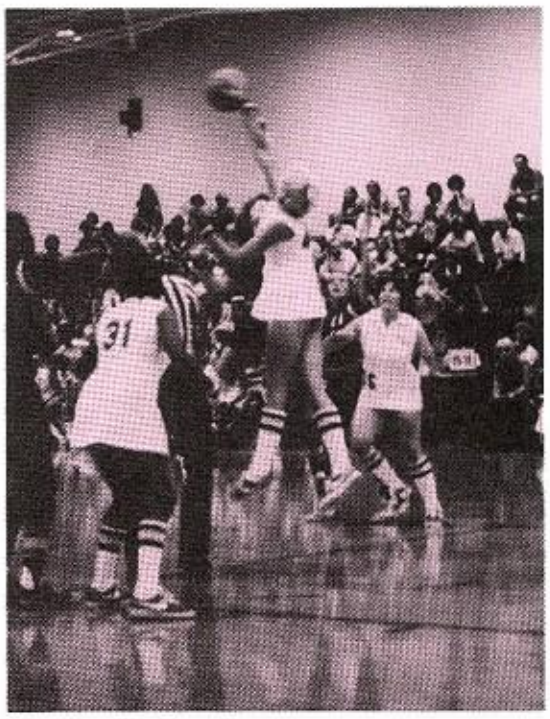


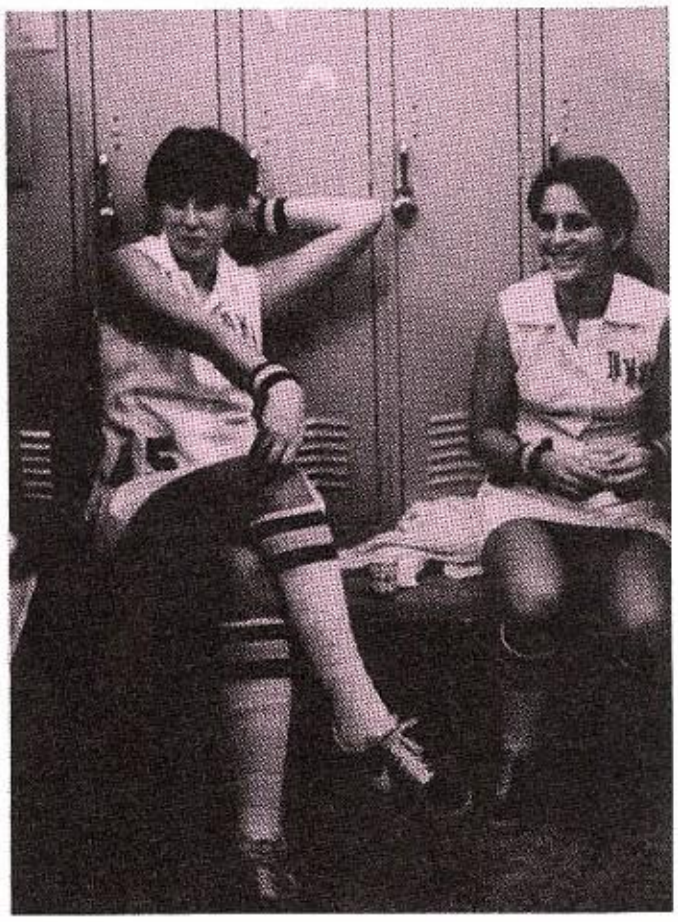


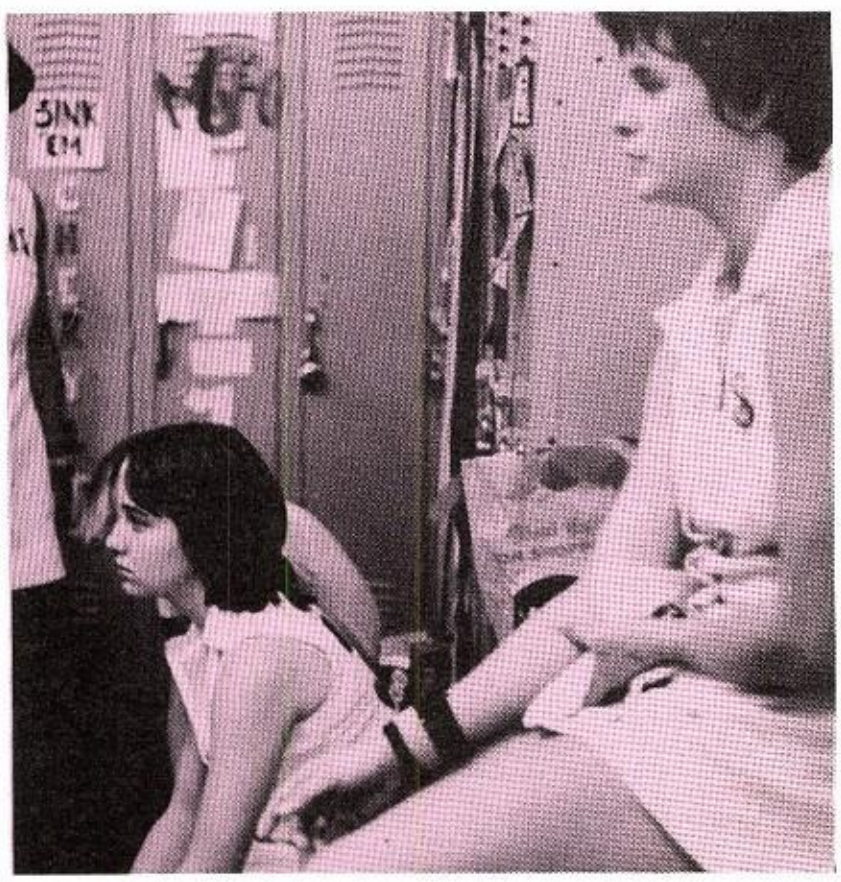


Clockwise, from top right: The team listens for the last pregame advice. The $10,000 Pyramid. Mindy Merrel's balancing act. Susan Foster and Shelia York hold a nail-biting convention. Susan Foster pays no attention to her opponent.









Clockwise, top right to center: Cheryl Kellam aims for a basket. Jessica Nierle explains why she shot at the wrong basket. Susan Foster gets the jump on her opponent. Susan Foster stealing the ball from Brenda Dintiman? The team gives itself a hand. Kelly Watkins and Kim Cobbs listen to stats at halftime. Lucille Romanello poses for another shot.

Trojans Retain Regional Title

After losing three of their top runners near the start of the season, the Midlothian Cross Country Team came back to retain the District and Regional titles for the third consecutive year.

The Trojans were 9-1 in dual meets, losing only to St. Christophers in a non-District meet. This extended their District dual meet winning streak to 30-8. The Trojans continued to do well at the Virginia Tech and Georgetown Invitationals, finishing second and third respectively.

Winter Track Remains Excellent

Above: John Phipps clears nineteen feet. Below: Norman Guenther leads the pack.

After narrowly winning the Indoor Regional Meet last year, the Trojans showed consistency by placing a close second this year. Had it not been for a couple of the outstanding athletes missing the meet, the Trojans could well have retained the Regional title; However, with a strong spring team the Trojans could capture the Outdoor Regional Title.

Trojans Control District

The Trojans ended their 1976-77 season with an 18-5 record. They won the regular season District title which gave them a bid in the Central Regional Tournament. Although they were defeated by Henrico, the Trojans gave a super performance. Not having Tim Carr, who was sick, they were determined not to give up, and didn't.

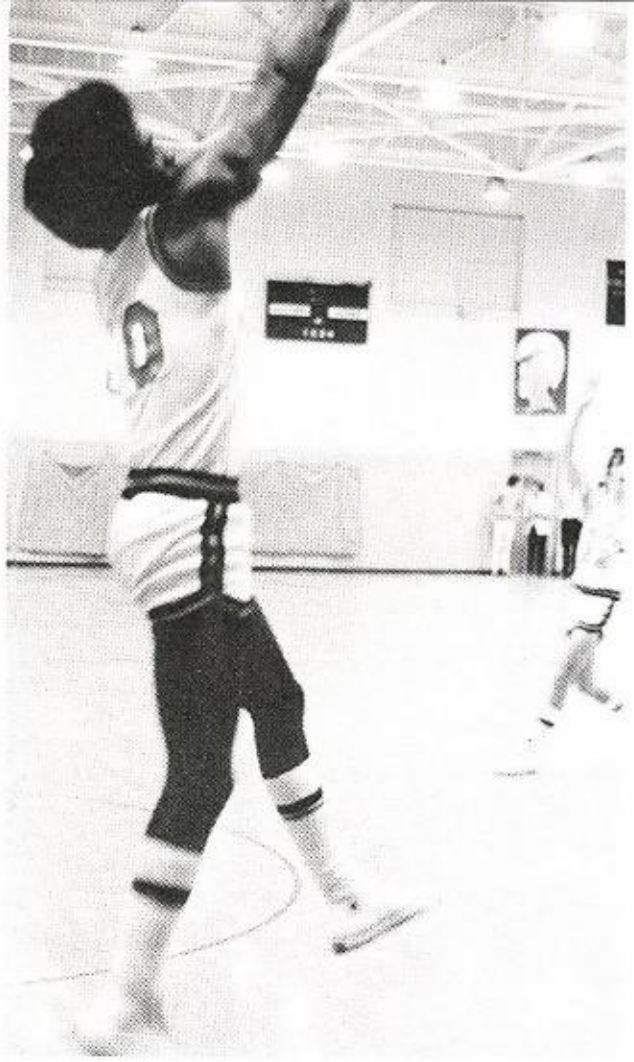
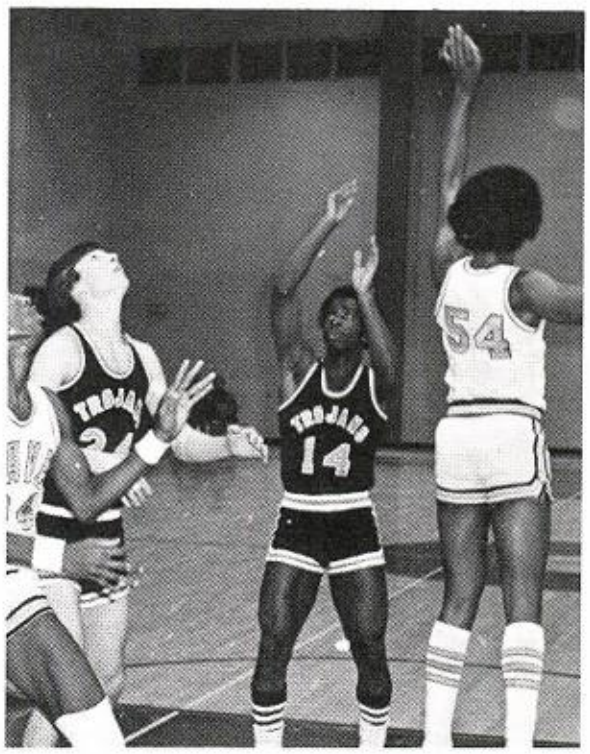
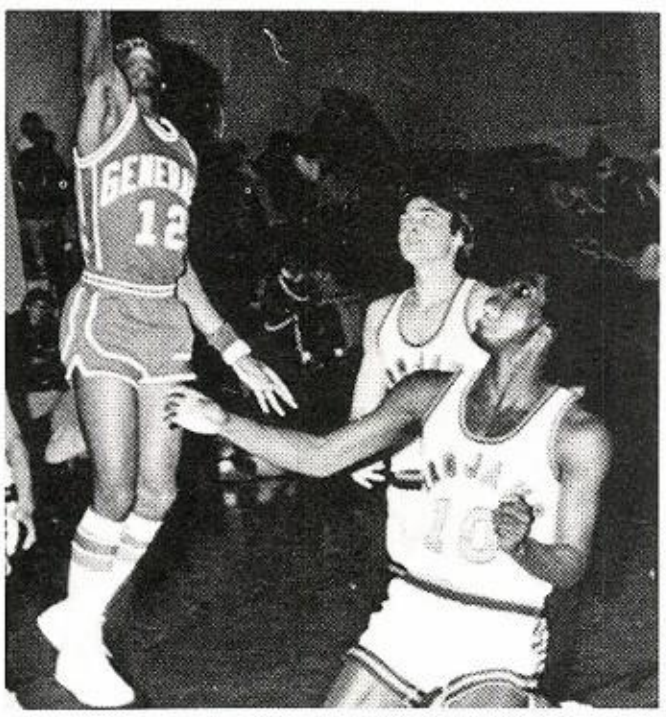
Tom Pedlow takes a layup on a fast break. Bobby Wingfield really stays with his man. Tim Carr has all the moves. Clarence Draper is up with a jump shot.

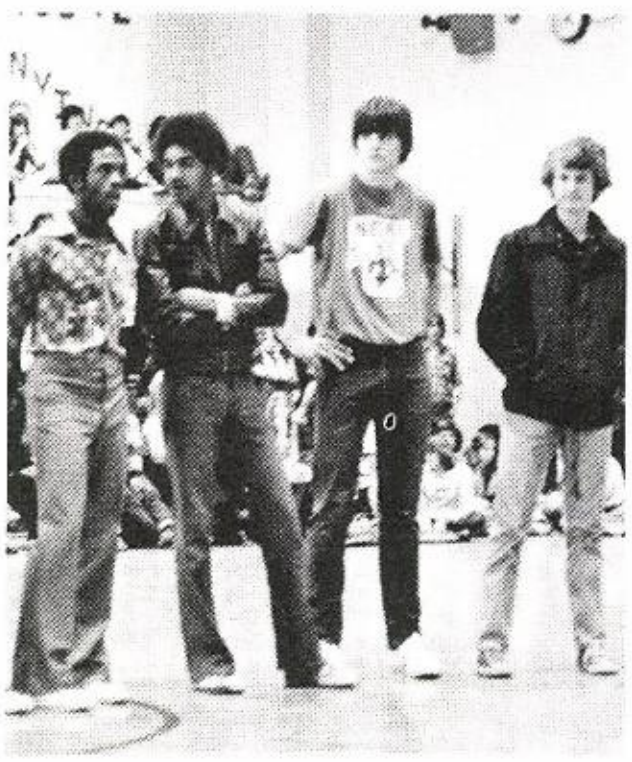
Varsity #1

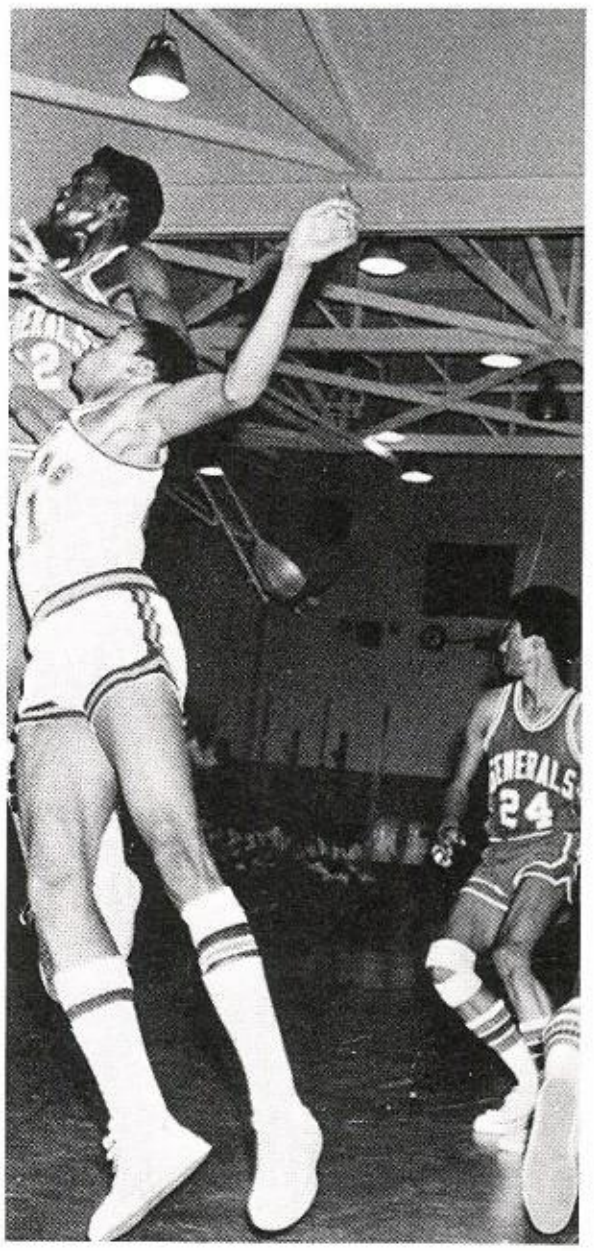
The Varsity Basketball team did an extremely good job this year. They accomplished many of their goals from years before by beating Hopewell once, 66-47, and Petersburg twice, 76-68 and 66-64. Having all five starters back from last year gave them the depth and experience they needed to go to the top of the District, where they've never been in the AAA. This year's team added school spirit and filled the gym for many games.

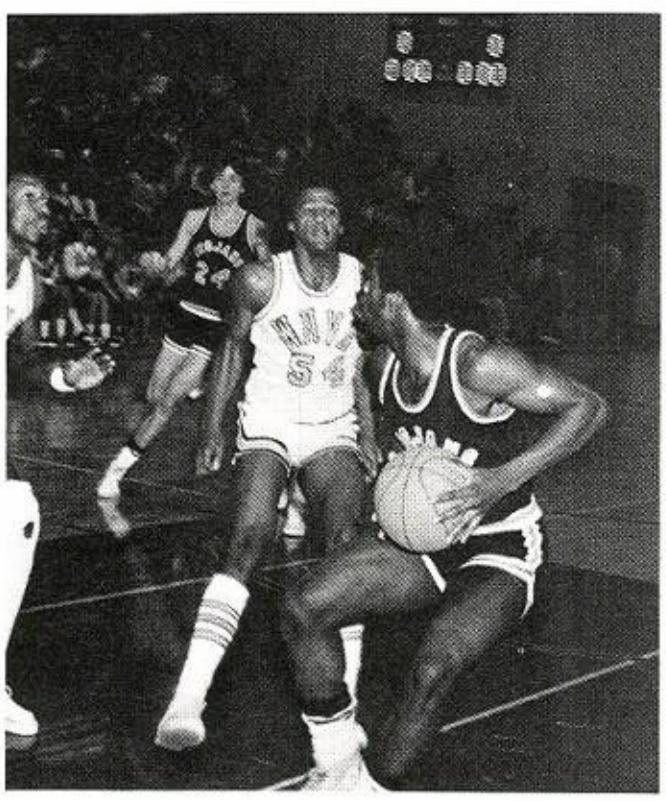


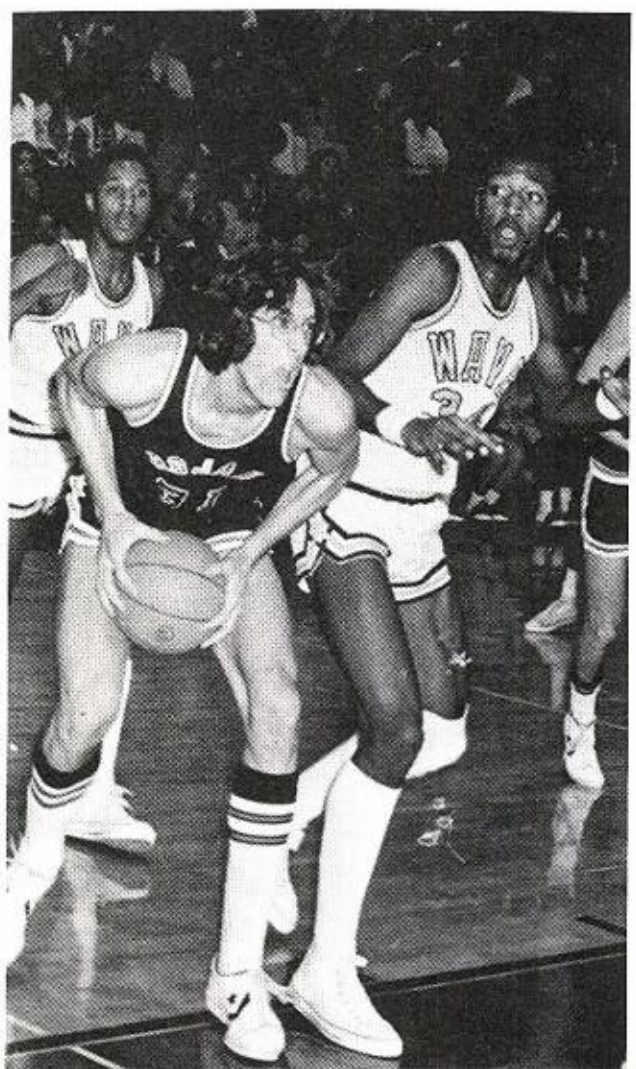




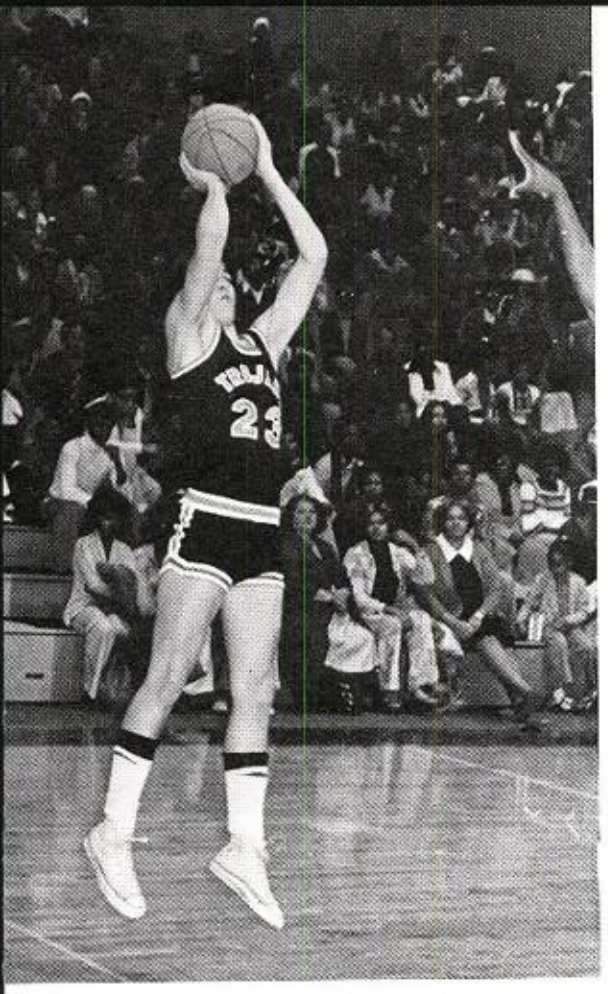


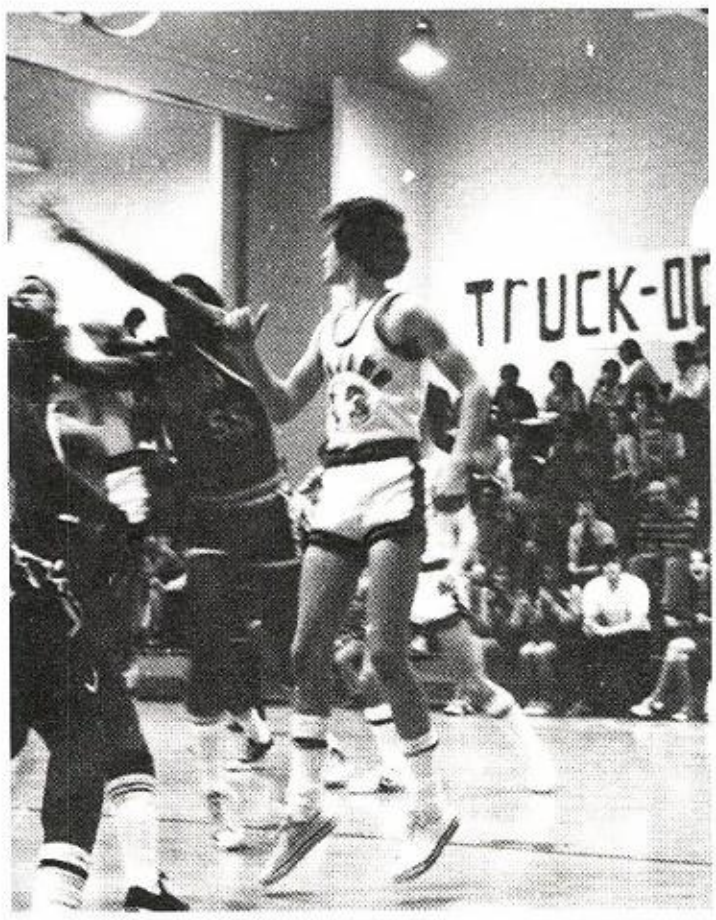


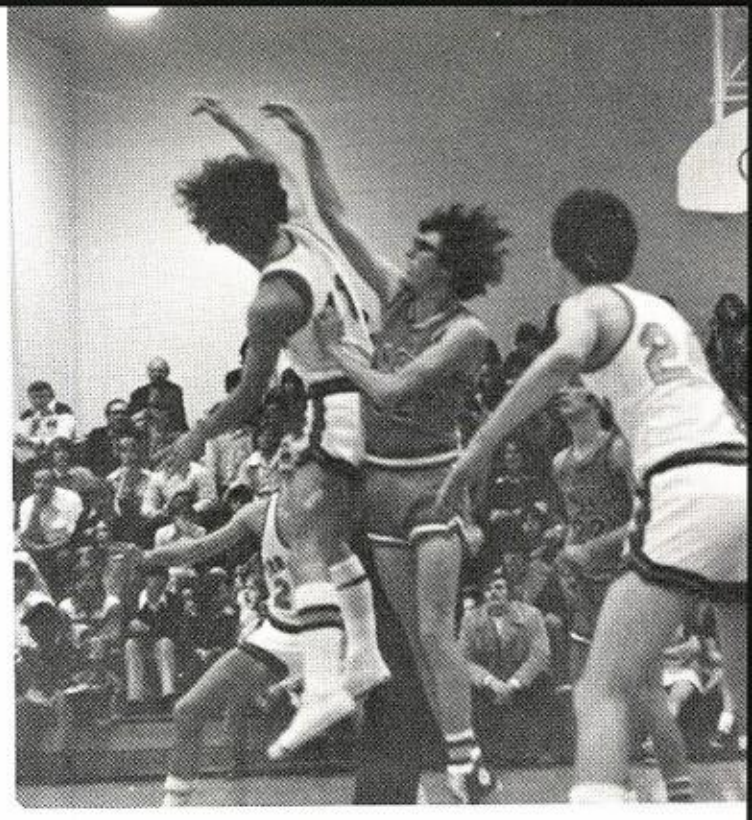


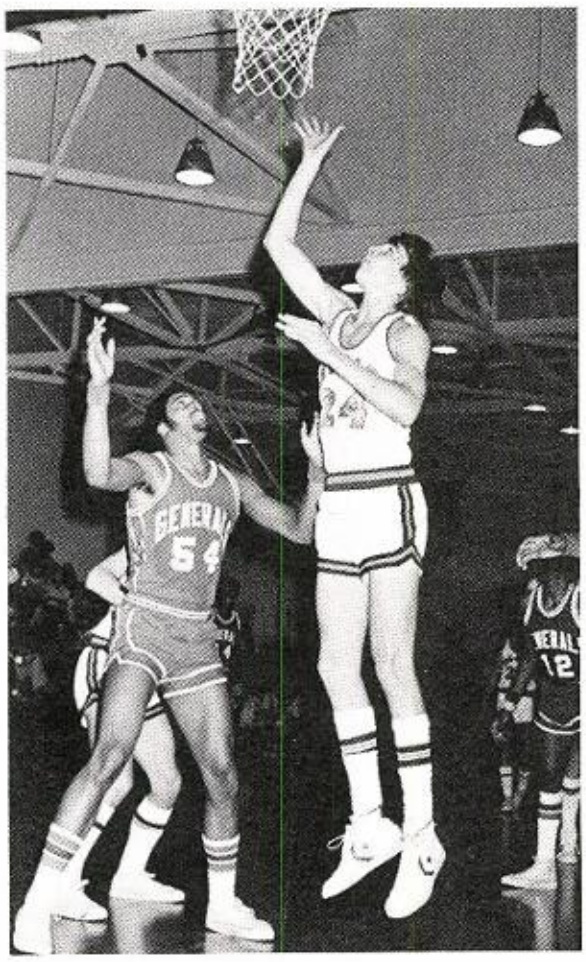


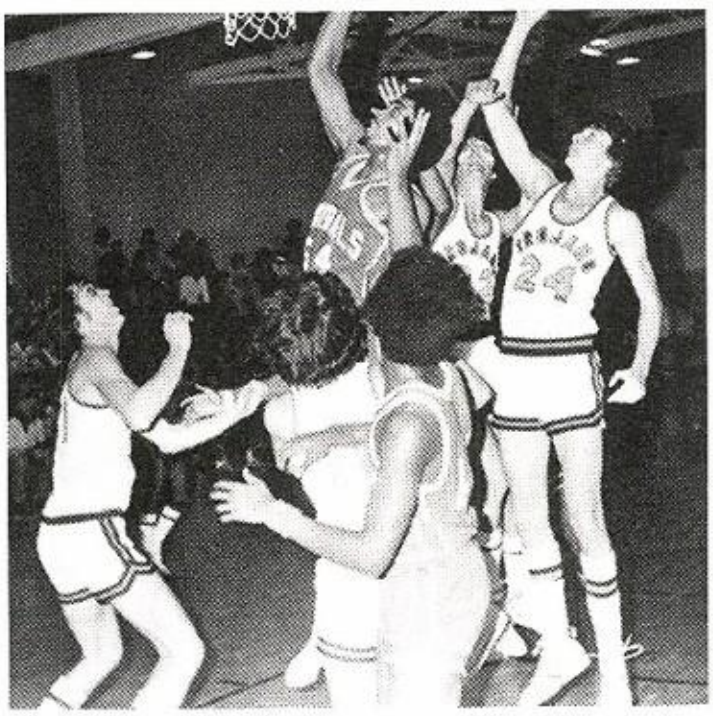
Clockwise, starting left: Clarence Draper gets in the game. Tim Carr calls the play. Tommy Royer watches the play through his nose guard. Ronnie Graham and Danny Schmidt get into the pep rallies. Wayne Draper raises the score. Clarence Draper goes to the foul line. Jerry Middleton follows the ball.

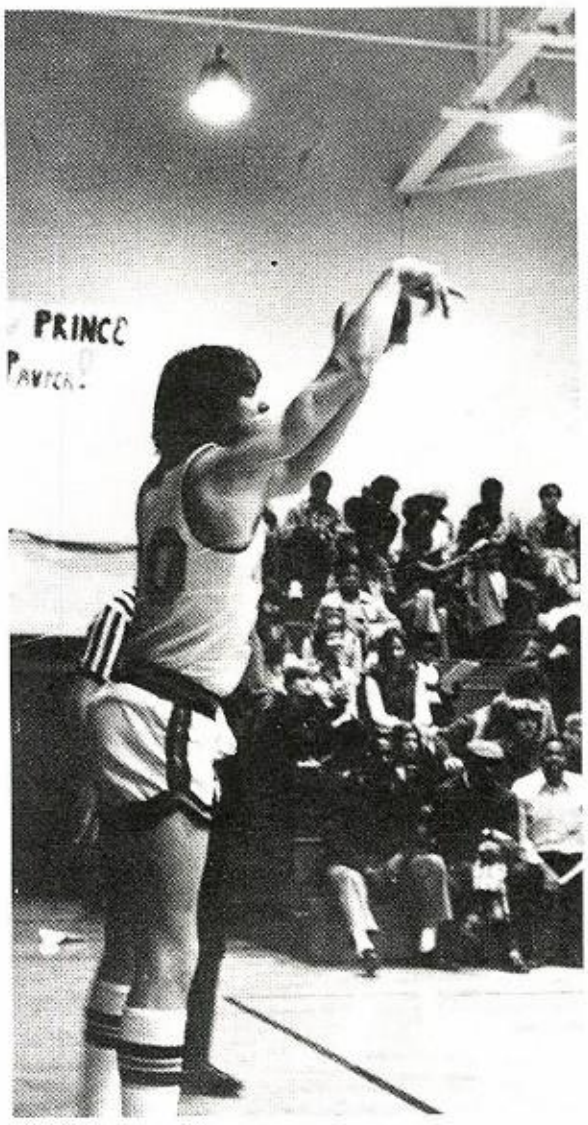


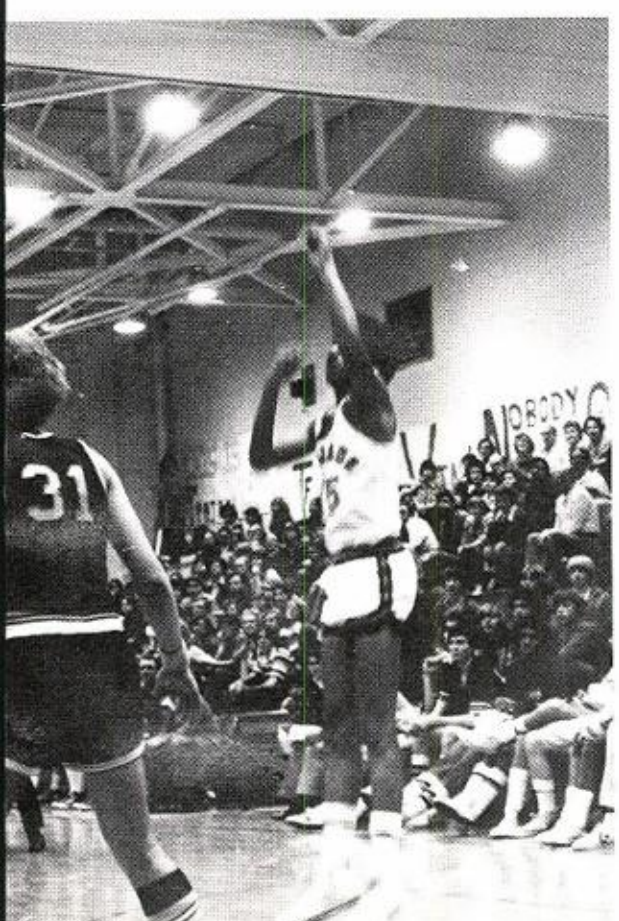


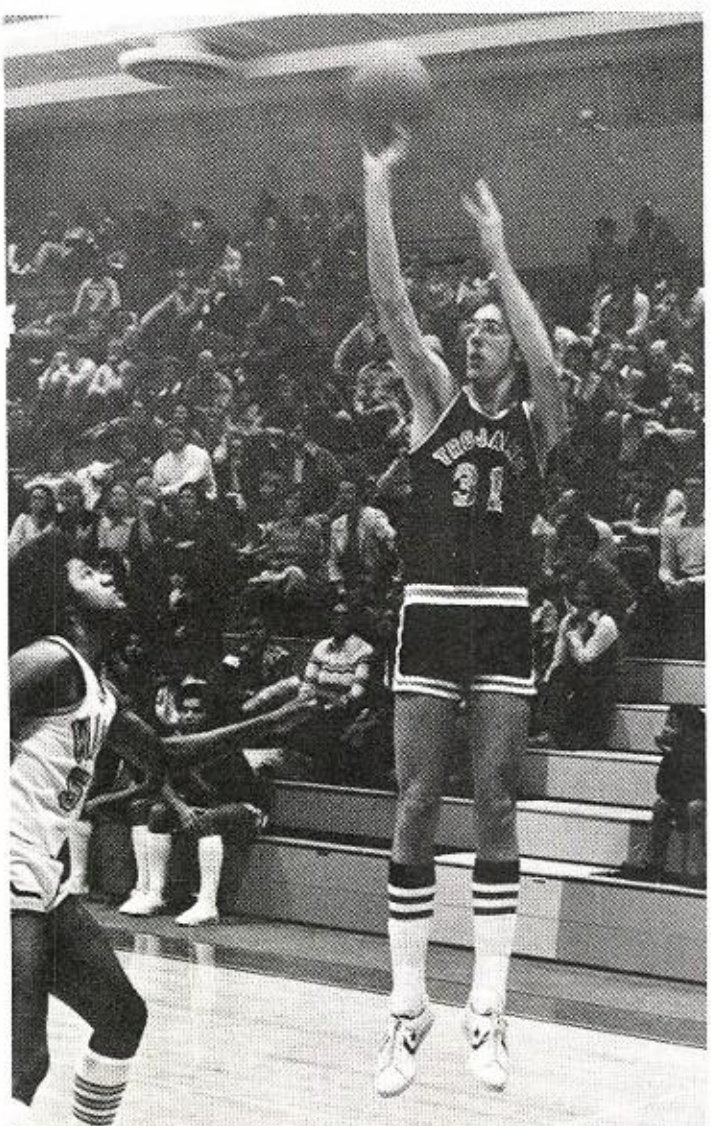




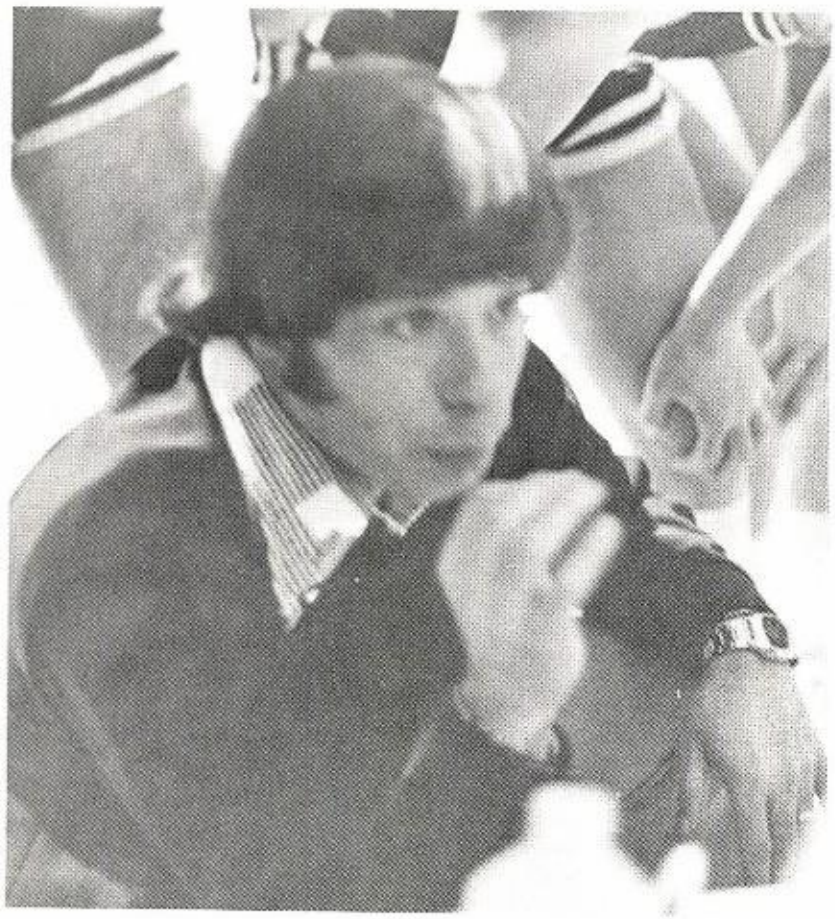








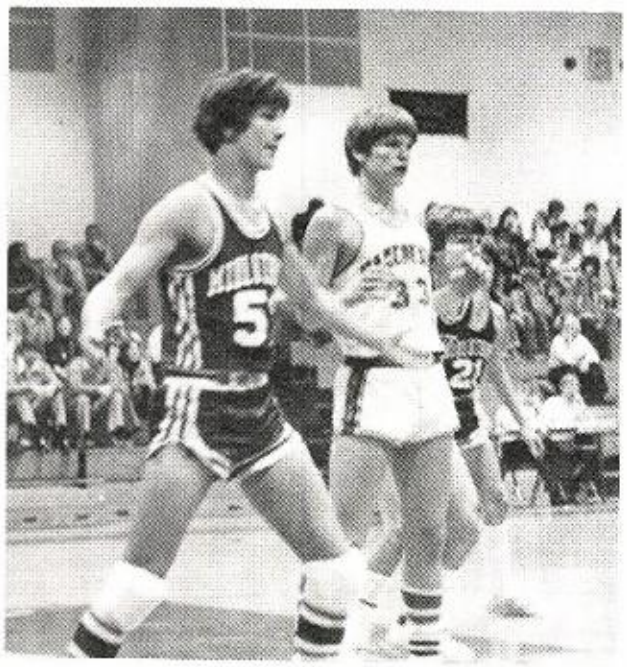
Clockwise, starting center: Scott Rugar reaches for the ball. Neil Shingleton gets up. Bobby Wingfield gets the jump. Mike Cannaday puts the ball in play. Tim Carr puts up the ball for two. Ronnie Graham shoots two from the outside. Scott Rugar gets the rebound. Tom Pedlow fires for two.

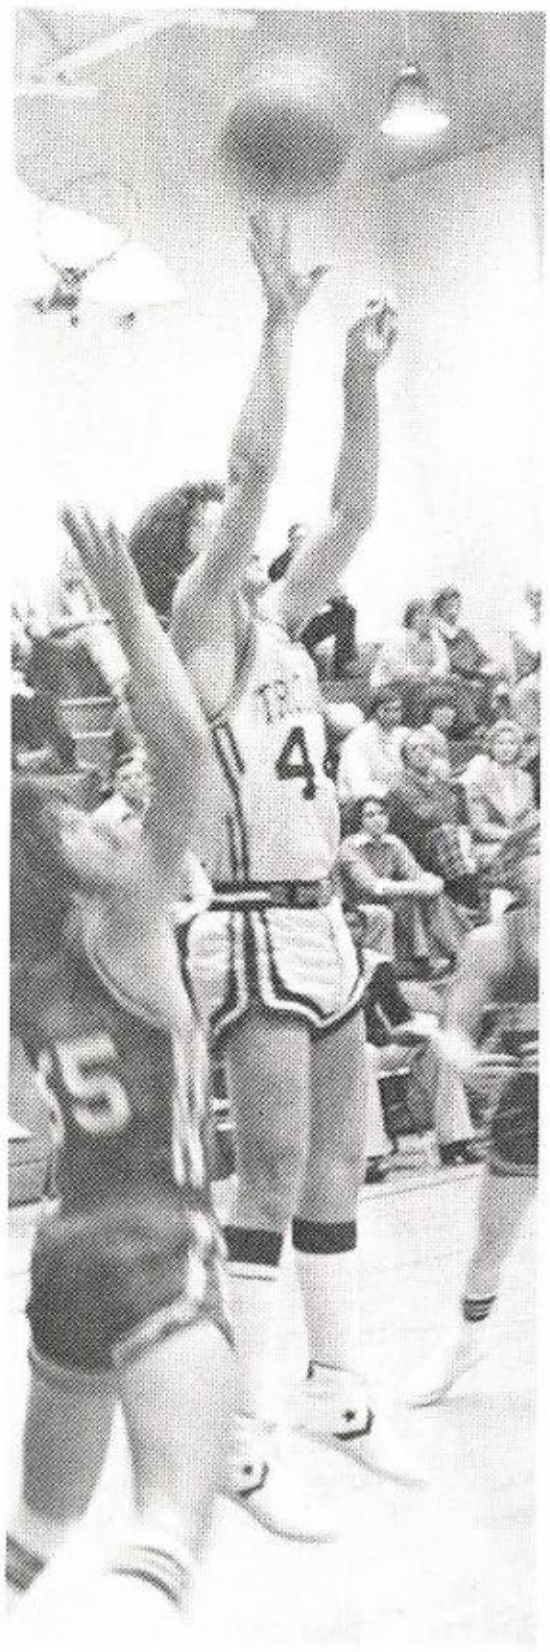


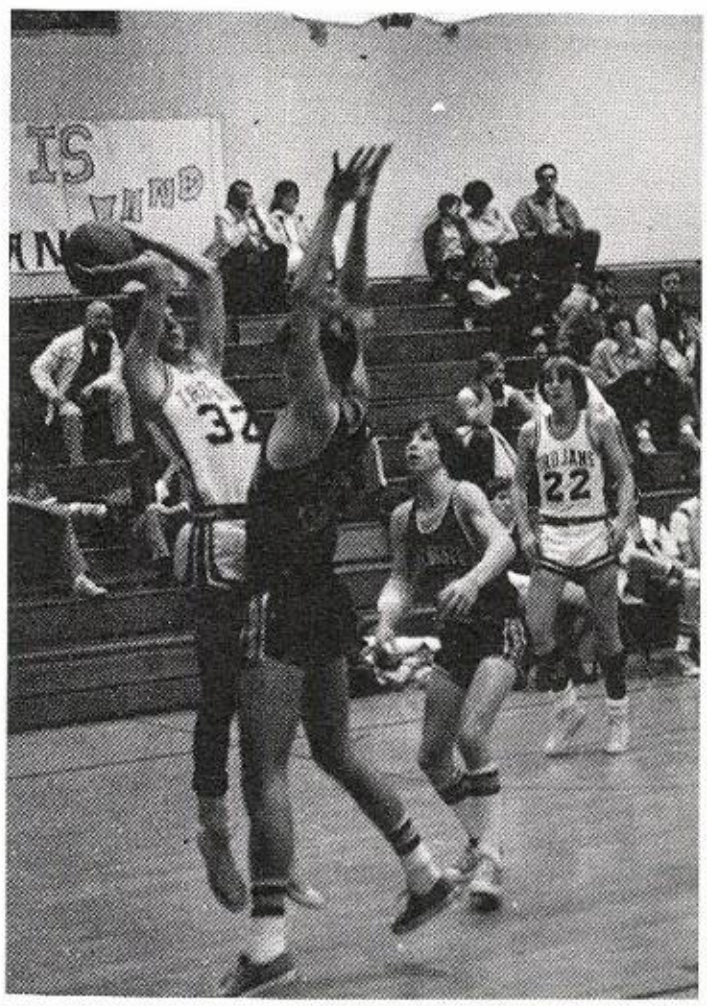
J.V.'s Key On Defense

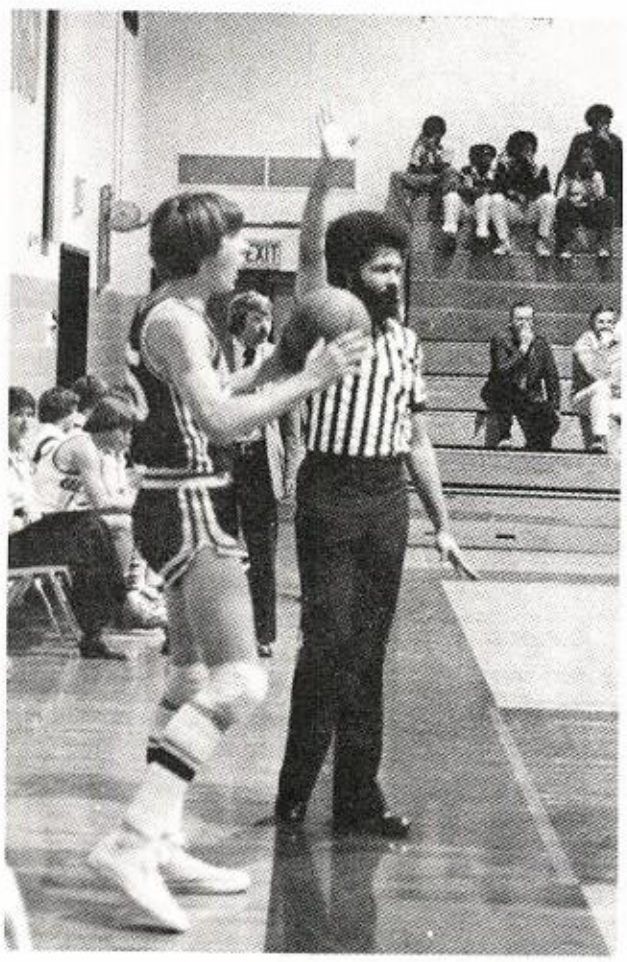
Despite a slow start, the JV team got it together and finished strongly. This team was the best defensive team Coach Olsen has coached in four years at Midlothian. They finished the season with a defensive average of 48.3. The team was led in scoring and rebounding by Paul Frank, followed by Bill Barr and Weegie Thompson.

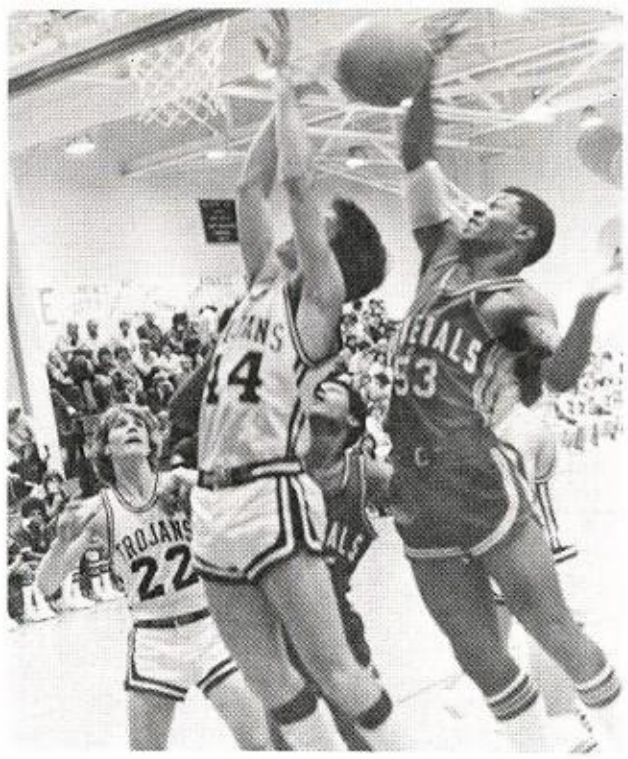
Counterclockwise, from top: Coach Olsen confers with his team. Scott Wauters is set on defense. Weegie Thompson calls for help. Gerg Lescalleet shoots for two; Bill Barr shoots over defense. Mark Abel enjoys the action on court.

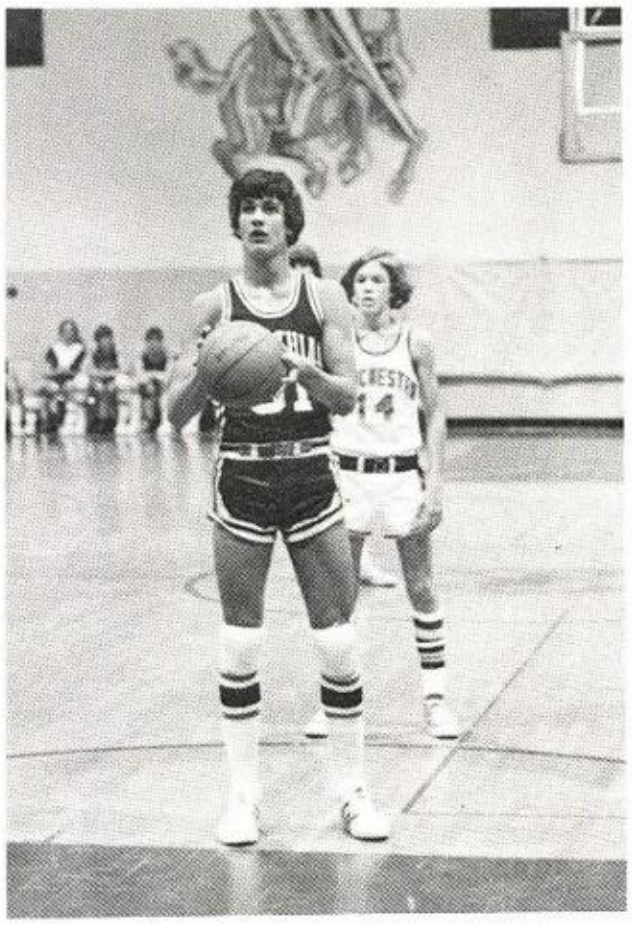


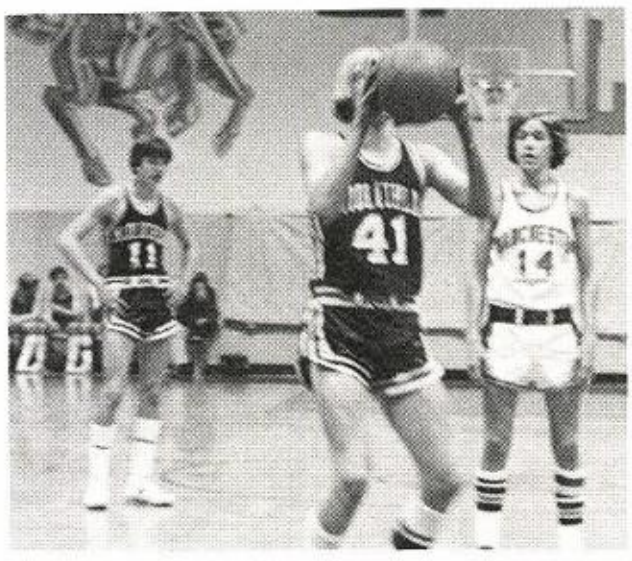


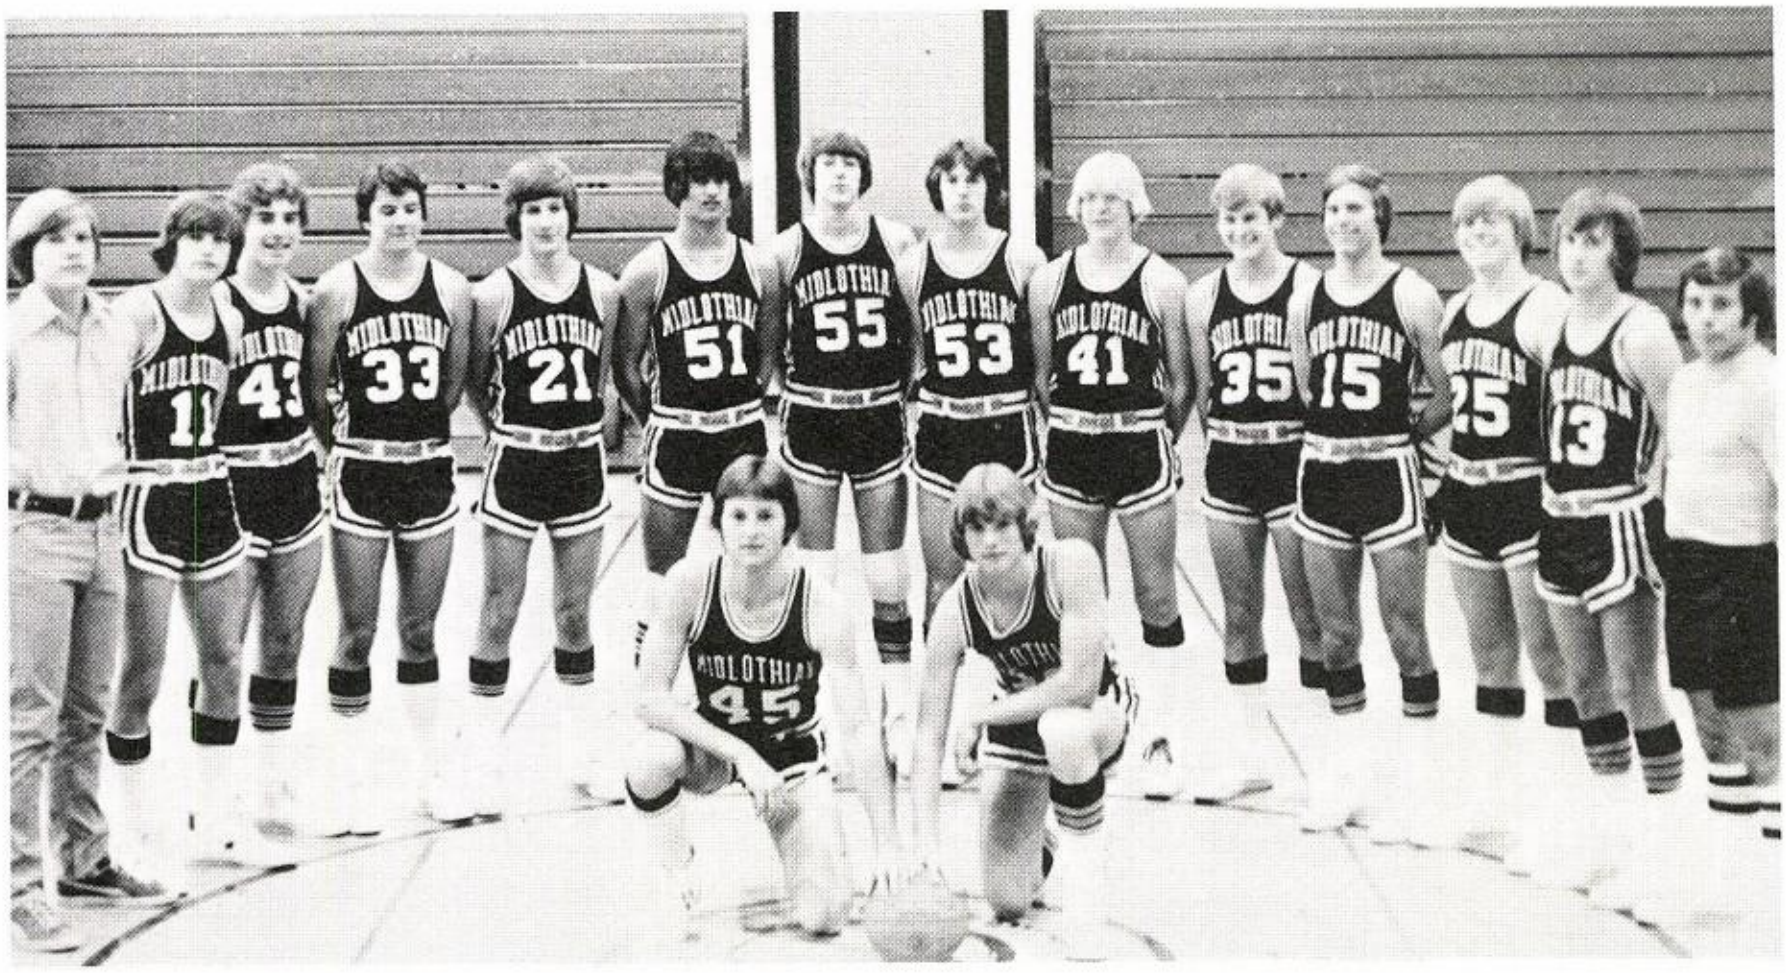












Clockwise, from top: Coach Olsen disagrees with the referee. Paul Frank awaits the rebound. Wrestlers Show Improvement

Although plagued throughout the year with injuries, the Midlothian Wrestling Team continued to improve. They placed fourth in the District Meet and thirteenth in the Regional Meet, which were both better finishes then in previous years. The regular season record was a disappointing 3-9.

Gymnasts Come Alive

Midlothian's gymnastics teams both followed a winning tradition once again this year. Hard work and dedication exhibited by the team members were the keys to their successful seasons. Both teams won District titles, and after finishing well in Regionals went on to qualify members for the State meet. They combined to entertain at a basketball halftime show, and performed an exhibition for the student body to raise money for uniforms.

The 1977 Golf Team proved to be the best Golf Team Midlothian has ever had. The future looks good with two outstanding sophomores returning.

Straight To The Top

As expected the Trojan boys captured the Central District title again this year. They lost several seniors but did a fine job without them. With this season they maintained the Trojans good name.

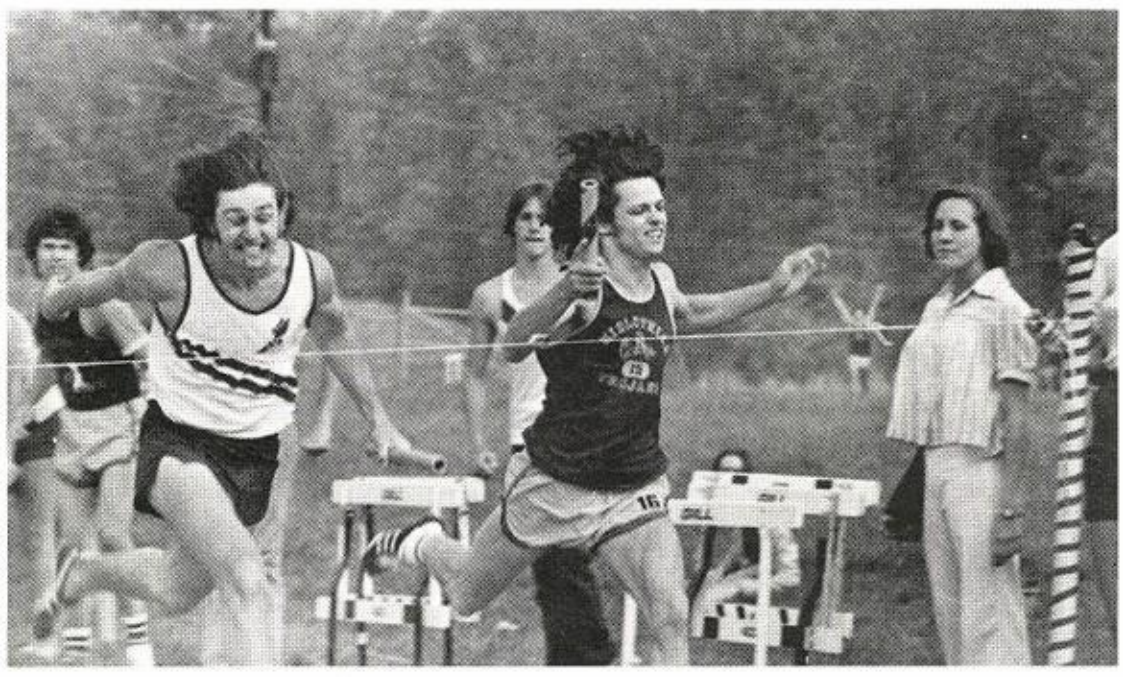
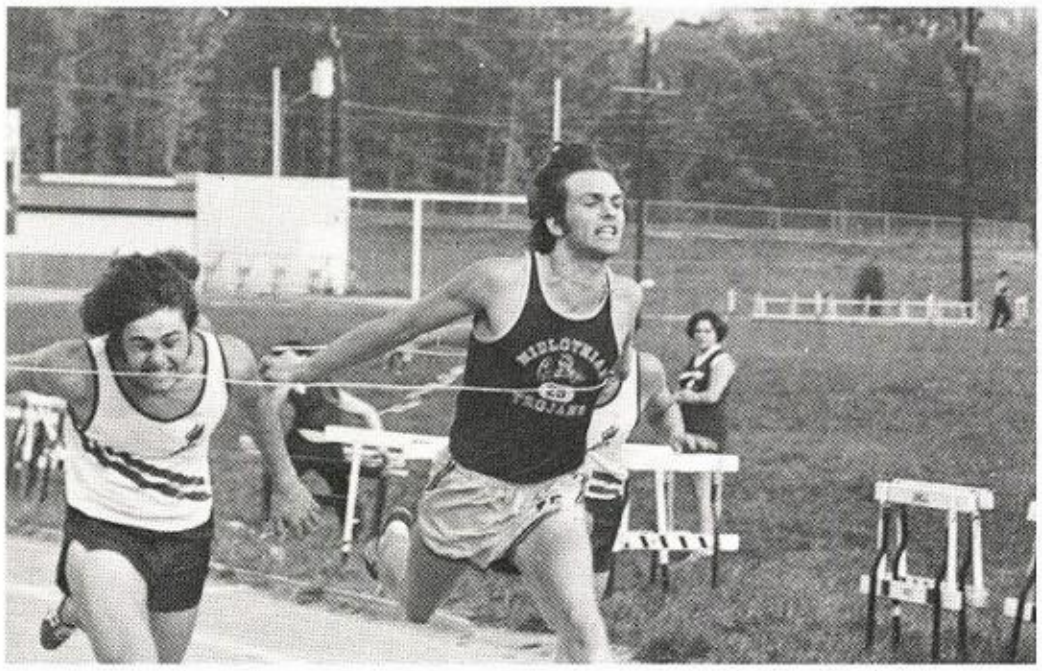
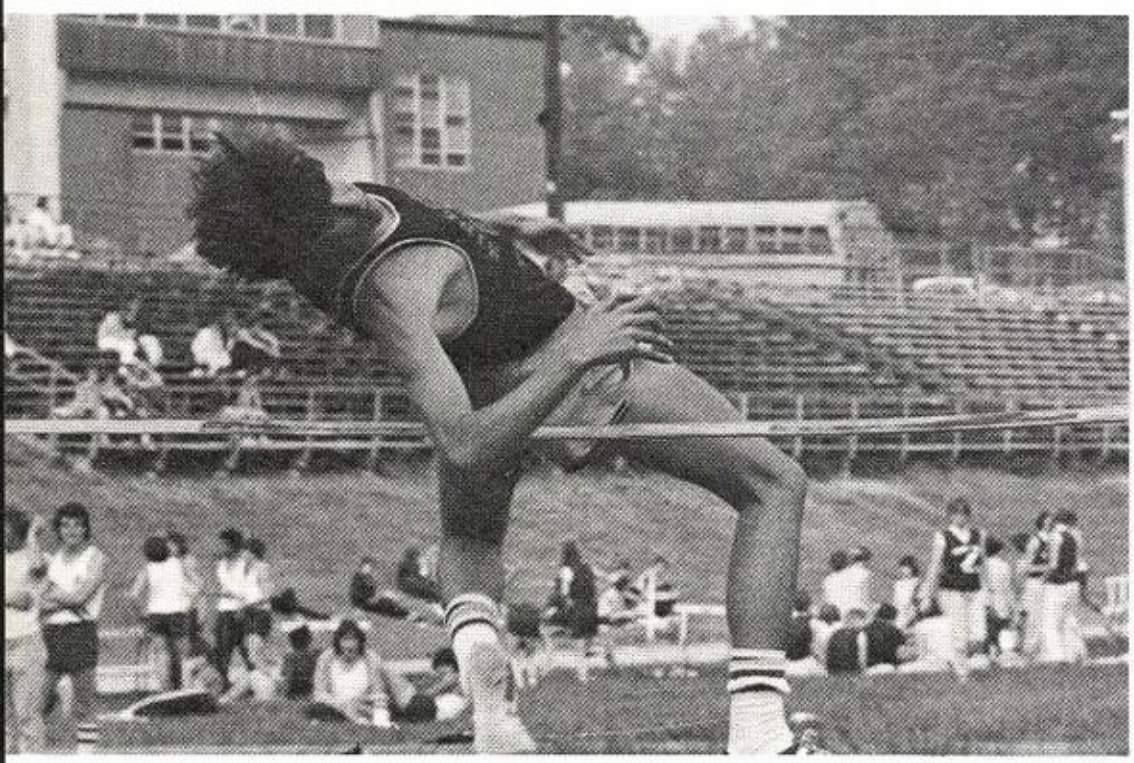
Clockwise starting left: Up, up and away with Gerald Glidewell. Gerald Glidewell puts down his opponent. Mark Rader thinks about his upcoming jump. Scott Wauters arches to clear the height. Over the hurdles we go. Lindsey Watkins gives it everything he has.

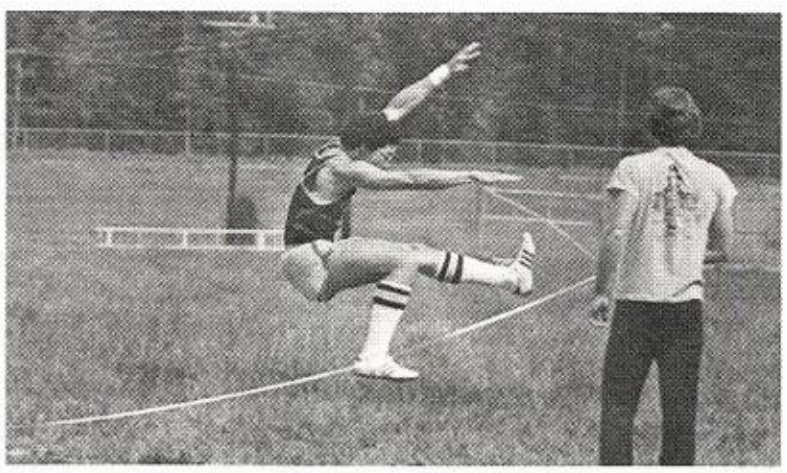


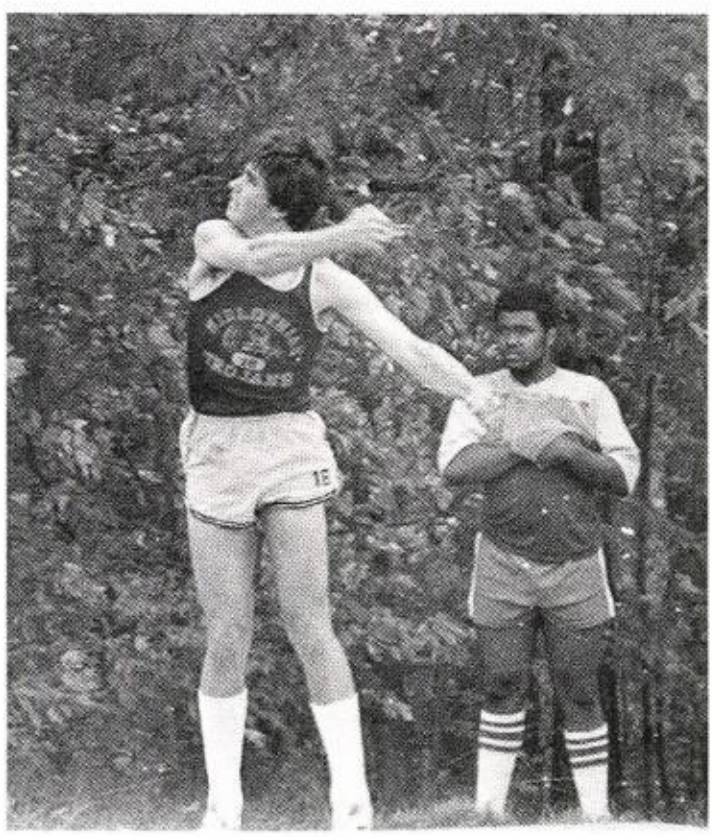


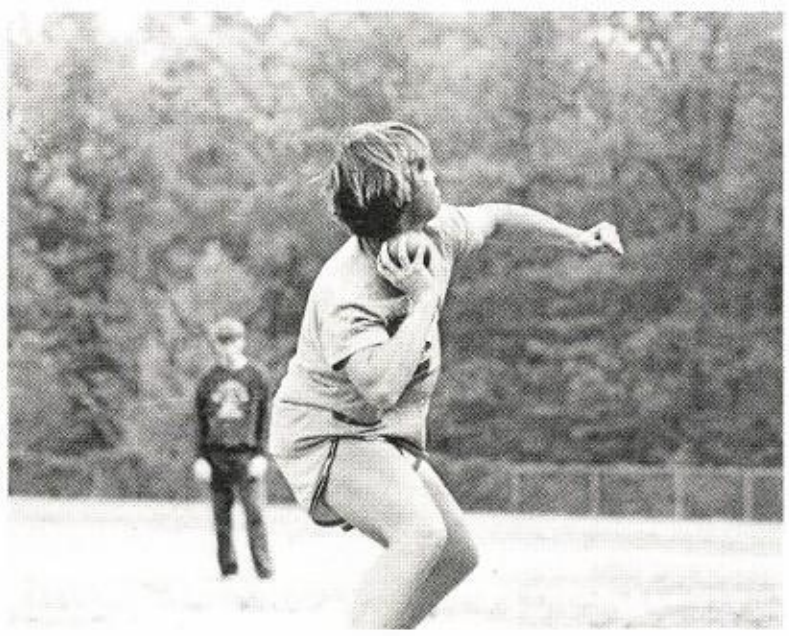
Best Again

After winning the District title they went on to compete in the Regional Track meet at the University of Richmond. They qualified several boys for the state meet and ran some very good times. They placed 5th all around but had some injuries which altered some of their performances.







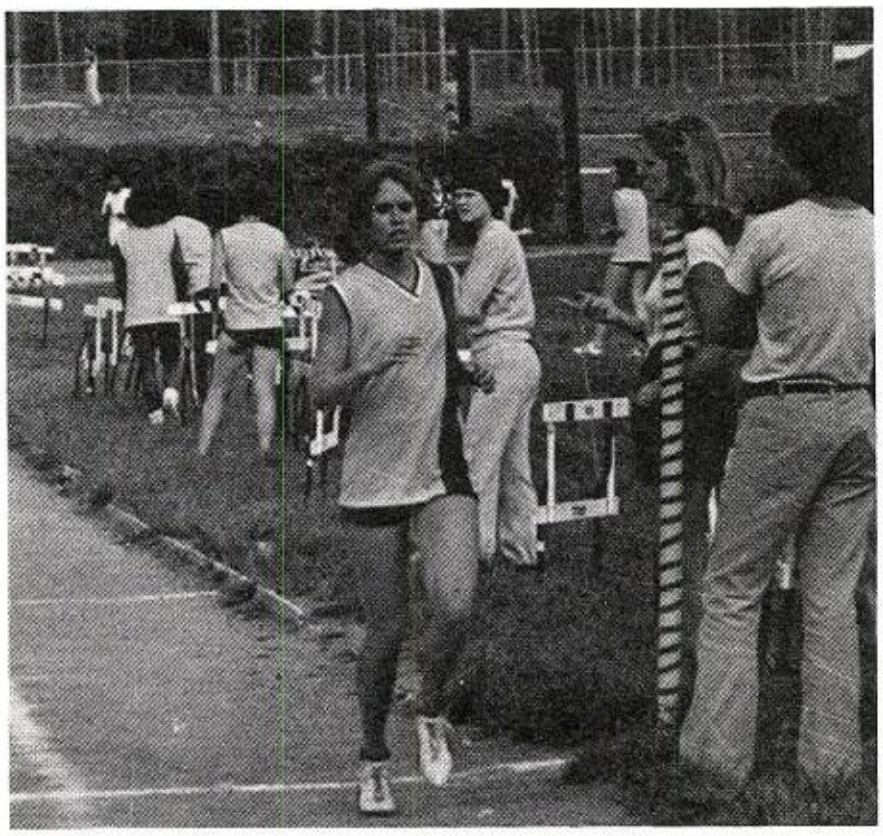


Clockwise starting above: David Smith puts in a good throw for Midlo. Sam Gordon leaps for victory. Whit Williams puts the shot. Gene Bayer proves form is the key to the jump. George Chaconas clears the bar for a good jump. Lee Rider leans for a win. Phillip Stagg pole vaults for the Trojans.

Number 1 Again

Having one of their leading scorers injured the Lady Trojans, entered Regional competition along with the boys at the University of Richmond. A few of the girls qualified for state and they broke several school records. They put on a fine performance and compensated very well for their disadvantages.

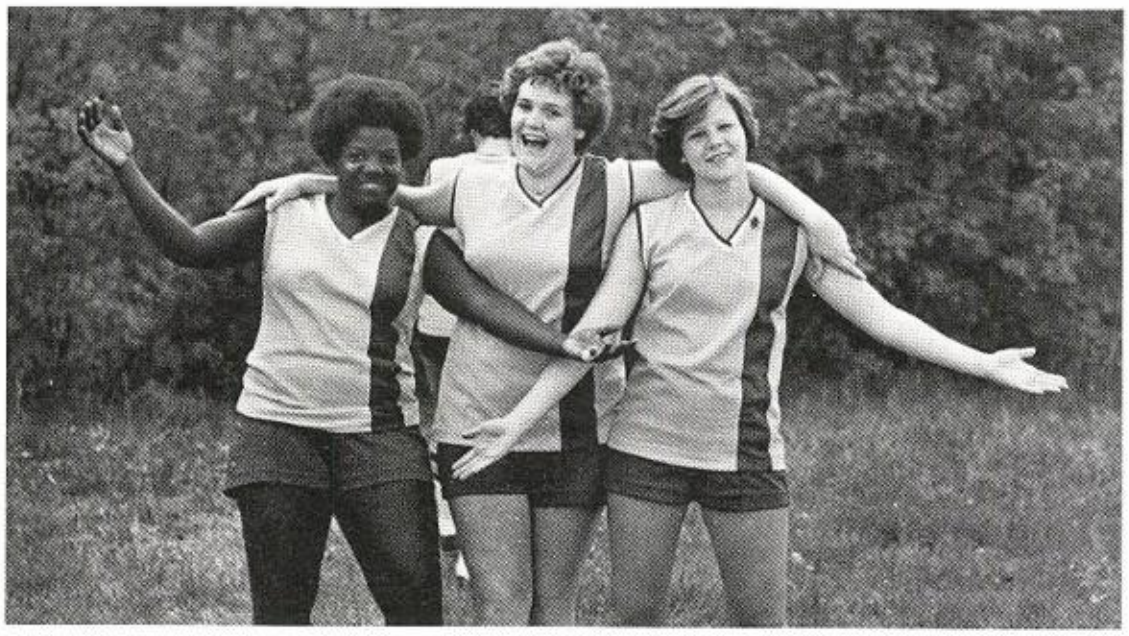
1st Row: Mary Beth Falls, Terri Scruggs, Cheri Swaim, Laura Perry, Lynn Guenther, Danna Scott. 2nd Row: Coach Sherri Cook, manager Alice Doyle, Terri McDaniel, Jennifer Essman, Kathy Lorimer, Kelly Watkins, Colleen Logan, Sarah Dalton. 4th Row: Amber Lakey, Marci Reidel, Michelle Murry, Britta White, Jane Bennett, Kathy Schueler. 5th Row: Terri Bonner, Denise Brown, Coco Collins, Gwen Scott, Ruth Frye, Darnetta Byrd.

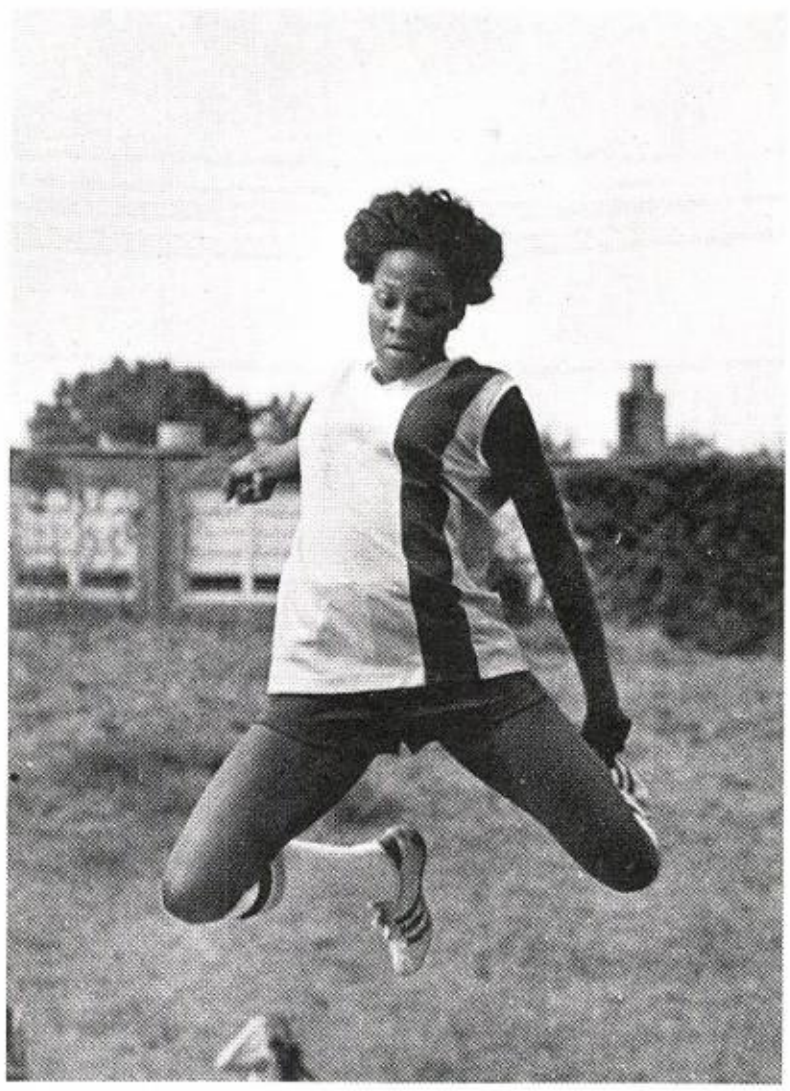


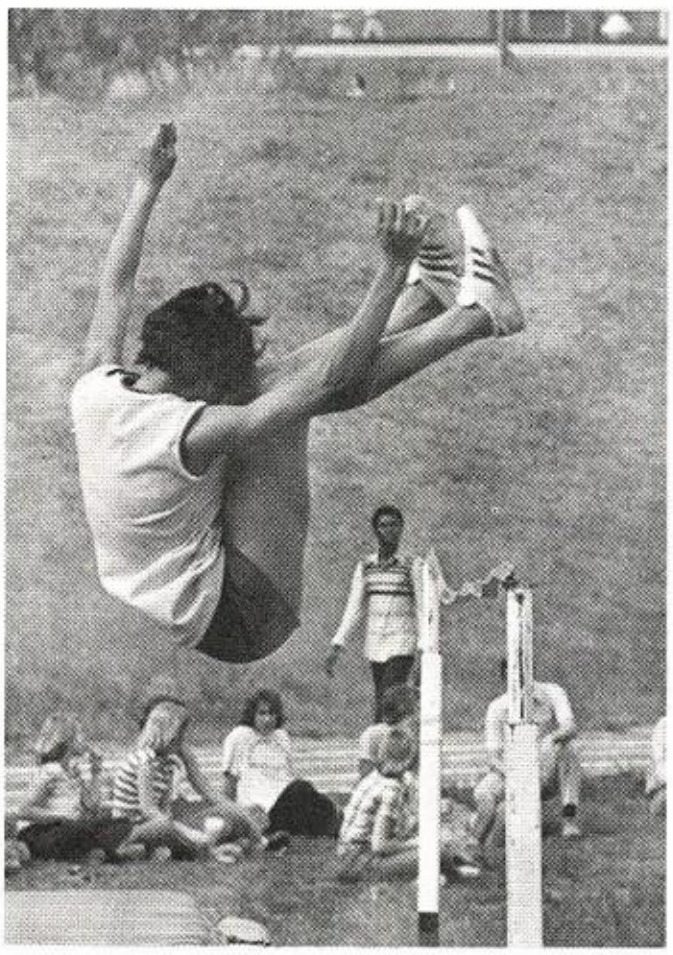
Clockwise starting left: Coco Collins wins the hurdles as usual. Terri McDaniel runs hard all the way through. Mary Beth Falls strides in to win the mile. Britta White clears her height to help the Trojans.

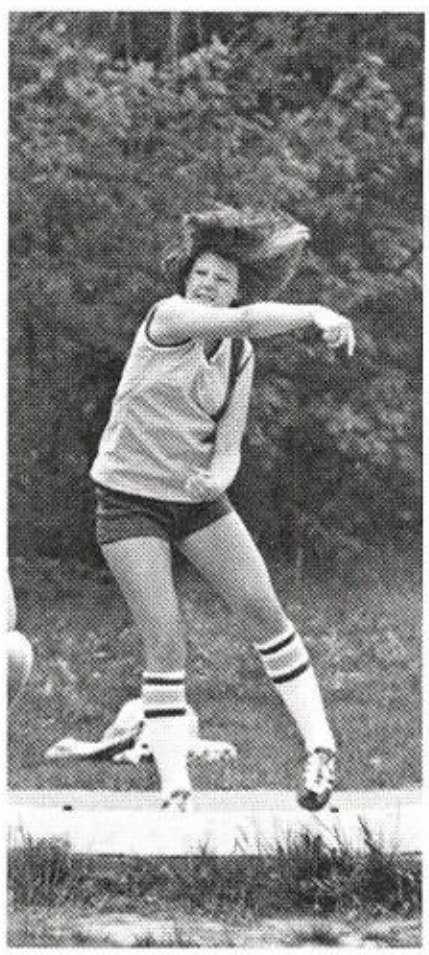
Second to NONE

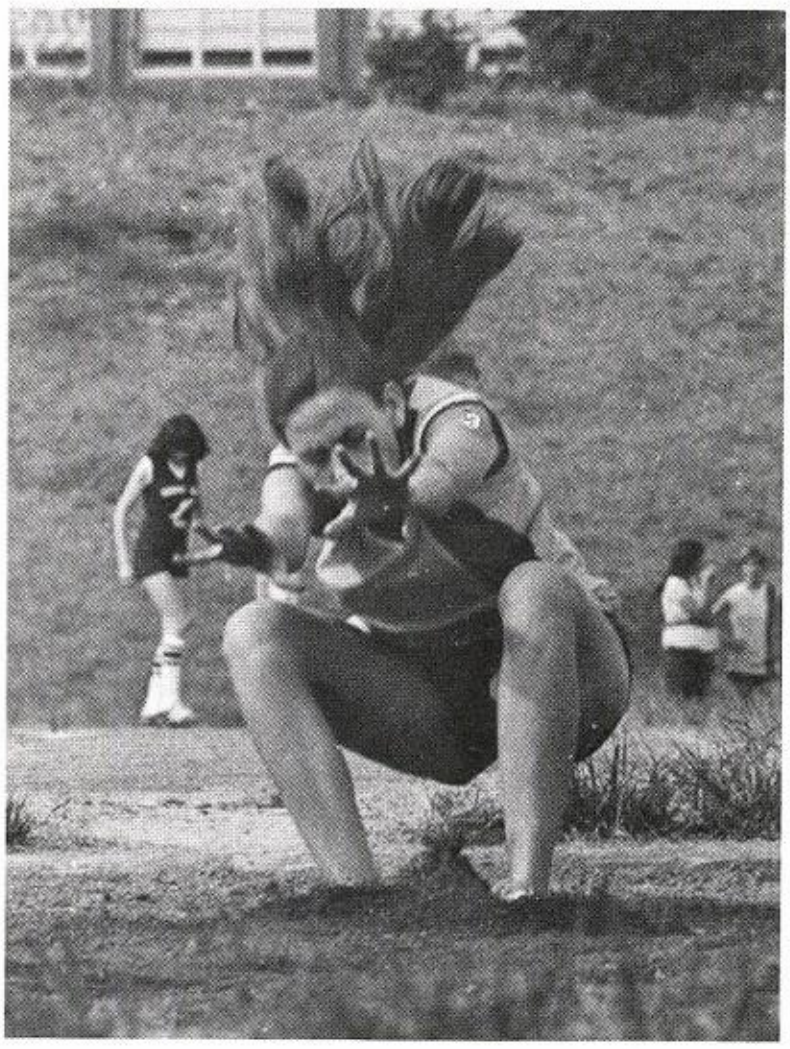
The Lady Trojans improved their season from last year quite a bit. They took revenge this year and won the dual meet season and the District Meet Championship. Having to overcome several injuries this year they pulled it out all the way.

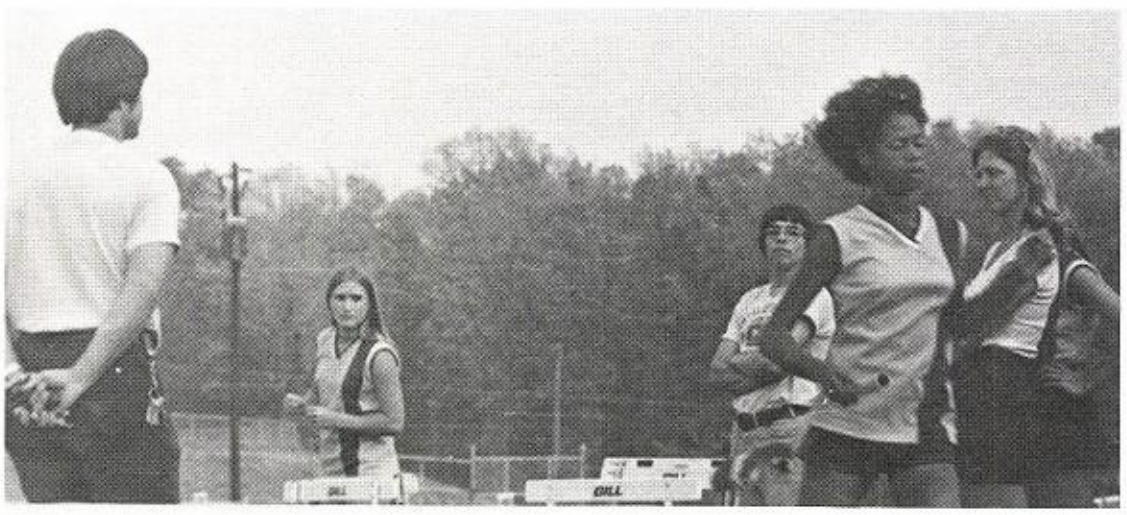




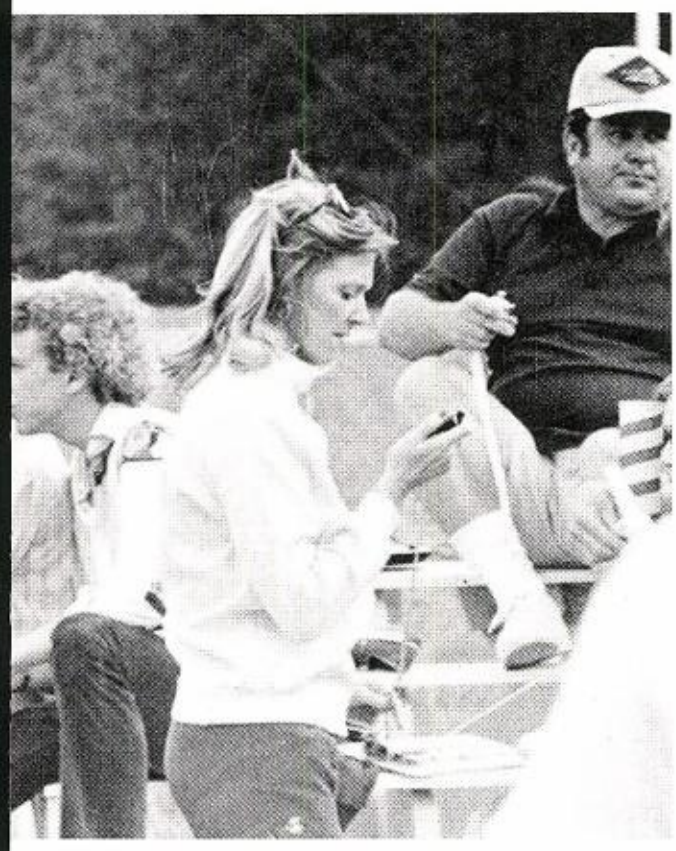




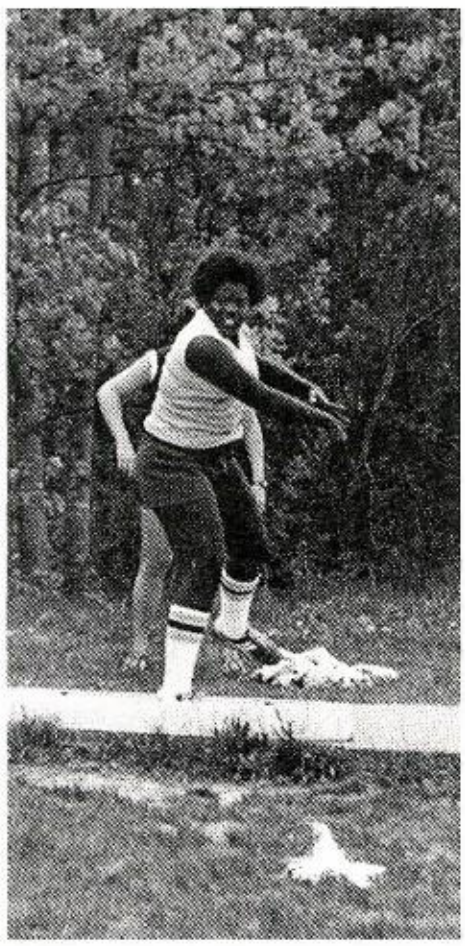


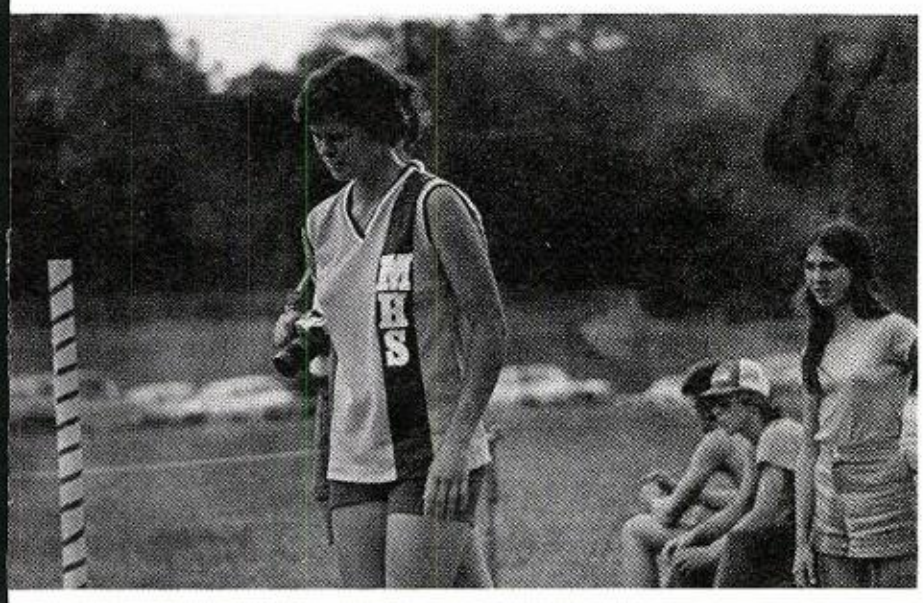


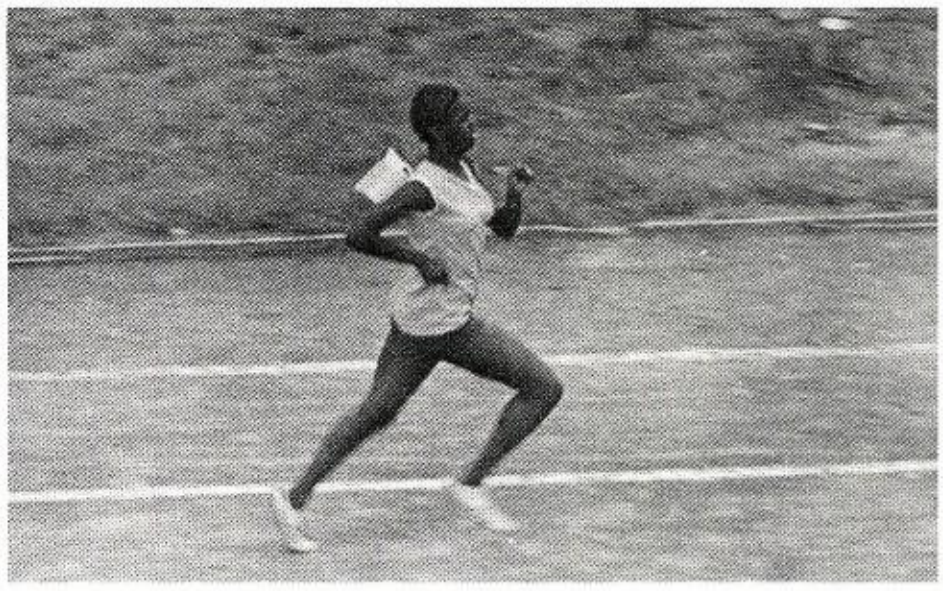
Clockwise starting center: Marci Reidel puts power behind her throw. Gwen Scott comes down after clearing the bar. Terri Bonner, Jane Bennett, and Marci Reidel ham it up. Darnetta Byrd has the height and the form. Colleen Logan reaches forward as she jumps. Spectators watch as Coco Collins finishes the 880 Relay.



Clockwise starting below: Terri Bonner tries for distance. Cheri Swaim finishes the 440 in good shape. Danna Scott prepares for the mile. Ruth Frye runs down the last straight away to finish. Darnetta Byrd runs fast to beat her opponents. Michelle Murray runs hard to beat everyone. Kelly Watkins walks back after she finishes her race. Sarah Dalton and Danna Scott concentrate hard on their strategy to win. Coach Sherry Cook times the runners.







Baseball is Close

This season's mediocre record was the result of losing many close games. With an increase of ten or fifteen runs over the season, the Midlothian Baseball Team could have won the District title. There is hope for next year with strong hitters such as Coulter James and Chip Norford returning.

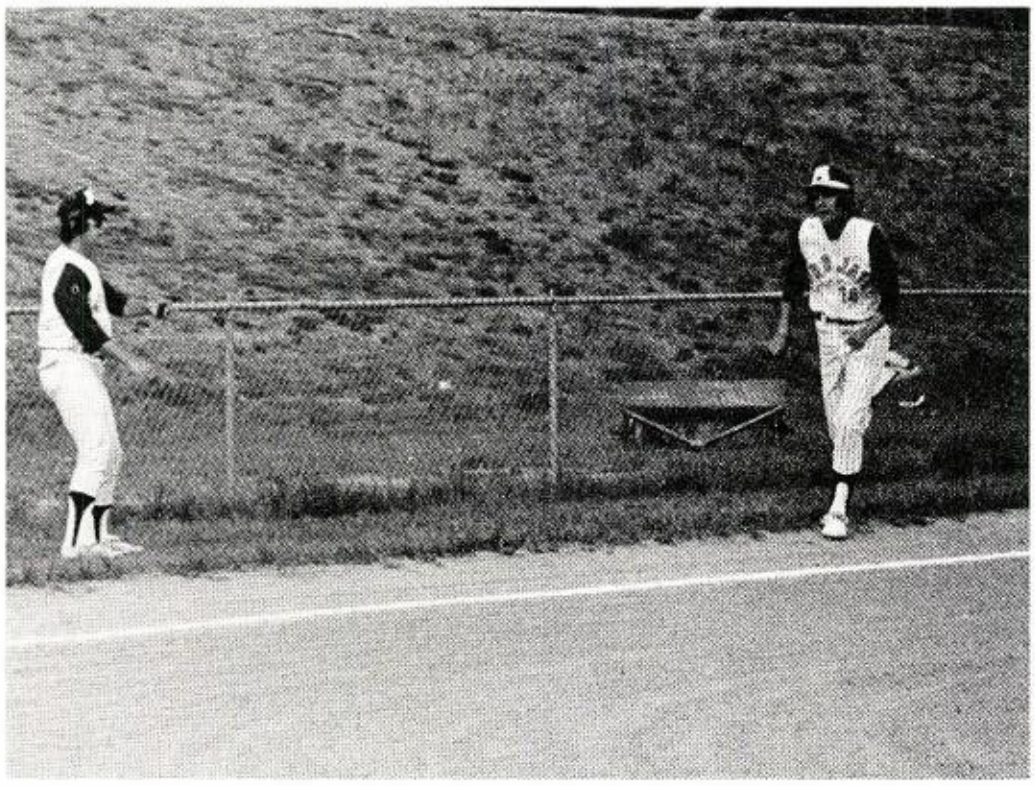
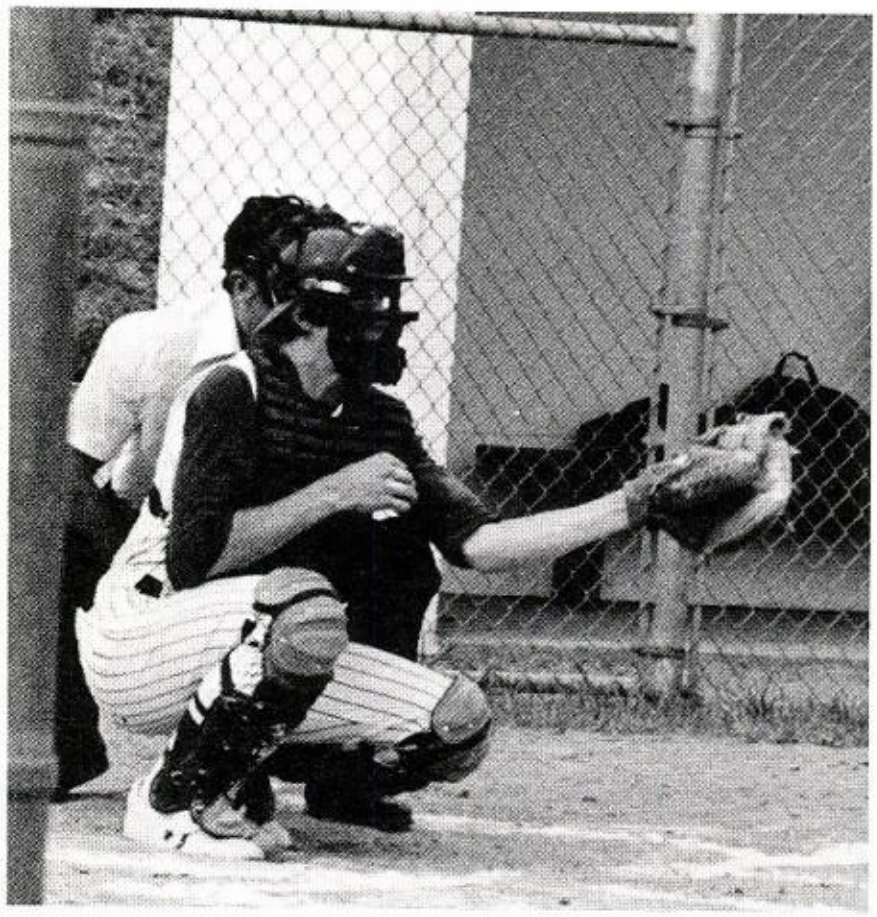
JV Baseball is Back

After two years without a JV Baseball team, the coaches decided it was time to bring it back. This year's team was led by Mitch Lester and Doug Copeland.





Left: Bill Barr receives help from Coach Ron Horning. Above: Mark Florence waits for the ball. Lower left: Kent Emerson smiles. Below: David Estridge and teammates watch from the dugout.

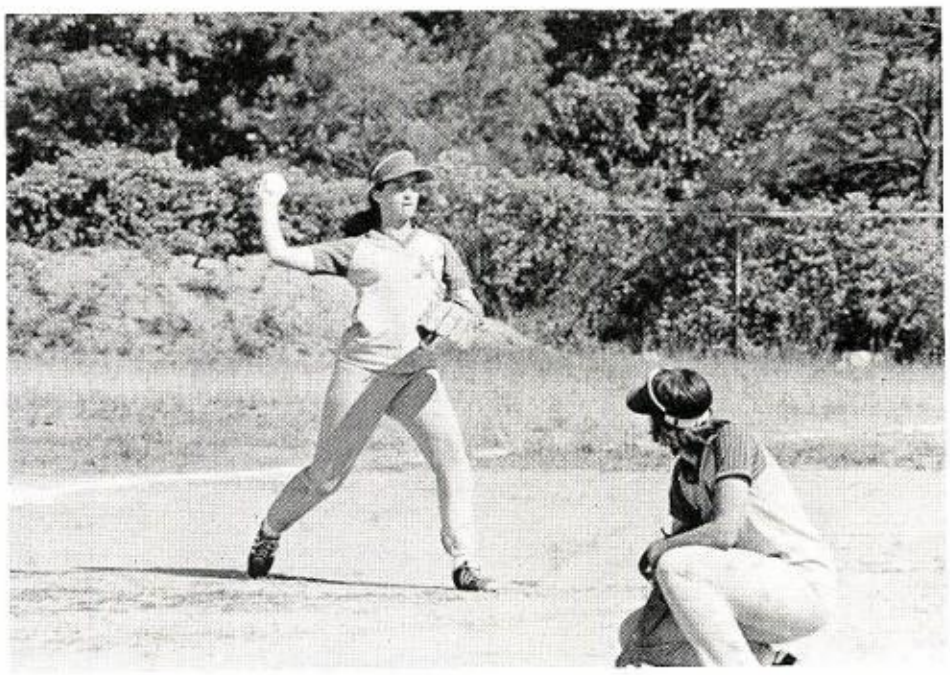
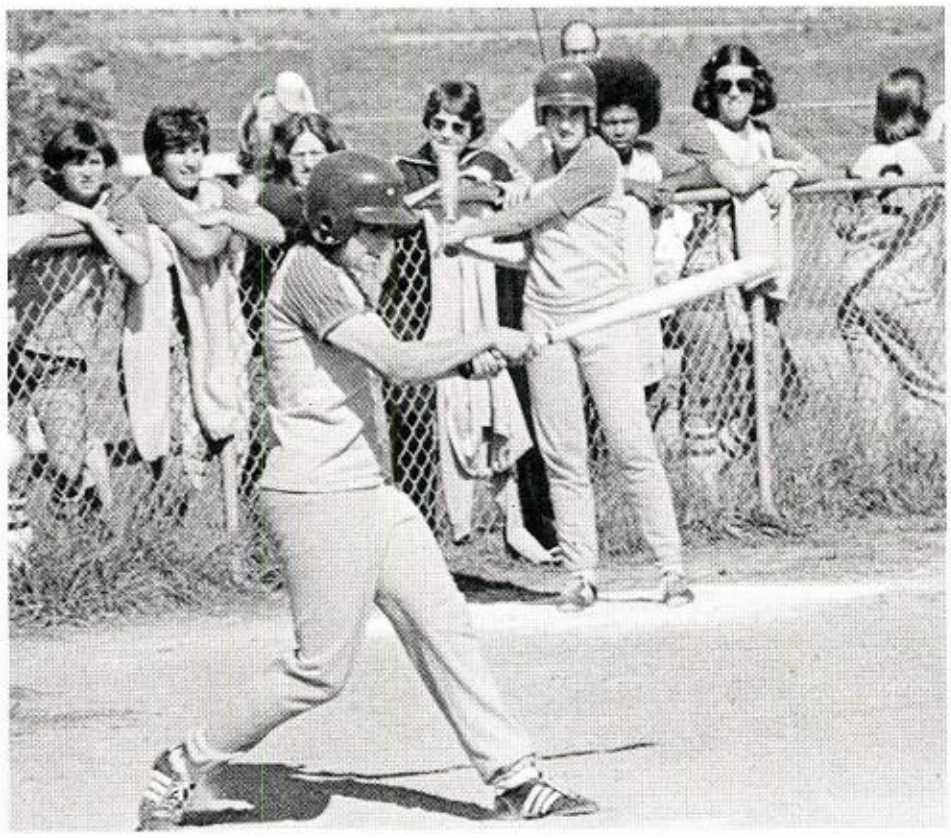
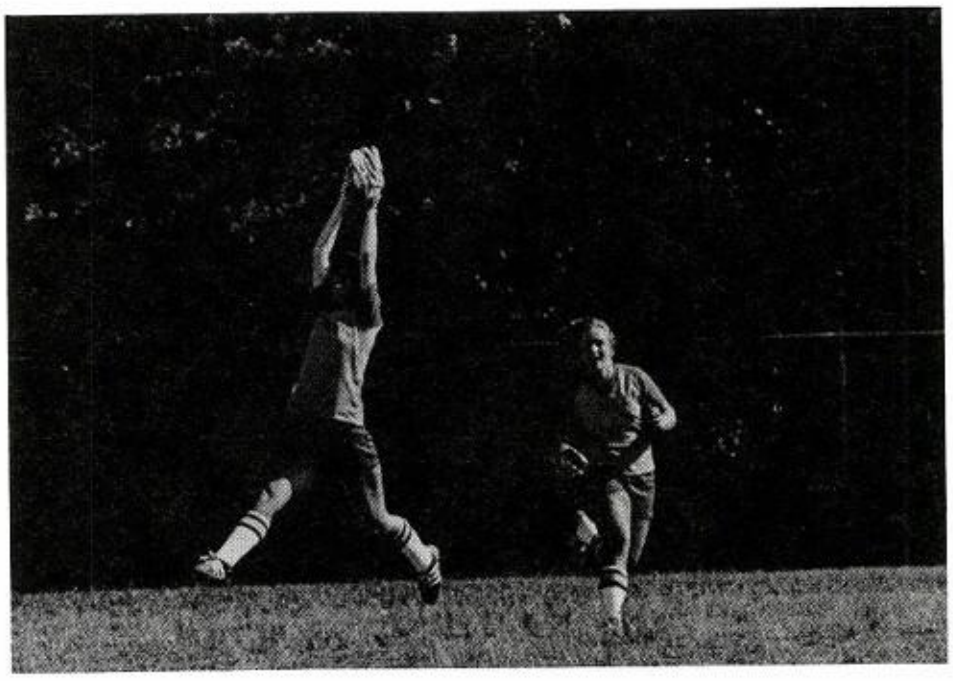
Batter Up!

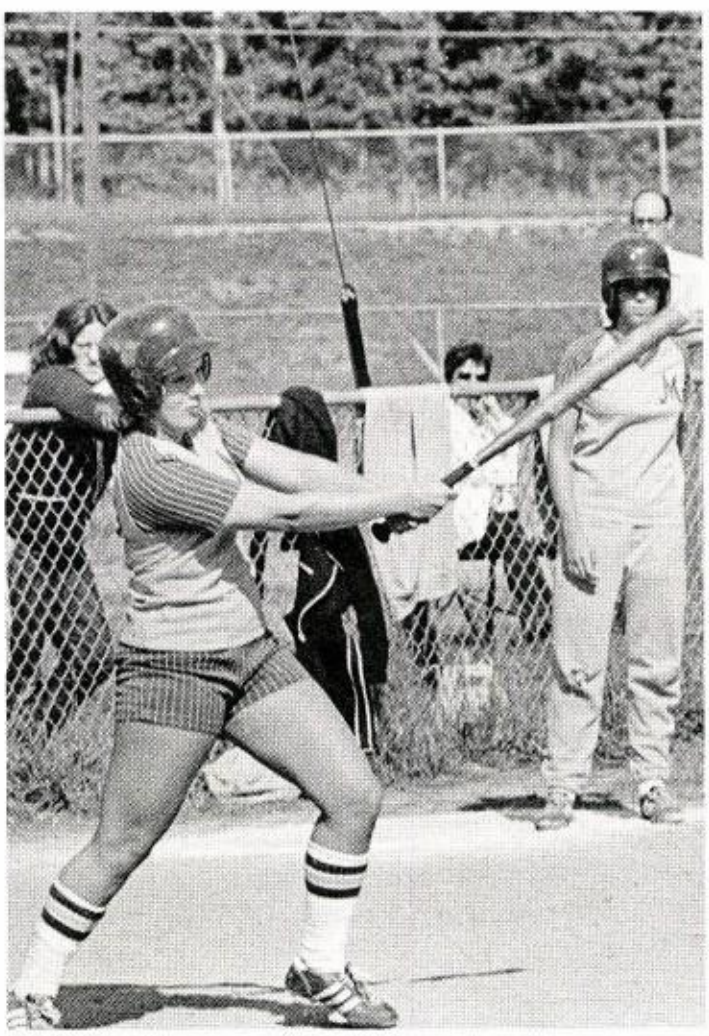
This year the Girl's Softball team had quite a season. They finished fourth in the district and competed in the Central District Tournament.

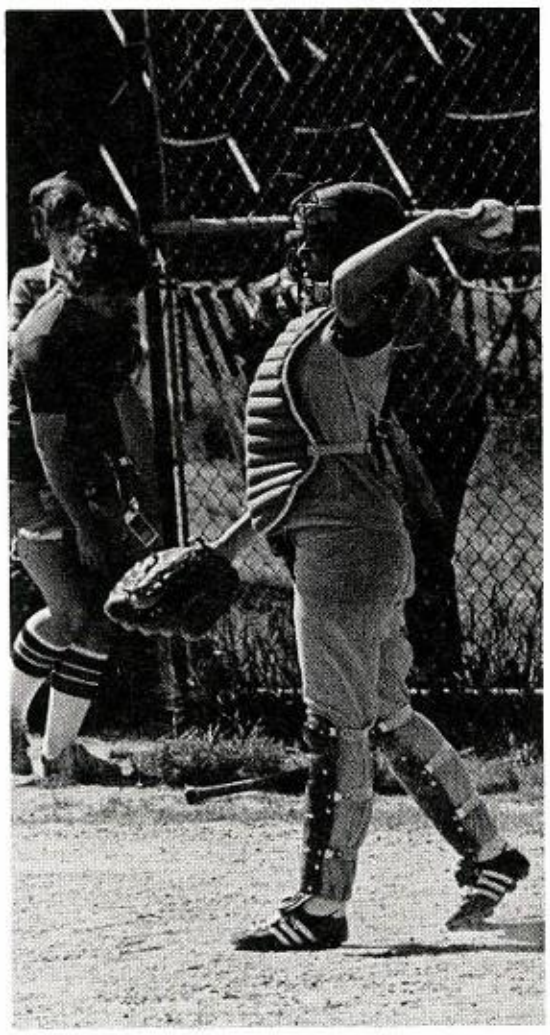
The 1977 Softball Team was a young, determined one and is looking towards next year when they hope to dominate in the district.











Top clockwise: Mary Gallini throws to first base. Karen Knaresboro grabs a fly. Shelly Pereira is all suited up for play. Kathy Rice slugs one. Cindy Lipscomb pitches a fast one. Another Trojan, up to bat.

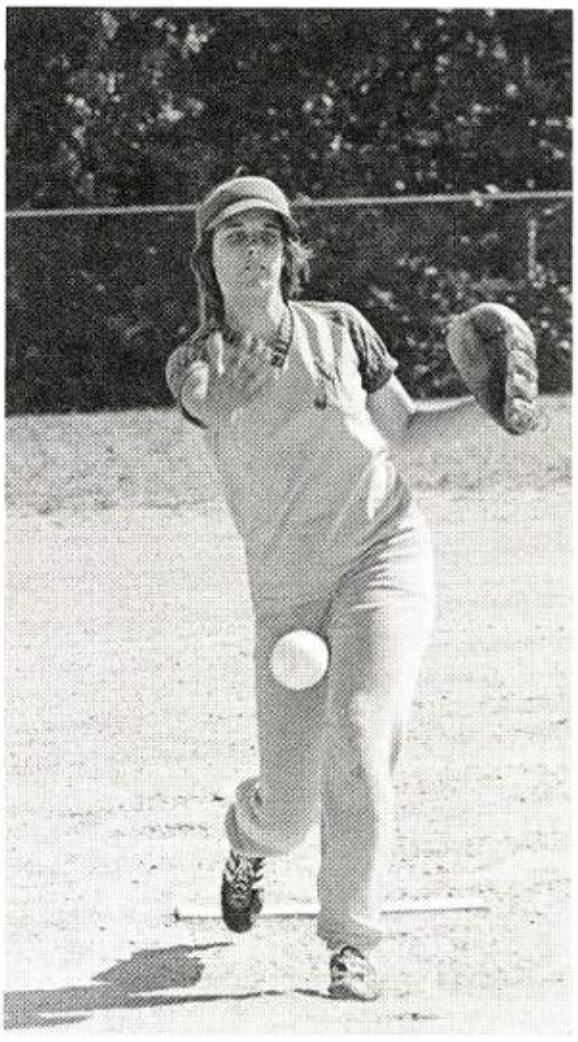
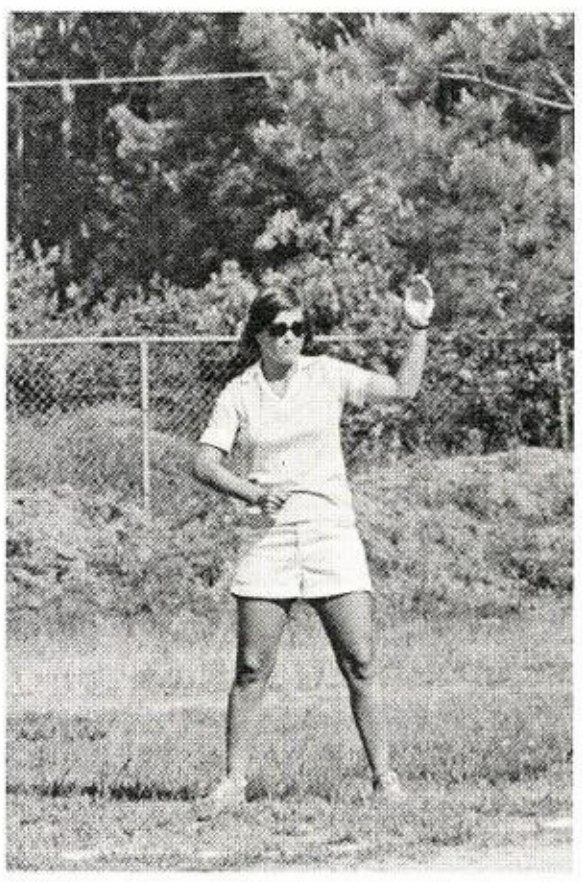
Softball Scores

A lot of hard work and team spirit were both keys in this ears successful season. The team members exhibited fine portsmanship all year and represented Midlothian with high tandards. All agree that it was an exciting, funfilled season to emember.

lockwise: Lori Wauters stretches to make the play. Cindy Lipscomb concen- ates on a strike-out. Miss Bunting signals for a steal. Lori Wauters covers first ase. I can handle this pitch. Jessica Nierle heads for first base. Kathy Rice han- es another pitch.





Tennis, A Success

A winning tradition has been an ingredient in Midlothian Athletics for years. The Boys' Tennis team proved they were no exception by going undefeated this year. This year's team, though a young one, beat their strongest opponent Manchester, 7-2. After re-capturing the Central District Championship the Trojans qualified John Depew for Regional singles as well as doubles competition, teaming with Steve Wilson. The team will have 8 returning players next year and hope to match this years excellence.

Midlo's New Addition—A Success

As the spring sports season came around this year, the line-up had a new member. Girls' Tennis was ready to make its debut.

The team began practicing at Rockwood park and by the time the season opened, Midlothian's first girls tennis team was a solid unit. They captured the district seasonal championship by remaining undefeated, and by qualifying Susan Foster and Tammy Allen for Regional singles competition, with Nancy Saxon teaming with Susan Foster for doubles competition. Looking at the season it is clear to all that Girls Tennis is here to stay.

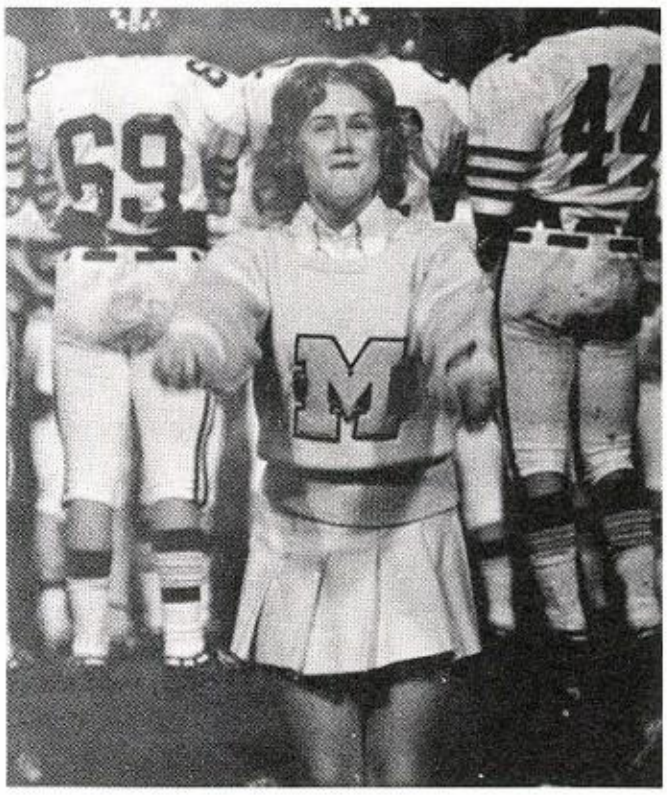
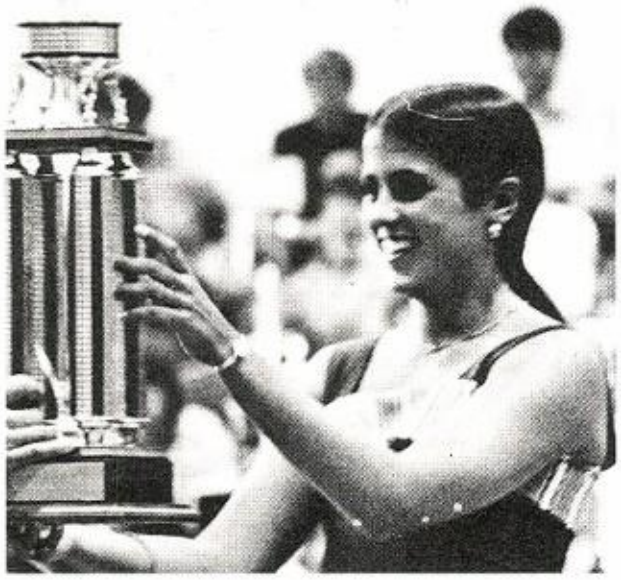
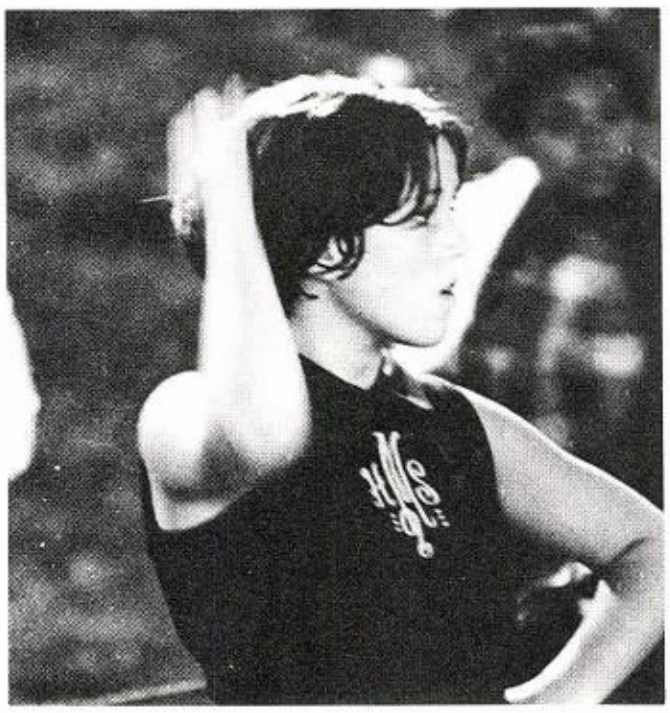
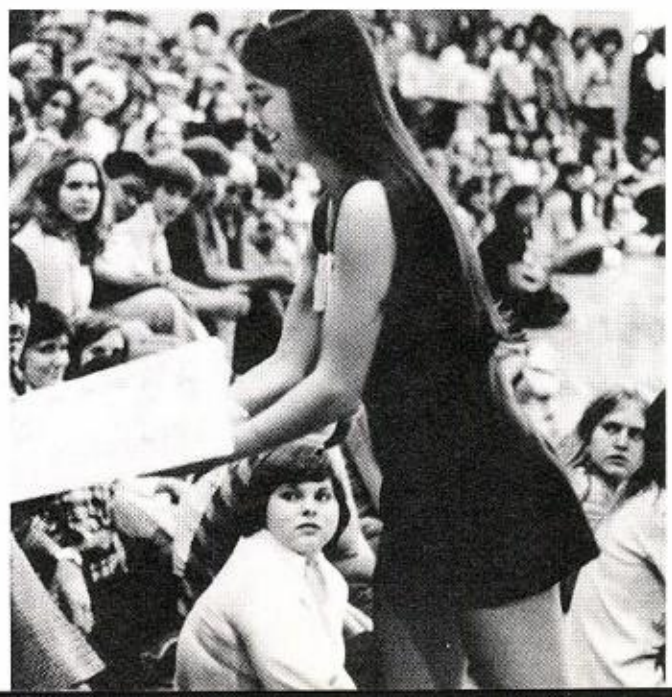
Spirit All The Way

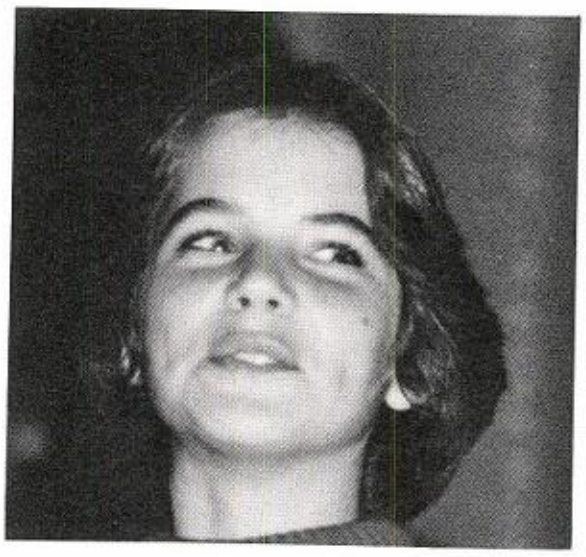
Judy Elliott, Terri McDaniel, Lori Wauters, Julie Worsham, Karen Knaresboro, Carolyn Huntley, Gwen Snead, Jan Evans, Karen Lindsay, Sheryl Purnell, Lanie Odell, and Jan Pond, the Varsity Cheerleaders, attended camp and won first place and received the most-spirited award. They worked hard and like what they do. This was the first year that twelve have been chosen, and it worked.











JV's Do Try

The JV Cheerleaders, Lynn Scarborough, Gigi Ballard, Jenny Sawyer, Tammy Cauthorne, Tracy Restrick, Terri Gerow, Donna Taylor, Trina Ragland, and Terri Scruggs also won first place at camp. They supported their team and did a good job.

Margaret Fowler: Pure determination.
Terri McDaniel: "It's not fair!" But she gets it done anyway.
Cyndee Eubank: Bright eyes, bright smile, bright!
Debbie Jones: Eagerness plus!
Eric Armstrong: "I can have it done tomorrow."
Pam Vines: Self-assurance plus.
Susan Auman: Willingness and efficiency.
Kelly Watkins: "But I can't." But she did.
John Townes: "By the way, how do you like Carter so far?"
Mark Caskie: The reader.
Amber Lakey: "I don't know how to do this."
Brenda Dintiman: ?????????????????? YES!!
Karen Baughan: The game player.

The '77 Trojan uses Ermine Special paper in its entirety. The publisher is Herff-Jones Yearbook Company. The headlines are set in 30 pt., Optima Black. The copy is 10 pt. and the captions are 8 pt., Optima Medium with bold for emphasis. The cover is lithograph and in full color. Approximately nine hundred books were sold, and the book contains two hundred and eighty pages.

Betsy Belsha: very quiet
Paul Gresham: OPPOSITE OF ABOVE
Danny Harvey: Easy-going agreeability.

Karen Hough: "I don't like History."
Laura Davis: "We never get the pictures we ask for."
A.J. Szumski: "I can't, I have to . . ."
Larry Griggs: photography, navy, old cars, air force, tennis, marines, GIRLS.
Robin Sowell: "I don't know . . . John did it, or maybe Debbie did. Ohhhh, I don't know . . ."
Phyllis Haney: A patient Redhead? Impossible, But True.

Thank you for a great year,
J.W. Pollard, Jr.

Editor's Notes

The 1977 staff began their year last July by traveling in a three car "follow the leader" caravan to Gettysburg, Pennsylvania. We visited the Herff-Jones plant to get a better understanding of how yearbooks are processed and published.

The staff spent many hours during the summer and school year having money making projects in order to make some improvements on our book to the benefit of the school. The staff helped with the distribution of the '76 Trojan at the signing party in August.

Like sprinters at the starting line waiting for the race to begin, the opening of school started the concentrated efforts of the staff. The publication of a book that would try to please the student body is the reward they hope to receive at the end of the race.

There are many people who have participated in the event and the staff wishes to thank them for their time and effort.

To Mr. Pollard, our sponsor, many thanks for your time, encouragement, suggestions and support. Through his efforts we feel that this book will be one long remembered by the students.

To Charlie Whitley, our representative to Herff-Jones, for answering many questions, a number of which were of the $64,000 variety, and for giving us helpful suggesstions.

The staff would like to thank Mrs. Linder of Thalhimers, who was responsible for the Senior portraits. Also to Jess Pinell of Delmar Studios, who has taken the Junior and Sophomore pictures for many years.

Thank you Mr. Poates for all the assistance you have given the staff.

The Trojan staff deserves most of the credit for putting their creativity down on paper. Thank you for the many hours of hard work in order to "beat the clock." To Phyllis Haney, our typist, who had to put up with the late pages to meet a deadline.

The photographers should be commended for the great job they did in running prints and cooperating with the staff members.

Thanks to our many patrons and teachers for putting up with the many interruptions.

Our race is nearing the finish line and each of us on the staff has learned a great deal. We started out as individual participants, but soon formed a team. Thank you for letting me serve as captain of this team effort. The work has been hard, the hours long and the concentration required, great. To my team members, many, many thanks for making this yearbook a reality.

May each of you enjoy victory, satisfaction and reward in "The Games People Play." ~Margaret Fowler

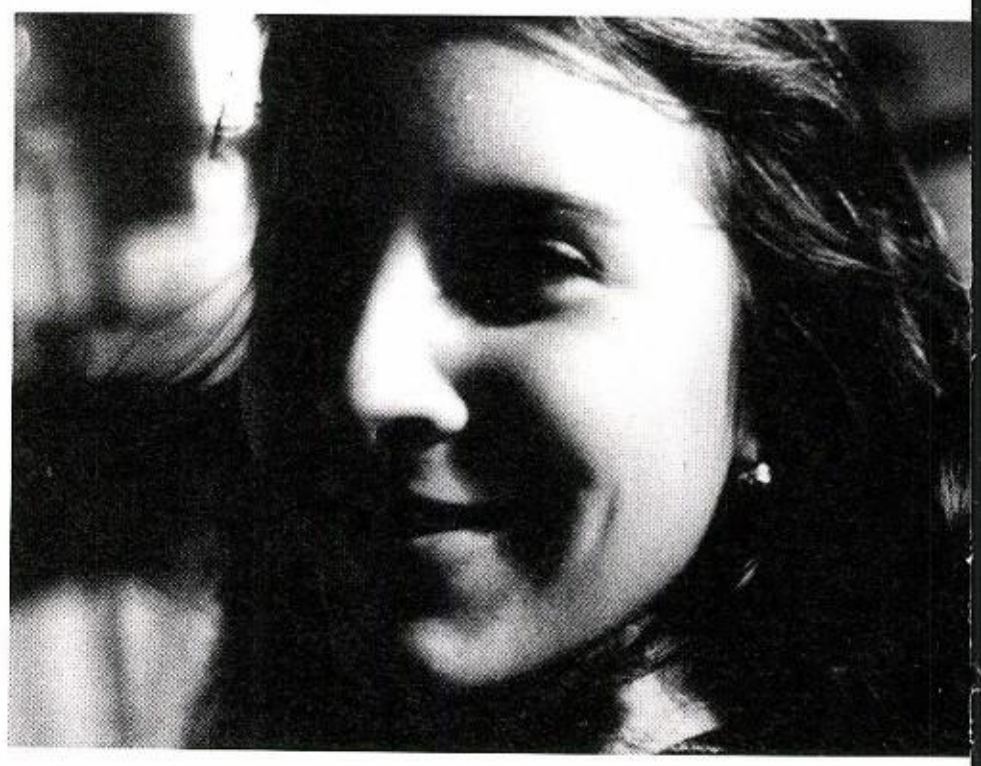
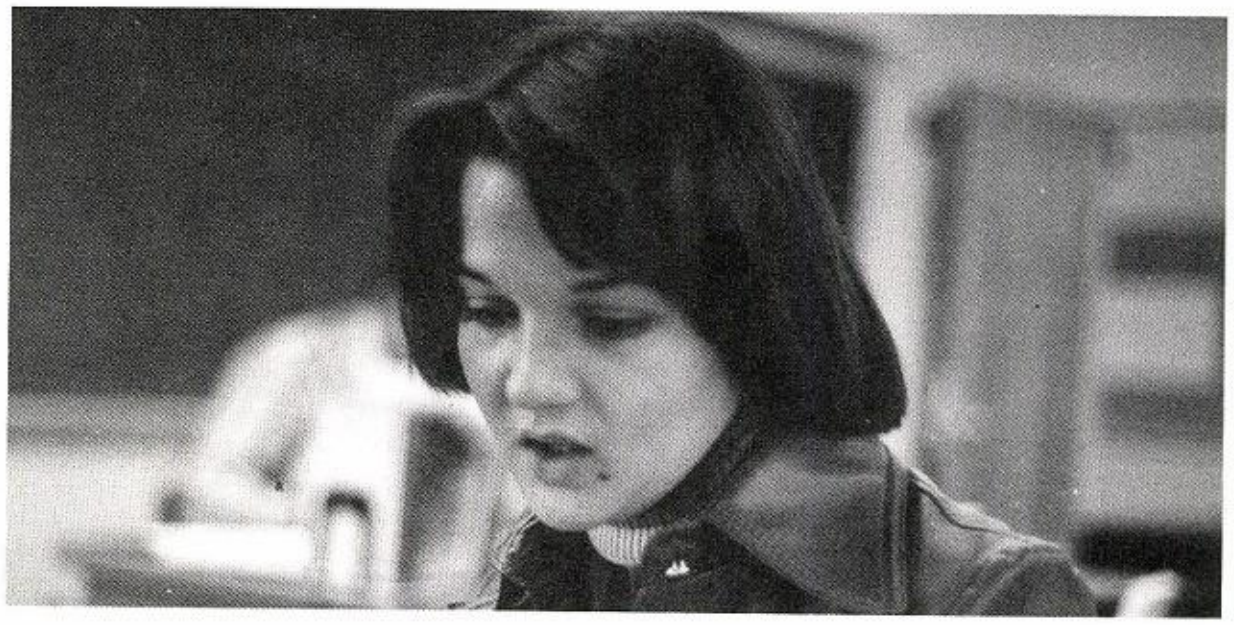
Some Games Never End

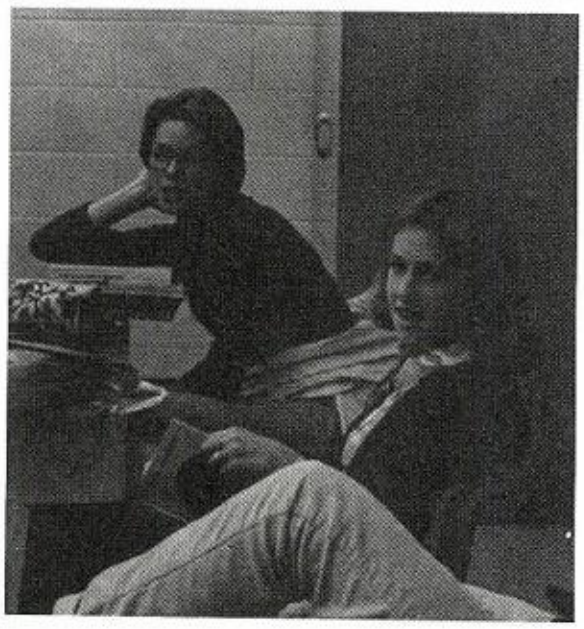


Each day we meet a new challenge, and sharing it with those around us eases the sorrows and enhances the joys. We go forward with our games because they go on continually and never end . . .

Class of '77

There are Winners and Losers





No matter if you win or lose;
it's how you play the game that counts. Some people are born winners, and some are born los-
ers. No matter what happens,
something is always learned.

Experiences

However painful
However happy
Through tears of hurt
Through tears of joy
It matters not–
Something is always learned,
Knowledge becomes a treasure gained.
